HIGHLIGHTS OF 1950

MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT - Under leadership of Herbert Palmberg 328 members were enrolled with a value of $4400.00. This successful effort did much to make possible our membership gains in 1950.

SWIMMING - Over 900 boys and girls, men and women have been given swimming lessons during the year. The 350 boys and girls provided with free instruction during the annual YMCA - Astorian-Budget Learn to Swim effort is an all time high. 57 boys and girls from Astoria 7th grades were given free instruction during school time as part of a long term program to eliminate non-swimmers.

SPONSORED MEMBERSHIPS - 39 boys and girls whose economic status prohibits their paying the small membership fee have been given memberships made possible through our many friends who carry sustaining memberships in the "Y" year after year.

ADULT HOBBY SCHOOL - Fourteen courses offered during the year enrolled 230 adults with the following subjects given: Photo tinting, portrait sketching, beginning and advanced ceramics, oil painting, leatherwork, textile painting, copper tooling, figurine painting, square and couple dancing.

HOBBY ROOM USE - In addition to hobby school use, this new addition to our facilities has been used regularly for boys and girls handcraft classes, Hobby Potters, movies, potlucks and board meetings.

FAMILY OF THE YEAR - The 1950 choice for Family of the Year was the L.C.Sauer family, elected by a committee of the board from among active church families of the community. The YMCA has long been interested in wholesome family life and takes this opportunity to recognize one family each year. A family membership in the YMCA was presented to them as tangible evidence of appreciation for their active participation and leadership in church activities, their community interests and their exemplification of and interest in YMCA ideals.

HI-Y CLUBS AND YMCA YOUTH AND GOVERNMENT - Six Clatsop county youths from the two Seaside, and the Knappa-Svensen clubs participated in the pre-legislative sessions in Portland and in the sessions of the youth legislature in Salem in this citizenship training program of the YMCA. 1950 saw re-organization of the Astoria club under the capable leadership of Stanley Glick. All clubs participated in a county-wide induction at the First Christian Church and in an officers' training conference held at the new Tillamook YMCA.

SQUARE AND CIRCLE - 57 persons were regular members of this group during 1950, enjoying square and couple dancing which continues to increase in popularity as a recreational activity.

CHRISTIAN EMPHASIS - Among activities during the year were youth services and movies at Easter, religious movies during the year, and the annual playing of Christmas music over the public address system for enjoyment of the community.

35th ANNIVERSARY - The 35th anniversary of the opening of our present building was celebrated on March 28 with 250 persons taking part.

ARMED SERVICES - The civilian plant continues serving many military personnel with use of physical facilities and residence rooms. The Armed Services Branch inaugurated a gym and swim program using our building on occasional Sunday afternoons. The Committee of Management and the Executive Secretary, Russell Walker, are to be congratulated for the progress made in 1950 in spite of severe financial problems.

BUILDING REPAIRS - The old hazardous stairway leading to the tennis court was replaced with materials donated by local building firms and labor donated by Herbert Palmberg and the Piledrivers Local. An emergency was created by closure of the gas company necessitating purchase of an igniter burner to operate our heating plant. Several hundred dollars was all that was available for small miscellaneous repair jobs leaving many major projects left undone.

OUTLOOK FOR 1951

FINANCES - The following figures are quite revealing.

YEAR	COMMUNITY CHEST Request	Received	Total YMCA Income	% of total Residence YMCA Income Provided by Chest	Rooms Income
1948	10,980	10,533	20,569	51%	$3951
1949	11,704	8,543	20,670	41	4114
1950	13,980	5,929	18,429	32	2562
1951	13,216	7,329	?	?	?

The tentative income budget for 1951 is $20,355. This is a bare minimum in view of increased costs of materials, personnel, and social security. This cannot be achieved without further substantial increases in membership income in the face of a continuing further decrease in residence room revenues.

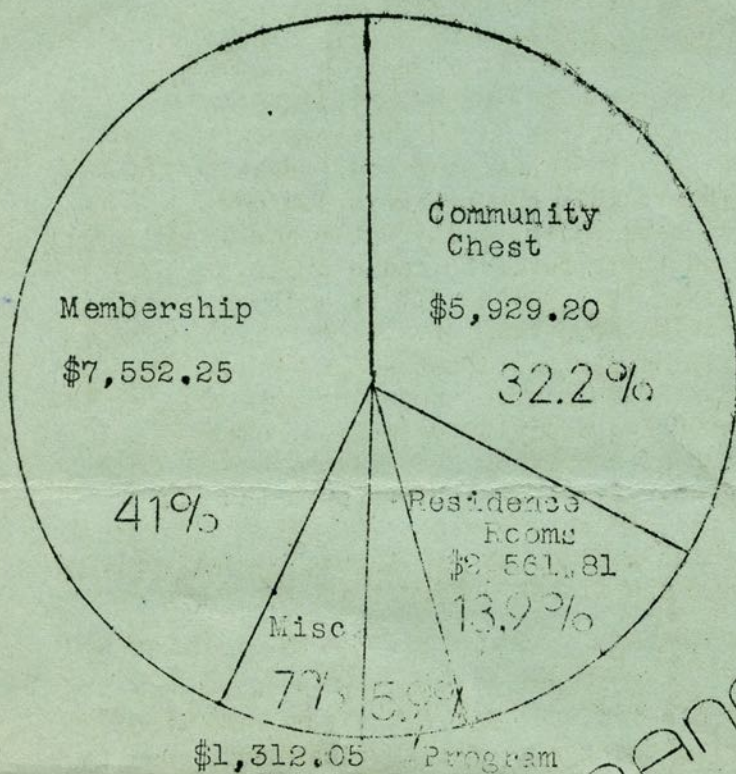

Under present scales of financial support it is practically impossible to put any money into necessary building maintenance. This situation cannot continue for an indefinite period if a progressive program is to be carried on in an atmosphere attractive to our members.

IMMEDIATE BUILDING NEEDS - There are continuing needs for repairs to windows in the dormitory and gym due to inroads of dry rot after over 35 years. The outside of the building needs paint as well as traffic areas, rest rooms, and showers, inside. The men's shower room needs complete rebuilding due to rotted wall conditions.

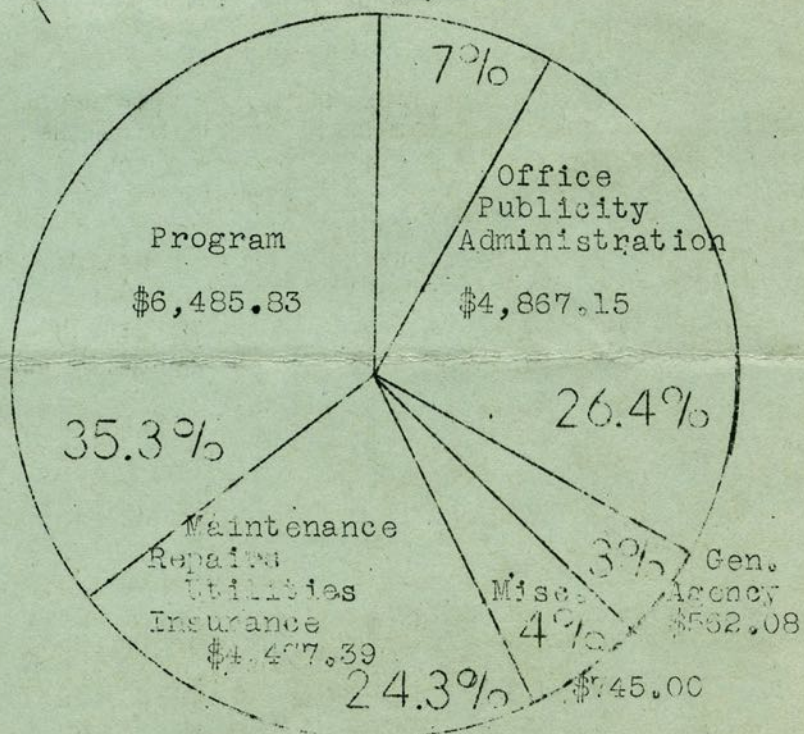

CENTENNIAL MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT- Under leadership of Dallas Forest and A.H. Hubbell 215 new members were secured on a goal of 200. A total of 413 persons were enlisted. Membership values total $4600, a slight increase over last year. The enrollment leaders and their associates are to be congratulated. Our Centennial objective is 1000 registered members at the end of 1951. We are just past the 900 mark at present.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS - Revision of these documents is one of our centennial objectives. The new constitution is being presented for approval at this meeting with work on the by-laws to start soon. The existing constitution was over 35 years old and contained many inaccuracies for present day work.

INCOME — $18,428.99

HIGHLIGHTS of 1950

SEVENTEEN TO FIFTY-FOUR was the span of ages served at the Astoria Armed Services YMCA during 1950. Ranging from 17 year old young men straining from "Boot Camp" and still very much homesick to "Pop" Mellen, SKI a 54 year old reservist, the Armed Services YMCA has truly been a "home away from home" for men of all ages and has served a unique role in the lives of those in the uniform of their country. To different men, the YMCA has meant different things. To some, it is a warm, homelike place where they can relax in comfortable, upholstered furniture to read the evening paper, a current magazine or one of the latest novels. Others tune in on their favorite radio programs, play the piano or put a nickel in the juke-box. To some the "Y" is a clean friendly place to get a cup of coffee, a sandwich or a bowl of soup or chili. Others rent lockers, change into their civilian clothes after a shower and shave and enjoy an evening out of uniform. Pool, snooker and ping pong are popular past-times while waiting for the scheduled activity of movies, dances, a picnic, volleyball or swimming parties, a buffet supper or coffee-cake hour. Over 52 community groups assist in the program. All these things make the Armed Services "Y" a pleasant place to spend off duty hours. But above all, it is a Young Men's Christian Association which strives at all times for the highest standards and principles to challenge the finest and best in young men and women.

JANUARY found the operation ready to launch into a new year of service with an enlarged, re-modeled snack-bar and service desk. Plans for increased program were developing as the Astoria Chapter of the American Red Cross took their turn as the first group of the year to provide a fine week's program. Then came the fateful day. A telegram from New York announced the deactivation of USO effective January 31, with instructions to terminate staff and sell equipment.

FEBRUARY - the USO sign came down. We were again the Armed Services YMCA and again became the Armed Services Committee of the Astoria, YMCA. USO transferred the title of furnishings and equipment to the Armed Services Department for use in Astoria. Adjustments were many, staff was reduced to a minimum, hours of operation were shortened. The budget was reduced by two thirds, the remaining amount coming from Oregon Chest's 1950 contribution of $5785. Program and services continued, however. The Zonta Club provided a week's program. Ranking Naval Officers felt the operation was essential and gave generously of their time and influence in the process of reorganization.

MARCH saw the operation re-gearred for action. The Armed Services YMCA was host to a large group of Naval Reservists from many of Oregon's cities, when the USS GILLIGAN stopped on a week-end cruise. Astoria's civic leaders, the Tongue Point Naval Commands and representatives of the Armed Services YMCA Committee of Management met the ship as it docked, and provided transportation for crew members. Other program events of the month included a fine St. Patrick's Day Dance put on by the junior hostesses of the Girls Service Organization. A monthly Birthday Party was held. Hospitality Homes were a weekly feature, enjoyed by small groups which spent an evening in an Astoria home.

APRIL was election of officers for the Committee of Management and for the program council which consists of both servicemen and junior hostesses. Easter weekend was filled with a variety of activities, which included the sunrise service, regular church services, a hike, picnic, and egg hunt. A ski trip to Mt. Hood was held one weekend. Two carloads enjoyed the excursion.

MAY - Building and program operation were reduced to weekends due to insufficient funds. Oregon Chest suggested that the Executive give time to interpretation of the Armed Services YMCA work to several County Community Chests. The USS GILLIGAN again visited Astoria and was greeted with program bulletin and transportation. Outdoor program activities on weekends were popular, but weekday operation was sorely missed by the servicemen who make the building their home.

JUNE - "Open Daily" was the proud announcement after six Astoria organizations, American Legion, Elks, Eagles, Moose, Methodist Church and Veterans of Foreign Wars had agreed to match the Portland-Multnomah Chest's offer of $1200. The National Guard Encampment at Camp Clatsop made use of our facilities. Members of the Optimist Club, Rotary Club, Temple Beth Israel and the Methodist Church provided recreation and refreshments. Services and program were also extended to the officers, cadets, and crew of the Canadian ships HMCS BEACON HILL and HMCS ANTIGONISH. Anchor Club members were hostesses. An Associated Services for the Armed Forces committee was formed here, with representatives from the YMCA, Catholic Church and Jewish Council.

JULY - The two Canadian frigates returned at the request of the officers and crews and the American Legion Auxiliary were hostesses. Donations of sugar and coffee from Astoria grocers for program events fulfilled an urgent need. Alpha Iota Sorority sponsored a square dance, a regular activity. Weekly picnics were held. Saddle Mountain was scaled.

AUGUST - The Postal Clerks Auxiliary, the Spanish-American War Veterans, the Daughters of the Union Veterans and Toastmistress Club representatives met a very real need in the continuance of program. Activation of Navy ships brought many reservists into the building.

SEPTEMBER - Labor Day weekend was made more significant by the participation of members of the Central Labor Council who put on a fine week's program. Groups from the Catholic Church and the Olney Grange sponsored other weeks. Overnight camping trips to places of scenic beauty were tried with success. The fun of camping outdoors and cooking over a campfire was an enriching experience to the men who participated and a welcome contrast to crowded conditions aboard ship.

OCTOBER - The Military Department of the State of Oregon and the City of Astoria further aided the continuation and success of the operation through the installation of an electric hot water heater to replace the gas heater which was made obsolete by the discontinuance of the Gas Company; and by making burner and other repairs on the furnace. The following groups participated in the program: Unity Group, Rotary Club, Oddfellows and Rebekahs, and the Christian Church. Halloween was observed with a party.

NOVEMBER - Two women members were added to the Committee of Management, their responsibility being the contacting of community organizations to serve in the program in the months ahead. A second ski trip to Mt. Hood was enjoyed by two carloads of young men. A co-recreation program for servicemen and junior hostesses is held weekly using the facilities of the Astoria YMCA. A Thanksgiving dance highlighted that holiday. The Kiwanis Club gave generously in time and effort for their week's program.

DECEMBER - The AAUW and the Lions Club were this month's sponsors. A memorable Stardust Ball began the Christmas season. Christmas was made as homelike as possible. Christmas and New Year's Eve services were well attended in local churches.

To all of those who assisted in serving men "17 to 54", the Committee of Management gives heartfelt thanks.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Astoria, Oregon

March 29, 1951

Dear Friends:

You are cordially invited to attend the centennial annual meeting of the Astoria Young Men's Christian Association to be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 9, in the Zion Lutheran Church, 12th and Exchange Streets.

We are fortunate to have Mr. Leslie J. Tompkins, Executive secretary for Field Services of the National Council of YMCA's, New York City, as our guest speaker for the evening. He will bring us a timely and inspiring address.

A short business session will feature reports by the president, Ford Knutsen; the chairman of the Armed Services Branch, E.V. McNeeley and the general secretary, Lloyd L. Craft, Jr and musical numbers will be presented. A new constitution will be presented for vote of the membership. Copies are posted and available for inspection in the YMCA building at 12th and Exchange Streets.

Dinner will be $1.50 per plate and reservations should be made at the YMCA by Thursday, April 5. Tickets are available from any board member and at the desk of both the YMCA and the Armed Services Branch. You are requested to use the enclosed card immediately for your reservations.

A post card ballot for election of board members is enclosed for all voting members which should be returned to the YMCA by April 4.

We hope that you will be present for an evening of entertainment and fellowship and an opportunity to become better acquainted with your YMCA.

YEOMONETTE LEADER HERE

ALL GIRLS OF CITY INVITED
TO Y. W. C. A. CLUB ROOM
THIS EVENING

The organizer of the famous Y. W. C. A. Yeomanette club at Bremerton, Miss Anne Guthrie, is a visitor here and to meet her, Miss Ford, Astoria's Y. W. C. A. secretary, invites all the girls and young women of the city to an informal party tonight at 8 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters, room 6, the Young building.

"I want the girls of Astoria who are interested in Y. W. C. A. club work—those I have met and those I have not—to meet Miss Guthrie, to hear about the Y. W. C. A. in Bremerton, and to talk about local clubs," says Miss Ford. "The party is so informal that all are asked to wear old skirts so that we can sit on the floor."

This measure is necessary also, because not all the furnishings have been arranged for the new club room. A large gathering of the girls is expected for all have been anxiously awaiting the real start of Y. W. C. A. work in Astoria. The college girls and the girls from the larger cities are the enthusiastic leaders, now, in bringing all their friends into the organization because they know all the good things that the Y. W. C. A. can mean, and want their friends to share in them.

On Tuesday Evening

At the Y. W. C. A. club room in the Young Building, Tuesday evening, one of the first of the Y. W. C. A. social affairs was held. Miss Elizabeth Ford, secretary, invited all Astoria girls interested in Y. W. C. A. work in the city to attend and over 25 availed themselves of the invitation. The main feature of the evening was the informal and interesting talk given by Miss Anne Guthrie, the secretary of the Bremerton Y. W. C. A., on the work among the yeomanettes and other girls at the navy yards. Those present, included Miss Dorothy and Miss Margaret Husong, Miss Victoria Westersund, Miss Nell Tenbrook, Miss Margery Gilbert, Miss Hazel Loudon, Miss Olga Kellary, Miss Ruby and Miss Agnes Thorsen, Miss Edith Becker, Miss Agda Carlson, Miss Harriet Gilling, Miss Elizabeth Hess, Miss Gertrude Larsen, Miss Elizabeth Setters, Miss Laurie Burnett, Miss Alva Jeldness, Miss Priscilla and Miss Dorothy Eakin, Miss May Bureau, Miss Selma Johnson, Miss Frances Ward, Miss Winifred Van Dusen, Miss Esther Gearhart, Miss Jessie Garner and Miss Madge Fulton.

Thursday Party

A charming affair of Thursday evening was the party given by Miss Helma Hukari. During the evening Miss Elizabeth Ford, Astoria's new Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss Anne Guthrie, secretary of the Bremerton Y. W. C. A., talked to the girls of Y. W. C. A. work. Later the young people had an informal supper at Hoefler's. Those present were: Miss Esther Mattson, Miss Lulu Macklin, Miss Asta and Miss Agnes Carlson, Miss Hilda Peterson, Miss Hilfred Ebeck, Miss Selma Johnson, Miss Anna Hojer, Miss Euphemia Lugnet, Miss Guthrie and Miss Ford.

HOSTESS CLUB ROOM OPENED BY Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. headquarters have now been established on the second floor of the Young building at the corner of 14th and Commercial. Here relatives and friends may meet the soldiers, very much the same as at the hostess houses, and here, too, all W. W. C. A. meetings will be held. Miss Ford, the secretary for this new organization in Astoria, will have her office, too, at headquarters.

These arrangements were made yesterday and preliminary plans for different Y. W. C. A. activities here reviewed when Miss Hester E. Craig, supervisor of Y. W. C. A. war work for the northwest and representative of the national Y. W. C. A. board, was a visitor in the city. Clubs for girls and young women of different ages are to be organized and activities suited to the needs of the community especially in its relation to the nearby forts.

Y. W. C. A. Picnic

A merry party of girls gathered Tuesday evening at the city park for the Y. W. C. A. Potluck supper which was held around a bonfire. After supper, the girls discussed with Miss Elizabeth Ford, the secretary, plans for more Y. W. C. A. events, including a hike for next Tuesday evening.

Y. W. C. A. HIKE SUCCESS

The hike to Coxcomb hill by the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening was one of the most successful of the "Y" entertainments. After the girls had climbed the mountain a picnic supper followed by a marshmallow roast, was enjoyed.

The trip next week will be a hike to the wireless station, every girl to bring an article for the picnic supper. The start will be made from the Y. W. C. A. building at 6:45, and every girl who cares to make the trip is cordially invited.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

Picnic Tonight

Tonight the Y. W. C. A. girls will have picnic supper on the hill to the west of the city where the old wireless station was formerly located. Every girl is asked to bring one article of food for the potluck supper and to meet Miss Ford, the secretary, at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters promptly at 6:45 o'clock.

Miss Kalbus to Speak

Miss Minnie Kalbus, domestic science expert, who is here on government orders from Oregon Agricultural college, to aid the women of Clatsop county in food conservation, will give an informal talk at the Y. W. C. A., on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Ford hopes that a good crowd will come to hear the talk as it is to be very much worth while.

Piano Needed

The local Y. W. C. A. is greatly in need of a piano for their club rooms in the Young building and as the stock has run very low in the city music stores, due to the war, they are having much difficulty in obtaining one. The organization would be very pleased to have one donated or offered to them for rent.

Gearhart Outing

Definite plans for the week-end outing at the Portland Y. W. C. A. camp in Gearhart have not as yet been made by the local chapter but Miss Ford expects to hear today in regard to the matter. If enough girls want to go, the outing is practically certain, however, and all who desire to spend the week-end at the beach camp are asked to get in touch with Miss Ford as soon as possible.

Telephone Installed

Y. W. C. A. CALENDAR.

This has been a busy week, indeed, for the Y. W. C. A. girls and plans have been made ahead for several affairs for next week. The hike to Coxcomb Hill Tuesday evening where supper was served and a bonfire and a marshmallow roast held was a huge success and very well attended. Thursday evening a number of the girls met and picked sphagnum moss at the Red Cross work rooms. On next Tuesday another hike and supper has been planned. The girls will meet at 6:45 at the club rooms from where they will go to the old wireless station to spend the evening. The Y. W. C. A. secretary has issued an invitation to all Y. W. C. A. girls here, thru Miss Elizabeth Ford, to spend the week-end at Gearhart at their summer camp. All who would enjoy going should make arrangements with Miss Ford not later than Tuesday.

The reception room of the club is being furnished this week and a most attractive room it is. There are several brown willow chairs and a cosy davenport, cretonne covered, a desk, wicker table and soft blue hangings and rugs. Bowls of bright flowers and potted ferns added to the hominess of the whole.

Local Y.W.C.A. Headquarters

WAR WORK SECRETARY COM- PLETES ARRANGEMENT FOR ACTIVITIES HERE

Miss Hester E. Craig national secretary for the northwest division of Y. M. C. A. war work was in the city yesterday and completed arrangements for the local Y. W. C. A. quarters. The local office, which is under the direction of Miss Ford will be located in the Young Building at 14th and Commercial street. These rooms will be used for rest rooms for women who are here visiting their boys stationed at the various camps in the vicinity. As the work enlarges, the quarters will be enlarged to include club rooms, and accommodations for the various Y. W. C. A. activities.

"The work that the Y. W. is doing for the girls includes everything from industrial education to amusement," said Miss Craig. "In the girls clubs which we have organized thruout the country, in addition to providing recreation to fill the young womens' spare time, it is possible to offer classes in almost any subject that the girls might wish to take up.

"Our efforts are all based upon co-operation. We do not attempt any 'uplift' work on account of the firm conviction that it is unnecessary. The organization of our clubs enters into the girls own field and supplies the things which have been lacking.

"With the entrance of women into the industrial world, which has come about so suddenly, there is an urgent need for some organization to guard the interests of the girl workers in the community. This the Y. W. C. A. does. Thru the work of competent secretaries, who are acquainted with local conditions it is possible to safeguard the best interests of the girls, and in the end

Y. W. C. A. Supervisor Speaks of War Work At Business College

Miss Hester E. Craig, supervisor of the Y. W. C. A. for the Northwestern states, and Miss L. E. Ford, who is in charge of the work in Astoria, were the speakers at the Astoria Business College assembly yesterday morning.

Miss Craig outlined the scope of the work at home and abroad, especially indicating the vital relation the comfort of the women at home bears to the morale of the boys overseas. The workings of the hostess houses were explained, proving they cover a wide range of activities vital to winning the war. Since the first of these hostess houses, opened at Plattsburg, proved so essential, sixty have come into operation, among which are three in France, one in Cuba and one in Hawaii, while thirty others are already authorized in this country.

At Bremerton there are 600 girls in various branches of the military service. For these and for the mothers, wives and sisters of the soldiers who continually visit at Camp Lewis, hostess houses and Y. W. C. A. club rooms prove an imperative necessity.

Miss Ford explained the work of the organization in Astoria and outlined its plans for the future. Comprehended among the latter is a large program for a busy winter; for the war work and for providing wholesome clean entertainment for the soldiers as well as an approved environment for themselves. The speakers had their subject splendidly in hand. Miss Ford suggested that two clubs be formed of the students now in attendance at the college.

The Y. W. C. A. has answered the call of the Red Cross for more people to pick over sphagnum moss. On Thursday evening the girls will meet at the club rooms in the Young building at 7:45 o'clock and will then go to the Red Cross rooms and pick over moss. Arrangements have been made for a social on next Tuesday evening. The girls are to meet at the Y. W. club rooms at 6:45 o'clock and from there they will hike to the old wireless station site on telegraph hill. Miss L. E. Ford, who is in charge of the Y. W. activities here has extended invitation to all girls at all interested in the work to attend both gatherings.

Patriotic work is absorbing the whole attention of all; old and young alike and work is divided between the Red Cross work rooms, the Red Cross Shop, moss picking, recruiting for the nurses reserve, patriotic work at the Y. W. C. A. and other varied activities. More donations are asked for the Red Cross shop as the present stock is fast being sold out.

The Y. W. C. A. under the leadership of Miss Lyle Elizabeth Ford who is starting such wonderful work here in Astoria is receiving its share of attention by the younger contention and many cosy affairs are being planned for the year future. Last Tuesday evening a crowd of the girls met at the club rooms and enjoyed a

Y. W. C. A. WILL WORK IN THE MOSS ROOMS

Tonight the Y. W. C. A. girls will work in the sphagnum moss rooms and it is so imperative that everyone turn out and do their bit. This is an opportunity for real service, so much needed today, and a chance to show your loyalty. The girls will meet at the "Y" rooms at 7:45 and will go from there to the moss work room.

I WONDER WHY?

(By C. U. B.)

The human race is one of many things that it doesn't pay to figure on. The other day I was talking to Miss Elizabeth Ford, who is head of the Y. W. C. A. here. Miss Ford was telling me about a hike that the girls gave.

Everything was planned nicely and it was announced that they were to leave at seven sharp, and because they left on time, there were a lot of girls who got left.—I Wonder Why?

hike to Youngs Bay where they had a wienie supper. or to take their lunches at noon.

Next Tuesday all girls are planning another hike and swim at Young's river. They will meet at the Y. W. rooms at Fourteenth and Commercial at 6:45 and will go up fourteenth street to Jerome and from there to the park. They will be glad to have any girls who would enjoy going to join them and each girls is permitted to take guests—boys or girls, men or women. They will swim first, then have a good fire and a picnic supper. Each girls is asked to take enough supper for herself and her guests and to also take dishes for her group.

The club rooms, themselves, are as cosy as can be with gay cretonne curtains, easy chairs, and bowls of fragrant flowers and potted ferns about. They are most attractive rooms for girls to meet at any time

Thursday evening the girls will meet in the club rooms to make joke books for wounded soldiers.

Y. W. C. A. HIKE.

That the newly organized Y. W. C. A. affords Astoria young people a great deal of pleasure was again made known on Tuesday evening when a large bunch of young folks hiked over the hill to Raymond's beach. They spent the early part of the evening in swimming and playing games. Later in the evening a picnic supper was served, wienies toasted, and a lot of good old time songs were sung. Among those present were: Miss Ford, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. B. Turrill, Mr. and Mrs. Matheuson, Mr. and Mrs. McNett, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle, Miss Jessie and Georgiana Garner, Miss Wenona Dyer, Miss Dorothy Stone, Miss Beatrice Barker, Miss Mildred Howell, Miss Margaret and Dorothy Hussong, Miss Alice Wherity, Miss Helen Dahlgren, Miss Mable and Gertrude Larson, Miss Margild Larson, Miss Laura Parnett, Miss Margery Gilbert, Miss Frances Ward, Miss Nell Tenbrook, Miss Elizabeth Setters, Miss Helen Gronholm and a number of soldiers from the spruce camps and Fort Stevens.

Y. W. C. A. Hike Planned

All the girls and young women of the city are invited by Miss Elizabeth Ford, Y. W. C. A. secretary, to a hike and picnic supper to be held on Tuesday evening on the shores of Youngs River. The tide will be too low that evening for swimming and the supper will be the event of the evening. All who come are asked to bring their own bread and butter sandwiches and to make arrangements with Miss Dorothy Hussong, Miss Ruby Thorsen or Miss Ford. The girls are to meet at 6:45 p. m. on the steps of Grace Church.

Y. W. C. A. QUARTERS ARE ENLARGED HERE

The need for it demanding, the Y. W. C. A. has already enlarged its quarters in Astoria and now occupies two rooms on the second floor of the Young building. One room is to be the office and committee room and the other a reception room to be furnished with smoked willow furniture, cretonne curtains, and other attractive features. Every noon now many of the girls gather at the office to have their lunch together and Miss Elizabeth Ford, secretary, announces that in the near future an electric plate is to be installed, and when winter comes, something hot will be served every noon. All girls in the city are invited.

The next social affair planned by

Friloha Club

The first of the Y. W. C. A. clubs to be organized in Astoria is the Friloha Club. Many other clubs will be formed in the near future. The Friloha club was started Tuesday evening and the following officers were elected: Miss Ina Malinen, president; Miss Pearl Gimre, vice president; and Miss Ethel Amundsen, secretary treasurer. Next Tuesday the club will hold an informal picnic supper in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms and later will spend the evening working in the Red Cross moss rooms.

The organization of the many different clubs in the Astoria Y. W. C. A. is progressing rapidly under the leadership of Miss Ford. The Friloha club is now completely organized and has held several meetings. On Tuesday evening of next week, this club will hold an informal supper and party in the club rooms. Each member of the club is to ask one or more friends. Another club will probably complete organization and choose its name this coming week.

The Y. W. C. A. is for Tuesday evening when all Astoria girls are invited to join a hike to Young's river where picnic supper and a wienie roast will be held around a bonfire. All who wish to go are asked to notify Miss Ford, Miss Dorothy Hussong, or Miss Ruby Thorsen and to meet at Grace church at 6:45 on Tuesday evening.

Camp Fire Girls

The Camp Fire were entertained last Thursday evening by Miss Gertrude Hull and Miss Tannette Jaloff at the home of the latter.

Games were played and then the regular meeting was held around the campfire and the girls sang songs and told stories and later refreshments were served to the happy guests.

The table was decorated with flags and place cards bearing the Campfire's motto marked places for: Miss Clara Hussong, Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Maude Mahan, Miss Laura Hussong, Miss Avis Christoferson, Miss Ruth Calder, Miss Glenora Smith, Miss Bessie Sidall, Miss Virginia Mitchell, Miss Ida Marcum, Miss Lillian Sivola, Miss Helen Gaither, Miss Gertrude Hull, Miss Bernice Hull, R. N. Cooke, Mrs. W. E. Hull, Mrs. A. Jaloff, Miss Tannette and Miss Faye Jaloff and their brother Stanley.

The Camp Fire Girls, under the guardianship of Mrs. Retta Nichols Cooke, aided by Miss Gertrude Moore, intend to give an entertainment in the near future to raise funds for equipping their club rooms. "The Blue Bird dance" and an "Indian dance" will be features of the entertainment.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

At the first ceremonial meeting the Camp Fire Girls last Thursday afternoon in the club rooms of the Y. W. C. A. planned many wonderful camping trips and hikes for the summer months. The girls also chose Sacajawea for the name of their club and the following new members were installed: Miss Gertrude Hull, Miss Tannette Jaloff, Miss Louise Hansen, Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Loma Skinner, Miss Shirley Dahlgren, and Miss Bessie Sidall. Guests of the club were Miss Borhild Larson, Miss Maude Larson, Miss Maude Mahan, Miss Ruth Calder, Miss Helen Gaither, Miss Clara and Miss Laura Hussong, Miss Lillian Sauvola and Miss Glenora Smith. This club holds weekly meetings at the Central school and monthly meetings in the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Y. W. C. A.

The Poughkeepsie club of the Y. W. C. A. enjoyed a theatre party Monday evening when they gathered at the Star theatre to see Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." Later refreshments were served in the club rooms. The regular monthly meetings of this club will be held in the basement of the Methodist church from here on account of the increasing membership. The Y. W. C. A. is also holding rehearsals weekly for "Pinafore" which will be given in the near future. Miss Nina Riggs, instructor of music in the high school is directing the girls.

Camp Fire Girls

The Camp Fire Girls held a council at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Thursday evening. Rewards were given to the girls for their month's work and new members were initiated by ceremonial. Miss Maude Mahan received special honor for having sold tickets amounting to $17.85 for the benefit program which was given at the Central School on the evening of May second. The girls realized $12.50.

KIDS PARADE TO BOOST SHOW

500 Boys and Girls' Club

Members Advertise Central School Performance

To the military music of the Boy Scouts drum corps, 500 Astoria boys and girls yesterday paraded the downtown streets to advertise the entertainment which is being given for the benefit of the Sacajewa Club, Campfire Girls, at the Central School this evening and tomorrow evening.

The parade was a demonstration of the strength of the children's clubs in Astoria. In the line of march were the Boy Scouts, in khaki uniforms, the Girls' Reserve, and the Campfire Girls in Indian costume. They marched through the downtown streets and to the Liberty Temple where patriotic songs were sung.

The entertainment which is to be held in the Central school auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock and also on Saturday evening, will include aesthetic dances by the girls of the Campfire group. Among the numbers to be presented are the Butterfly, Bluebird, Indian Ceremonial and Spanish dances. The evening will be concluded with a beautiful Victory finale, upon which much time and thought has been spent. A moving picture feature film, Marguerite Clark in "Seven Swans" will be a part of the program. Music will be furnished by Ben Hamilton's celebrated jazz orchestra and the Hawaiian trio.

The affair is staged under the direction of Mrs. Retta Nichols Cook, the Guardian of the Campfire Girls.

Astoria Boys and Girls Parade.

ASTORIA, Or., May 1.—(Special.)—A parade in support of the campaign for the advancement of boys' and girls' club work was held this afternoon, and was participated in by the Boy Scouts, Girls' Reserve and the Camp Fire Girls. A drive to interest the young people in the junior clubs throughout the city is being conducted by those in charge of the three organizations.

Girls Reserve Corps Organized

Miss Inez Cook of the Y. W. C. A. completed the organization of the Girls Reserve Corps at Alderbrook school Thursday. This splendid feature of the Y. W. C. A. aims for the fourfold development of young girls between the ages of 10 and 10, recognizing the importance of co-ordinating the mental, spiritual, social and physical powers of our young womanhood.

The society at Alderbrook contains two corps, each corps being limited to twenty members. These corps are in charge of Mrs. Paul Morgan and Mrs. Rankin respectively, both of whom are eminently suited to efficient leadership.

At Thursday's meeting the last of the initiatory rites was performed and the members received the coveted arm bands, insignia and pins. Much interest is being shown in the work, and it is expected that other schools will also organize similar corps.

The Girl's Reserve Corps, which is being formed in connection with the Y. W. C. A. is arousing no little interest among the school girls and applications for membership are being constantly received by Miss Ford and Miss Cooke of the "Y."

ADAIR SCHOOL.

The organization of four reserve clubs, which include almost all of the girls in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, has just been completed. The names selected for these clubs are: Fifth grade, "Hochee;" sixth grade, "Shamowa;" seventh grade, "Inoshtillicum;" eighth grade, "Never Loiter." Miss Ellertson and Miss Miller are the respective leaders of the "Inoshtillicum" and "Never Loiter." The other clubs have outside leaders. Each club is planning some special social service work, together with picnics and outings for the members.

Wednesday Picnic

The members of the Gigglesonian Club enjoyed an outing at Raymond's on Youngs River, where they spent Wednesday with Miss Ford and Miss Cook as chaperons.

Central School Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves under the leadership of Missess Ford and Cooke of the Y. W. C. A. was organized in Central school into groups according to age.

One of the most interesting and promising of the younger clubs is the Falloychie club under the leadership of Miss Gertrude E. Moore. Monday afternoon a most enthusiastic meeting was held and plans for the future were discussed. Yells were practised and initiation rites formed. As most of the girls are under twelve, this will be their first initiation so all are anxiously looking forward to the event.

Officers elected were: Corps Scout, Ida Mosely; Chairman Outings and Annings, Dorothea Prael; Chairman of Service, Mary Elizabeth Harradon.

The members are Elsie Weidemann, Fontelle Kellma, Evelyn Jackson, Mary Behanna, Lois Smith, Katherine Tapscott, Maizie Lindley, Freida Erickson, Barbara Dayton, Rita McManama, Louis Kindred, Doris Cook, Mary E. Harradon, Dorothea Prael, Ida Mosely.

Instead of the tramp and supper at Raymond's Thursday on account of rain the Upidee Club met in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms for a taffy pull and indoor picnic. The club has as its leader Miss Dorothy Eakin and is composed of the following members, Miss Johannah Peterson, Miss Hennie Paterson, Miss Louise Bartlett, Miss Esther Setters, Miss Jane Sanborn and Miss Elizabeth Lash.

Out Door Picnic.

The Shamawa corps of Adair school enjoyed a pleasant picnic supper in the open air at Garner's Point Wednesday. The girls, chaperoned by Miss Cooke, walked out after school and had a merry ramble enjoying their supper as one only can after a hike with pleasant company in these first rare sweet spring days.

Friday afternoon the members of the J. U. G. corps and the Sunshine corps met at the Y. W. C. A. rooms for their usual meeting. Sixteen new members were initiated at that time.

TAYLOR SCHOOL.

The following pupils received Palmer buttons this week: Irja Jarvin, Frances Josephson, Emily Corland, Arvi Lopakka, Ernest Matlin, Aune Ilvonen, Ina Isaacson, Elsie Joki, Dagmar Kauppi, Esther Branner, Thorsiv Hojer, Uno Niemi, Ralph Johnson, Arthur Jacobson, Ellen Laakso, William Ericksen.

Miss Cook, of the Y. W. C. A., organized the fifth and sixth grade girls into a Girls' Reserve Unit. The girls elected the following officers: Chairman of the scout committee, Elsie Joki; chairman of the innings and outings committee, Irja Jarvin; chairman of the service committee, Emily Cortland. At the next meeting the different units are to be initiated into the serious and helpful work of the Girl Reserves.

"Topsy turvy will be the rule, On Tuesday evening after school: The girls we know will all be there With hats on feet and shoes on hair."

Such were the invitations, written backwards, that were issued to the girls of the sixth grade reserve corps by the "Hyas Klose Tillikums" corps. Tuesday afternoon found a great variety of topsy turvy costumes. From the time the girls were greeted with a "good-bye!" So sorry you came! Hope you had a miserable time" until they were ushered out the door with a "How-do-you-do?" Everything was topsy turvy. April fool candy was served followed by some very good candy made by the Tillikums themselves.

The Hyas Klose Tillikums is a girl reserve corps organized several weeks

Upidee Club

The Upidee club enjoyed a picnic supper at the city park last Thursday. They assembled after school and spent the time around a rousing bonfire until the falling shadows caused a retreat homeward.

The Gigglesonians had a merry but very industrious time, withal, on Monday when they gathered at a deserted shack which they are planning to convert into club rooms. Armed with the paraphernalia which goes toward making an abode habit-

The Girls' Reserve corps of Alderbrook spent a few hours picnicking on the beach around Tongue Point on Thursday afternoon. Incidentally, they enjoyed a rain storm, a feat which some might think impossible. But youth is resourceful and a deserted flat offering itself at the opportune time the girls occupied it and turned their mishap into good cheer in their own spontaneous way of doing things, considering the trip none the less enjoyable because of Oregon showers. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Rankin.

Misses Ford and Cooke Entertain the Girls' Reserve

The girls of the various Reserve corps of the city were pleasantly entertained with a picnic given by the Y. W. C. A. last Saturday. Miss Inez Cooke and Miss Ford acting as hostesses for the organizations. There were about seventy-five girls reporting at the Y rooms in the morning hours and the start was made about 10 a. m. The group "hiked" to Raymond's Beach where games were played and a program rendered. Needless to say a delicious spread was served and about four o'clock a tired, happy crowd wended their way homeward.

The program is as follows: Patriotic song by Shamowa corps of Adair school; Japanese song by Nakota of Alderbrook; Galloja of Alderbrook and Hachee of Adair united forces and presented a number of entertaining charades; Quashtillikum of Adair school also gave charades and the J. U. G. club of Central school sang a song. Miss Ford gave a talk outlining the work for the year and announced meeting places.

WEDNESDAY PICNIC

The members of the Shamawa Corps of the Y. W. C. A. Reserve corps chaperoned by Miss Cook, gathered at Gardner's Point Wednesday evening for a picnic supper in the woods.

Y. W. C. A. Club Meets.

The J. U. G. club, of which Miss Priscilla Eakin is leader, met on Friday of last week at the Y. W. C. A. rooms. The club motto is, "Jog On" and the members are Nellie Jarvis, Hazel Crang, Margaret Strathouse, Jessie Streeter, Mildred Starthouse, Florence Rivkert and Helen Nelson.

Unique indeed is a violet hunt and the members of the Shamawa club and the Hachee corps consider themselves most fortunate to have participated in such a delightful event.

It took place on Saturday afternoon when Miss Cook entertained the club. The party took the noon train to Columbia beach where the ground is thick with the modest beauties and they gathered immense quantities of the fragrant little blue variety. As a further treat they were enabled to accumulate also gorgeous sheafs of the glowing Scotch Bloom. The tired but happy party returned on the evening train with a wealth of bloom and pleasant things, to think about for many days to come.

The Upidee club entertained with an informal dinner at the club rooms on Thursday evening.

CENTRAL SHOW GREAT SUCCESS

A most successful entertainment was given by the children of Central school last night. The program which was for the benefit of the Campfire girls was well attended by an appreciative audience. It will be repeated this evening.

Features of the evening were the dances by the children of the school, the Campfire girls, Indian ceremonial, music by the Hawaiian trio, Ben Hamilton's Jazz band, and a moving picture, Marguerite Clark in "Seven Swans."

The affair was given under the direction of the Campfire girls.

Announcements for Summer Classes

Misses Ford and Cooke have arranged their schedule for their summer classes and will meet the girls' clubs at the following dates at the Y. W. C. A. rooms at 3 o'clock. The Gigglesonians, Tuesday, June 17; Shamowa and Hachee, Wednesday, June 18; J. U. G., Upidee and Luana, Thursday, June 19; Hyas Klose Tillikum and Lotus, Friday, June 20; Gee-Tee-Cee, Wolaha and Bluebird, Tuesday, June 24; Quashtillikum and Never Loiter, June 25; Nakota and Galloja, Thursday, June 26; Falloychee and Sunshine, Friday, June 27.

Y. W. C. A. Entertain

The soldiers of Fort Stevens are very appreciative of the attempt of the Y. W. C. A. Glee club to entertain them last Friday evening. The club, armed with cake and other home made delicacies galore, invaded the Y. M. C. A. hut and put on a program full of interesting things. They went in a special launch and unfortunately were not able to stay and enjoy the social hour that had been planned after the program but the soldier boys have made arrangements for them to return next Friday evening and listen to a program they are preparing and then join them at a beach party. The invitation has been accepted and a good time is sure to result. Those present were: Miss Ford, the Misses Eilertson, Mrs. Enoch Mathieson, Misses Nell Walker, Agnes Miller, Lois Tyler, Asta Carlson, Jessie and Georgiana Garner, Aino Malinen, Flora Beck, Josephine Morton, Lillian Van Riper, Minnie and Alice Ambler, Mary Congdon, Eloise Larsen, Olga Keller, Bess Spicer, Pearl Gimre, Alma Pederson, Dorothy and Margaret Hussong and Nina Riggs.

Beach Party at Fort Stevens

In return for the delightful program which the girls glee club rendered at Fort Stevens on Friday evening of last week, the soldier lads gave a beach party last Friday night which was hugely successful and enjoyed by a large number of the young people.

The downward trip was made by a special launch and the homeward trip by means of an army truck. Games, a tramp and a wine roast constituted the main events of the evening's amusement.

Those attending were Misses Jennie Glendenning, Mary Congdon, Irene Miller, Hulda Hagman, Viola Youngs, Hannah Crane, Laurie Burnett, Russell, Josephine Morton, Laura Beck, Slade Hazel Loudon, Agnes Miller, Inez Tyler, Olga Keller, Margaret and Dorothy Hussong, Aino Malinen, Margaret Smith, Ellen Houlton, Alva Hudspeth, Krim, Mrs. Jewett, Sophia Rice, Eva Holmes, Inez Cool, Lyle Ford.

Picnic Party

An interesting event of the week was that of Friday evening when a party of girls chaperoned by Mrs. Bunch, Mrs. G. M. Cook and Miss Cook, drove to Fort Stevens in one of the army motor trucks for an indoor picnic party at the Fort Y. M. C. A. The time was happily spent with singing and games and those who enjoyed the affair were Margaret Ross, Margaret Hussong, Margaret Rinell, Dorothy Hussong, Gladys Irvin, Viola Young, Hulda Hagman, Lois and Inez Tyler, Bess Spicer, Mary Congdon, Irene Miller, Pearl Gimre, Johanna Peterson, Hazel Loudon, Hannah Crane, Alma Peterson, Jennie Glendennig, Dorothy and Priscilla Eakin and Ann and Mattie Eilertson.

The glee club of the Y. W. C. A. gave a concert at Fort Stevens on last Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. hut. The following program was rendered: Love's Old Sweet Song, Beautiful Ohio, Till We Meet Again, Glee club; group of readings, Miss Elfa Larsen; Little Grey Home in the West, Irish Lullaby, Mrs. Enoch Mathieson; pantomime; humaphone; club quartet, Solomon Levi, Misses Aino Malinen, Alma Peterson, Mary Congdon and Pearl Gimre, Glean, Glean, O, Silvery Stream, Glee club.

Y. W. C. A.

The first of a series of teas was given by the ladies of the Civic Club at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Tuesday afternoon. Decorations for the affair were lilacs which added to the charm of the cosily arranged rooms. Those receiving were: Mrs. A. S. Skyles, Mrs. W. T. Eakin, Mrs. R. R. Bartlett, Mrs. G. Wingate, Mrs. R. C. Ellsworth and Mrs. G. W. Sanborn. A musical program was given under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Shaner, and the following numbers were given. Violin solo, Mrs. August Kinney; Vocal solo, Mrs. Enoch Mathison, and Vocal solo, Mrs. J. H. Shaner. Mrs. J. S. Dellinger was the accompanist and in her usual pleasing manner, won the appreciation and the applause of all present. The musical numbers were followed by a splendid talk by Miss Elizabeth Ford, her subject: "The purpose of the Y. W. C. A." Tea was served by Mrs. W. T. Eakin, Mrs. A. S. Skyles assisted by Miss Eleanor Eakin, Miss Doris Jorden and Miss Hilda Branstator. On Friday afternoon the second of the series will be given and those who will entertain will be Mrs. S. C. Turner, Mrs. F. H. Haradon, Mrs. O. C. Wolf, Mrs. Pattee, Mrs. I. M. Doughton and Mrs. J. S. Schroeder.

The second of a series of "open house" receptions will be held at the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the Young Building, on Friday of this week from 2 to 5 in the afternoon. Mrs. F. H. Haradon, Mrs. E. T. Patee, Mrs. S. C. Turner compose the reception committee for the affair, and Mrs. I. M. Doughton and Mrs. A. J. C. Schroeder, assisted by a number of young ladies will serve refreshments. An interesting musical program will be presented, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the city to attend.

Catholic Ladies Entertain

The ladies of the Catholic church entertained at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Friday afternoon. The event was a thoroughly successful affair a considerable number of ladies dropping in for the afternoon plying nimble fingers over their embroidery and closing with an "over-the-tea-cups session."

Great snowy balls shimmering thru the lacey green foliage transformed the every day appearance of the club rooms while the floating summery afternoon costumes of the ladies lent the right touch of color to the scene.

The hostesses for the afternoon who so graciously presided at the tea table and put every one at ease were Mesdames W. C. Laws, E. P. Noonan and Norbert Brunald. Miss Ford in a short talk put the aspirations of the Y. W. C. A. before the ladies and as in similar teas the close of the afternoon saw an increasing good fellowship between the association and the denominational organizations of the city.

Y. W. C. A. Tea

Next Tuesday the ladies of the Presbyterian church will act as hostesses to the ladies of Astoria at the Y. W. C. A. rooms. All ladies are cordially invited to attend their delightful affair.

Mrs. Herman Prael has been put in charge of the committee on arrangements and she has chosen to assist her as a reception committee Mesdames E. C. Gearhart, E. A. Higgins, and Miss Nellie Flavel. The musical program will be in charge of Mrs. J. H. Shaner.

Y. W. C. A. TEA

The tea given Tuesday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms by the St. Agnes Guild of the Grace Episcopal church was a delightfully informal affair. Guests gathered during the afternoon with their sewing and tea was served by Mrs. Guy Sanborn. Mrs. Sidney Sovey, Mrs. Roy Salisbury, Mrs. James Hays-Cellars, Miss Dorothy Stone and Miss Taft. Hawthorn sprays were used about the rooms and the tea table was centered with a bowl of wisteria.

Y. W. C. A. Tea

The rainy weather slightly decreased the attendance of the tea given at the Y. W. C. A. rooms by the ladies of Uppertown on Tuesday afternoon but still about twenty three gathered about the cozy tea table and enjoyed the excellent music and the pleasant conversation while they sewed. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Eva Holmes, Dr. Clara Waffle and Mrs. Theo. P. Neste.

Miss Elsie Neilson served and Miss Adeline Smith, of Seattle, presided at the tea urn. The musical numbers were given by Mrs. Sigurd Knutson who is always popular with Astoria audiences and Miss Adeline Foss, of Tacoma, who played a number of piano solos. Miss Cornelia Bue accompanied Mrs. Knutson.

Y. M. C. A. News

Thirty one business girls of Astoria met at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening, May 31. A banquet was served for them in the basement and they enjoyed the program planned by the members of the Young Women's Council. The "French Dolls" and "Sailors" who took part in the school pageant given at the park a few days ago, appeared here again and were much enjoyed.

Many impromptu songs were sung about Seabeck, the Y. W. C. A. Summer Conference grounds on the Hood Canal above Seattle.

Miss Blanch Slade and Miss Genevieve Howell are planning to attend the Community Conference, August 17 to 27. We plan to have others go. Any business woman desiring to take her vacation at this time would find this a delightful place to go. The total expenses will only be a little more than $40. Further particulars can be given you at the local Y. W. C. A.

Miss Grace Williams was a special guest at the A. F. Club young women in Union Town, Friday evening, June 3rd. The girls met with the Lugnet sisters at their home, 179-W Duane, and after a short business meeting, the girls enjoyed a social time together, after which delicious refreshments were served. This club of twenty or more young women was organized twelve years ago, by Dr. Rhoda Hicks, when these young women were little girls. Mrs. A. Schroeder is also one of their advisors. The girls meet once a month and have many interesting things to tell about the girls who head homes of their own now.

The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes will be held the same as usual at the will either be there herself, or she will have a substitute. Just as soon as we will have a regular girls' work and recreation secretary to take Miss Garner's position, word will be announced in the papers.

The Astoria Y. W. C. A. between 10th and 11th on Exchange street, has a free employment bureau. Any woman wanting domestic service may call the Y. W. C. A. and leave the necessary data concerning your need. Any young woman wishing to have employment of any kind, may be able to secure a good position through this bureau. If the business men of the city would telephone their special needs for a girl wanted for different positions, the association might assist in getting the right kind of help. If there are rooms for rent, telephone the Y. W. C. A. and let us help you find a desirable occupant.

There is room for two more girls in our dormitory. Any girl wishing to have a good place to live will find W. C. A. a good home. It will

Y. M. C. A. building. Miss Williams protect her.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria is patronized by men, women, and girls. The public has been welcomed ever since our opening, February, 1920.

Three different clubs under the Y. W. C. A. have now about completed organization, the third starting on Friday evening. This third club has not as yet chosen a name nor officers. Miss Margaret Hussong was appointed as chairman of the committee to draw up the club's constitution, and plans were discussed Friday for the winter's work.

Y. M. C. A. CLUBS

The several Y. W. C. A. clubs are devoting a great deal of the time during their meeting to sewing on garments for the Belgians and to finish their full proportionment there should be a larger attendance at the meetings. The Glee Club is rehearsing for a performance of "Pinafore" to be given in the near future.

Glee Club Sings at Church.

The Glee club of the Young Women's Christian association sang at the evening services of the Methodist church on Sunday. The selection chosen was an arrangement of Jesus Lover of My Soul and the voices were unaccompanied. They sang surprisingly well their voices being clear and true and sweet. Miss Nina Riggs is the director of the club.

Wegfah Club Ambitious

The Wegfah club is one of the most ambitious of all the clubs instituted by the Y. W. C. A. The club is divided into three divisions which are studying respectively dramatic expression under Miss Ford, sewing under Miss Ruth Morton, and French under Miss Cook.

The Friloha Club

The Friloha club which is also devoting some time to sewing has for another of its activities the work of making posters. They have put out some very artistic work along this line.

Glee Club

The Glee Club under the leadership of Miss Nina Riggs met last Wednesday evening. This club is constantly improving in its work and meets with ready approval at every appearance.

Nacirema

The Nacirema club met at the Y. W. C. A. rooms on Friday evening, handwork and an hour or two with Kipling interested the girls during the meeting.

Gymnasium Class Growing

The Monday evening class in gymnastics under the leadership of Miss Garner is growing at each meeting. The class roll is still open for new members, however, for a short time.

Go-Us

The Go-Us club met on Tuesday evening at the Club rooms and spent a very interesting session. This club has taken up a decidedly interesting as well as useful study and are pursuing it with vigor. The ambition of the club is to obtain a complete history of the Astoria of early years and with this aim in view they are talking with old settlers and digging into musty files and dusty books. The lore they learn is one that will be of decided interest in historians in future days.

The Laff A Lott Club

The Laff A Lott club composed of High school girls organized under the Girls Reserve corps met on Monday. Miss Jessie Garner is the leader of this club.

Poughkeepsie Club

The Poughkeepsie club is a most industrious group, its members meeting each Monday and spending its time in sewing.

Work Outlined

Miss Lyle Ford addressed the girls of the Seaside high school last Thursday afternoon on the subject of the girls summer conference at Cannon beach this summer and on the community work to be done next fall. A similar talk will be given to the Knappa high school girls tonight.

FAREWELL PARTY

Honoring Miss Ingrid Lugent, Miss Catherine Inkella and Miss Marie La Salle who expect to leave next week to spend the summer months in Alaska, the members of the Go-Us club entertained in the club rooms Tuesday evening.

Complimenting Miss Whidby, the former leader of the Welfare Club, the members entertained informally on Monday evening, passing a most delightful hour or two. Since Miss Whidby's retirement Mrs. Bennett has acted as the club's sponsor.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The April Fool's party to be given Tuesday evening in the social hall of the Methodist church by the Y. W. C. A. is arousing no little interest among the younger set. Every woman or girl who will arrive on that evening in a costume representing a Mother Goose character or that of any well known story book character is welcome and there will be a prize for the most original. Gym. classes under the direction of Miss Georgiana Garner meet every Monday evening in the basement of the Methodist church. They are open to every one.

April Fool Costume Party

The April Fool party given at the Methodist church parlors on Tuesday evening was a highly amusing affair. All the well known characters from Bo Peep to the old witch who swept the cobwebs from the sky were represented, even the three beggars in rags and tags were there. The committee appointed to select the prize winning costume selected that of Miss Dorothy Hussong as most beautiful. Miss Hussong impersonated Daffy Down Dilly and her costume was very pretty, the idea being carried out in yellow and green crepe paper.

The affair was very informal and the usual number of April Fool stunts were indulged keeping the girls in a gale of laughter. A number of ring games were played after which simple refreshments were served. Misses C. Ford and Cooke were responsible for the evening pleasure the affair being under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Hike

The Go Us Club had a hike on Tuesday evening to the new reservoir where they had a picnic supper.

The Nacirema club went on a delightful picnic to Olney on Saturday. The affair was given in honor of their leader, Miss Portia Baker, who is soon to leave the city. The following well known young girls of the younger set were in the party: Miss Portia Baker, Margery Gilbert, Florence Griffin, Dorothea and Priscilla Eakin, Nellie Tenbrook, Zoe Allen, Margaret Ross, Margaret and Dorothy Hussong, Frances Warde.

MISS BAKER HOSTESS

Miss Portia Baker, leader of the Nacirema club of the Y. W. C. A., was hostess Thursday evening at a delightful evening affair given for the members of the club, Miss Dorothy and Miss Priscilla Eakin, Miss Margaret and Miss Dorothy Hussong, Miss Margery Gilbert, Miss Nell Tenbrook, Miss Frances Ward, Miss Florence Griffin, Miss Zoe Allen, and Miss Frances Kitchen of Sea View. Quantities of pink roses decorated Miss Baker's apartments and also centered the supper table which also was made attractive with pink candles. The hostess was assisted by Miss Mildred Brown.

Today the members of the club, Miss Baker and Miss Doris Hoefler and Miss Wenona Dyer left to spend the weekend at Saddle Mountain which they will climb one day during their camping there.

Cafeteria Lunch

The Laffelot club served a cafeteria luncheon at the club rooms on Saturday afternoon at which they cleared $8. This money was raised to enable the girls to support a Belgian orphan. Owing to the limited room at the disposal of the club no attempt was made to entertain a large crowd and the success of their afternoon's work was highly gratifying.

The members of the Laffelot club will be entertained at Seaside at the Spittle cottage next week, the girls going down on Thursday and returning on Saturday evening.

Summer Work to Begin

The Y. W. C. A. are planning next week to close their winter's work and begin on their summer schedule. A full representation of the following clubs is requested in order that the program may be representative in its scope. The Wegfah and Poughkeepsie on Monday at the Y. W. C. A. rooms; Friloha and Go-Us on Tuesday at the Y. and the Nacirema on Friday at the Y. The gymnastic work at the church will be discontinued for the summer and the plans are to be mainly recreational during the vacation season.

Miss Georgiana Garner, for the past term in charge of the physical activities of the local public schools has been appointed recreating director of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Garner, who will now be a permanent member of the Y. W. staff will assume her new duties July first.

Miss Spittle Entertains

Miss Lucy Spittle entertained delightfully a party of her young friends at the Spittle cottage at Seaside during the Decoration day holidays. Miss Ford and Miss Jessie Garner chaperoned the party that consisted of the Misses Helen Tetsall, Audrey Gardner, Beulah Young, Thora Toikka, Florence Hoagland, Dorothy Cole, Portia Mott, Fay Allen, Edith Mason, Ruth Slotti, Ollie Nyman, Alba Jensen, Constance Miller and Lucy Spittle.

Originally it was intended that the party should go down on Thursday but after learning that the High school students were expected to march in the parade the girls patriotically postponed their party and remained for the Memorial Day exercises joining their school mates in the parade and exercises of the day.

PERMANENT Y. W. IN ASTORIA IS PLAN UNDER WAY HERE NOW

Plans for continuing the work of the local Y. W. C. A. after January 1, 1920, when the funds provided for the local institution by the National War Work Council will be exhausted are under way.

Miss Janet Smith, Y. W. C. A. secretary arrived in the city last evening to conduct a survey here and examine the possibilities for continuing the work of the association.

On Saturday evening a committee of women will meet to organize a provisional board which will have the organization of the Y. W. C. A. on a permanent basis, in charge. The association is to be organized upon the same basis as the local Y. M. C. A., being supported in the same manner and doing the same class of work, only among the girls.

"I find the possibilities for the continuance of 'Y. W.' work in Astoria are exceptionally good," said Miss Smith today. "The first part of our survey made here, disclosed the fact that there are in Astoria, 1188 girls between the ages of 10 and 20 years. It is with these girls that the Y. W. work is mostly carried on, showing that the field here, in comparison with the population is large enough indeed, to warrant a local association."

The Y. W. C. A. in Astoria ranks second in general club work in the northwest states, being surpassed only by the northwest headquarters at Tacoma. During the war the accomplishments of the association were of a praiseworthy nature, and its activities have been growing along the same progressive and constructive lines.

Sentiment, according to Miss Smith, is wholly in favor of continuing the work of the organization here. Her work in Astoria is to assist the association to get upon a permanent basis, and with this accomplished, the future of the institution which is proving such an asset to the community, is assured.

Y. W. C. A. Surveys Clatsop County

Whether or not Astoria's Y. W. C. A. is to be continued is the problem which has brought Miss Janet Smith, special investigator of the association from her Seattle headquarters to Astoria. Miss Smith is now busily engaged in making a survey of the situation in Clatsop county upon which she will base her report as to the need of a Y. W. C. A. here and the field of service that is open to it.

The Astoria Y. W. C. A. is now supported by the war activities board. It was started to serve the visiting families of the soldiers stationed at the posts around the mouth of the river and to aid in the bettering of social life in the community. But now that the war is over, the funds of the war board will not be available for the upkeep of the organization after the first of January. Consequently Miss Smith has been sent here to make investigations and report.

A number of Astoria women who appreciate the fine things that the Astoria Y. W. C. A. under Miss Ford's capable leadership, has done for the young women of the community, are anxious that the work shall be continued as previously. They are anxious that the budget which amounts to about $5000, be subscribed by local people and that the splendid service go on. If such is the desire of the people of Clatsop county, the Y. W. C. A. will remain. Miss Smith's investigations will show just what the association intends to do if it is retained and what has been done in the past.

"There are 761 girls over ten and under twenty years of age in Clatsop county outside the city of Astoria," said Miss Smith yesterday, "and in the city there are 1188 between these ages. If the Y. W. C. A. work is continued here, we shall make an attempt to reach a large percentage of these girls through club work and the activities of the association. I have not completed my investigation of the number of girls employed in the stores, canneries, and industrial plants, but that will be a part of my report."

"The Astoria Y. W. C. A. has made a fine record during the past year. It has enrolled over 300 girls of the city in its club work, and more than 300 girls meet at the association every week. The club work's growth here is exceeded in the northwest only by that of the Tacoma association."

Miss Smith will continue her investigations this week and will leave the city for Seattle Tuesday.

LOCAL Y.W.C.A. RANKS SECOND

Exceeded Only by Tacoma in Northwest Division; 20 Girls' Clubs Here

The Astoria Young Women's Christian association ranks second in the Northwest in its activities for the past year, being exceeded only by the Tacoma organization. The Northwest includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

The work of the Y. W. C. A. so well carried on by Miss E. L. Ford in Astoria is to be spread to the entire length and breadth of Clatsop county in the near future. As soon as additional Y. W. C. A. workers can be secured, the additional clubs will be organized in the county. At present the Y. W. C. A. includes twenty clubs for girls in the city in addition to its central organization. Girls Reserve and Campfire clubs have been among the most successful of the organization's undertakings.

Plans for a girls' camp at Cannon Beach, July 15 to 25, have been arranged. At this camp, girls of high school age from all parts of the state are invited. Another similar camp will be opened at Gearhart from July 26 to Labor day.

Astoria Y. W. C. A. Now Holds Second Place Among Associations Of Pacific Northwest

The Astoria Y. W. C. A. ranks second in the northwest territory, and has obtained this distinction in competition with the Y. W.'s. of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Word to this effect has been received by Miss L. E. Ford, of the local Y. W.'s., in the form of an announcement in the regular bulletin. Tacoma holds first place in the Northwest territory.

The local Y. W. C. A. has organized 20 girl clubs at the different schools, taking in a total of over 300 members. Girl Reserve work, and Camp fire girl activities have been fostered with notable success.

Plans have been made for a girls camp, which all girls of high school age in the state may attend. The camp will be held at the Warren hotel at Cannon beach July 15 to 25. Miss Ford has been appointed Camp Manager and Miss Inez Cook, assistant secretary of the local association, counsellor. The program for the ten days includes hiking, surf bathing athletics of all sorts and the other activities that go with camping trips. A nominal cost for the ten days has been set.

Another Y. W. C. A. camp will be held at Gearhart, which is also open to girls thruout the state. The camp will be in session from July 1 until Labor day, and the activities will be practically the same as the camp at Cannon beach.

A rally and field day has been planned for the local girl's clubs on June 7. All of the 20 clubs in the city will be represented in the different contests, and the affair will be attended by all of the girl's affiliated with the Y. W. C. A.

The plan is underway to make the Y. W. C. A. a permanent institution in Astoria. Financial support of the National War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A., which has been supporting the local association, will be discontinued with the end of the present year. Prior to this time the Y. W. will launch a local campaign for funds with which to carry on the work which has been so successfully started.

Arrangements are being made to supervise Y. W. C. A. club work thruout the entire county. Groups have been organized at different nearby points, and as soon as the staff can be enlarged so as to properly supervise additional ones, they will be organized.

"The work of the Y. W. C. A. here has grown to such an extent that the present quarters are hardly large enough," said Miss Ford today. "If the Y. W. C. A. goes upon a permanent basis here, new quarters will have to be obtained. When we came here we realized that the need for the work was great, but the association has been accomplishing far more than was hoped for at first."

"I feel confident that the city and county will carry on the work. The benefit that the girlhood of the community is receiving is becoming greater day by day as the scope of the work is enlarged. When the time comes for the people to support the institution, I believe that the value of its activities will be fully realized, and that it will be financed accordingly."

PART OF CAST IS ANNOUNCED AND OTHERS ARE COMING

People of Astoria Are Co-operating in Kindest Spirit, Says the Director.

MISS EDA HEINEMANN

Miss Heinemann is the director of the Y. W. C. A. pageant, "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream," and is endeavoring to have the production ready for presentation during the forthcoming visit of the squadron of the Pacific fleet to the harbor of Astoria.

A "Mid-Summer Night's Dream," the Shakespearean play which will be given by the local Y. W. C. A., is coming along fine. The play is to be given at the city park stadium on September 12. If the vessels of the Pacific fleet are in town on September 11, it will be given that night for their benefit.

The pageant is part of the plan that is being worked out by the national committee of the Y. W. C. A. of pageantry with headquarters in New York. Miss Eda Heinemann, who has come to Astoria to take charge of the work is very well pleased with the way people are assisting and co-operating with her.

People of Astoria Aid Willingly
"I find a generosity and friendliness towards the work on every hand and am very delighted with the people of Astoria in this matter," said Miss Heinemann.

She has had several years of professional stage experience, appearing in some of the greatest New York hits. She has coached plays throughout the plays and for a number of years has specialized in school and college plays. She had charge of the play, "The Inspector General," which attracted attention and much favorable comment from all over the United States when it was put on at Wellesley College two years ago.

Lines Somewhat Changed.
The play has been changed from the original version so as to include solo dances and a number of very fine group scenes and dances by the fairies. The dancing is under the supervision of Mrs. A. E. Travis, who for a number of years has had charge of the pageant and playground work in Laurelhurst park in Portland. In the recent pageant put on in the park she assisted a great deal in the direction having entire charge of the dancing and herself having very fine solo dances. She is also very well pleased with the people who have volunteered for the pageant and is very confident of putting on a most excellent production.

The complete cast is not yet available but the leading parts and some of the minor parts were announced yesterday. As soon as the names of the fairies and elves are obtained they will be published. Those announced are:

Theseus, duke of Athens, Sgt. Padden; Egeus, father of Hermia, Dr. Andrews; Lysander, betrothed to Hermia, Charles Gratke; Demetrius, once suited to Helena now in love with Hermia, Russel Fox; Philostrate, master of revels to Theseus, Herbert Ambler; Quince, a carpenter, Ed. Shockley; Bottom, a weaver, A. W. Heisig; Flute, a bellows mender, A. F. Atswell; Snout, a tinker, Merle Husson; Snug, a joiner, Thorndyke; Starveling, a tailor, L. Kildal; Hippolyta, queen of the Amazons, betrothed to Theseus, Lola Erickson; Hermia, daughter of Egeus, Pauline Larsen; Helena, in love with Demetrius, Margery Gilbert; Fairies, King Oberon, Amelia Leibel; Titania, Lena Bartlett; Puck, Wenona Dyer; Pease Blossom, Loris Gratke; Cobweb, Lenore McGregor; Moth, Lola Skinner; Mustardseed, Miss Jarven.

The play is a delightful Shakespearean phantasy and abounds with beautiful scenes. Out of the woods the fairies come dancing, light and afloat with gauzy wings. They sing very sweetly and beautifully. The whole thing gives the impression of poetry and art.

The music is under the direction of

"Superfluity Shop" Run
by Committee.

To give the local people a surcease from drives and yet at the same time provide funds with which to continue the work of the Y. W. C. A., the ladies of the finance committee of that organization have decided to conduct a "superfluity shop" as was done during war days.

The store will be located in the building on Tenth street, just back of the Troy Laundry and formerly occupied by the Troy Cleaners, this room having been donated by John Tait. It will open at once and continue for an indeterminate period.

Already the collection of clothing and other articles for sale has begun and what the committee particularly desires at this time is that residents contribute to the stock of merchandise from their stores of worn or unused clothing household goods or other things which would find sale.

The Y. W. C. A.'s budget of expenses for the coming year is fixed at $10,000. It was the original intention of the finance committee to conduct a drive in January but the many drives which have been held has decided the committee to adopt other means to raise at least a portion of the needed funds.

Mrs. J. W. Tapscott, chairman of the finance committee, will supervise the superfluity shop and her assistants will be Mrs. Nelson Neulen, Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Mrs. Oscar Wirkkala, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. Francis Barton and Miss Eva Holmes.

Y. W. C. A. WILL SERVE HOOVER MENU TUESDAY

Local Lunch Will Duplicate Famous $1,000 a Plate Dinner Served for Starving.

Visualizing the thousands and thousands of starving children in Europe, the Young Women's Christian Association wherever located in the world will on next Tuesday sponsor an Invisible
Guest Day and serve special Hoover menues of stew, bread and cocoa, the gross proceeds of which will be turned over to the European Relief fund.

The Astoria branch of the Young Women's Christian Association has completed all arrangements for serving a special luncheon of the above mentioned foods at its dining rooms on Exchange street near 12th, between the hours of 11:30 o'clock and 1:30 o'clock.

The stew-bread-cocoa menu actually costs 22 cents for each person served but it is hoped that all who avail themselves of this opportunity to help swell the fund for the starving people in Europe will pay as many times that price for the meal as their purses will afford.

Both the regular dining room of the Y. W. C. A. and the basement dining room used each week by the Kiwanis Club, will be devoted to serving the Hoover lunch next Tuesday noon, it has been announced.

The Hoover menu to be served Tuesday is the same one served recently at one of New York's largest hotels at which time Herbert Hoover, General Pershing, Franklin Lane and other prominent Americans to the number of 1000 paid $1,000 a plate for the food, the proceeds going to the relief of the starving European children. All Astorians interested in the alleviation of the distress of the European children are urged to partake of the Tuesday luncheon at the Y. W. C. A.

The store will be located in the building on Tenth street, just back of the Troy Laundry and formerly occupied by the Troy Cleaners, this room having been donated by John Tait. It will open at once and continue for an indeterminate period.

Already the collection of clothing and other articles for sale has begun and what the committee particularly desires at this time is that residents contribute to the stock of merchandise from their stores of worn or unused clothing household goods or other things which would find sale.

The Y. W. C. A.'s budget of expenses for the coming year is fixed at $10,000. It was the original intention of the finance committee to conduct a drive in January but the many drives which have been held has decided the committee to adopt other means to raise at least a portion of the needed funds.

Mrs. J. W. Tapscott, chairman of the finance committee, will supervise the superfluity shop and her assistants will be Mrs. Nelson Neulen, Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Mrs. Oscar Wirkkala, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. Francis Barton and Miss Eva Holmes.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

The first-annual meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Friday evening at the headquarters building. Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president of the board, being unable to be present owing to her legislative duties at Salem, Mrs. V. D. Earl, vice-president, presided at the meeting.

Full and interesting reports were given of the different departments of the work by the secretaries and chairmen of committees.

It is interesting to report that the present membership is about 400, that 337 girls have been housed during the year; that the receipts from them paid more than $50 of the $100 rent per month.

Miss Georgiana Garner has organized 11 clubs for the younger girls with a total membership of 166, meeting once each week in the girls' club rooms. Miss Garner also has six classes in swimming and gymnasium each week. These meet at the Y. M. C. A.

The cafeteria had a cash balance of $268.31 for the year, after having served 4349 paid meals. Dr. Rhoda C. Hicks, treasurer, reported a balance of $494.83 for the general administration, with total expenditures of $9292.77 and total receipts of $9787.60.

Miss Betsy Wootton, Mrs. Charles Rinell, Mrs. W. T. Eakin and Mrs. G. A. Walters were re-elected members of the board of directors to serve three years and Mrs. J. C. Ten Brook, Mrs. J. H. Tate and Mrs. Frank Woodfield were elected for the same length of time to fill the vacancies on the board. Field Secretary Miss Lois Diehl was present and gave a bit of the history of the Y. W. C. A., its work done during the war and the association's international extent.

Hoover Meal To Be Served At Local Y. W.

Luncheon February 1st Will Cost 22 Cents; Pay More and Gross Receipts Go to Relief Fund

Herbert Hoover's famous 22 cent meal will be duplicated in Astoria on Tuesday noon, February 1 when the Y. W. C. A. will turn over the gross cash receipts from the luncheon of that day to the European relief council for the starving children of Europe. The local association is taking part in the "Invisible Guest Day" made famous by Hoover at the Hotel Commodore when he organized the 22 cent banquet with plates at $1000 each.

The local association has planned for a meal of salmon or stew and the actual cost will be 22 cents. This amount and all sums over this which the patrons wish to pay for the meal, will be turned over to the relief committee.

The Hoover meal will be served in the lower floor used by the civic clubs and will also be served in the main dining room. Young ladies interested in Y. W. C. A. work will be present to assist.

The Y. M. C. A. is cooperating in this relief movement with the American relief association, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service commission, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Jewish Joint Distribution committee, the Knights of Columbus and the Y. M. C. A. Thirty-three million dollars is the sum to be raised in the United States, the sum necessary to keep alive 3,500,000 children, the coming generation of middle Europe, until the next harvest comes to stand Europe on its feet again. Of this sum, $23,600,000 will be devoted to feeding and $10,000,000 to medical care, for sub-nutrition is accompanied by disease that demands skillful aid and instruction to remedy it and to prevent its increase.

EUROPEANS PLEADING FOR THEIR CHILDREN

Elder Generation Sacrifices Self
That Hope of Future May Receive Means of Life.

The one optimistic note in the desperate need prevailing through the war-torn areas of eastern Europe is the extraordinary and touching faith of the people in the children. The elder generation has put all its hope and trust in the future of the generation now in its early years. In fact, in many instances it is deliberately sacrificing itself for the children, the Europe of tomorrow.

In the war-ravaged districts supplies necessary for maintenance of institutions are lacking, but it has been noted that always the request for outside aid emphasises the needs of the orphanages. How marked is this inclination was indicated by the fact that one district of Poland the authorities, appealing to an American relief organization for assistance, asked assistance for only one military hospital, four general hospitals and twenty orphanages.

The appeal has reached America with the result that because they know that literally millions of European children face starvation and death from disease unless the aid that only this country can give is forthcoming, eight great American relief agencies have banded together under the name of the European Relief Council to raise $33,000,000 needed to tide the baby generation of Europe over possibly the most critical winter it has yet faced. These are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

EAT A LOT; SAVE A TOT IS SLOGAN AT Y. W. C. A.

Special Hoover Menu for Benefit of European Sufferers
Will Feature Cafeteria.

"Eat a lot and Save A Tot."

That will be the slogan at the home of the Young Women's Christian Association over on Exchange street where tomorrow noon both a regular luncheon menu and a special Hoover menu will be served. The entire proceeds of which will go toward sweetening the fund now being raised here for the relief of the starving thousands of children in Europe.

Salmon will be featured on the special Hoover menu to be served tomorrow between the hours of 11:30 o'clock in the morning and 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and stew, bread and cocoa which featured the recent menu in New York City when 1000 banqueters paid $1000 a plate for that luncheon, will also be served.

The occasion is Invisible Guest Day in all cafeterias of the Young Women's Christian Association throughout the country and while the diners will visualize their little invisible guests across the seas, a number of Astoria women interested in raising money for the starving tots in Europe will also pay attention to the visible guests and a series of tray parties will feature the day here.

The usual price will be charged for regular luncheon at the Y. W. tomorrow but as much more than that amount as guests desire to give will be accepted and added to the relief fund. This also applies to the Hoover Special luncheon which ordinarily costs about 22 cents per portion. All Astoria people interested in the raising of funds to help the kiddies of Europe are urged to take their luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. tomorrow noon.

HOOVER LUNCH WILL BE SERVED AT Y. W.

Entire Proceeds of Meal To-day Goes to Relief Work

The entire proceeds of the regular luncheon and of a special Hoover luncheon, both of which will be served this noon at the home of the Young Women's Christian Association on Exchange street, will go to the fund now being raised in Astoria for the relief of the starving children in Europe.

Salmon, the food in which the focal funds will be invested, will be featured on the luncheon menu which is to be served between 11:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., and the famous Hoover luncheon of stew, bread and cocoa, which were the features of the famous New York luncheon of a few weeks ago given to raise money for this same fund and at which 1000 participants paid $1000 a plate for such luncheon, will also be served.

This occasion is "invisible guest day" in all cafeterias of the Y. W. C. A. throughout the country. The regular luncheon will be served at the usual price and the Hoover luncheon ordinarily costing 22 cents per plate. However, as much more than these amounts as guests desire to give to the cause is desired.

All Astorians are invited to "eat a lot and save a tot" at these luncheons today and are urged to attend in large numbers as arrangements have been made to care of a record crowd.

HUNDRED PERSONS AT Y. W. C. A. LUNCHEON

Meal Proves Success

More than a hundred persons were served at the Y. W. C. A. regular luncheon and the special Hoover menu it served at its cafeteria yesterday and approximately the sum of $75 was thus raised for the relief of the starving children of Europe.

It was a busy day at the blue triangle, Astoria home, yesterday, and the women in charge of the affair are well pleased with the big success achieved and thus feel especially compensated for their charitable work.

GRAY SAMARITANS RESCUING CHILDREN

The Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States are keenly interested in the movement for the relief of the 3,500,000 starving children of Europe because a group of their members, the Polish Gray Samaritans, have been in charge of distributing food to children in Poland. They have been serving under the American Relief administration and have conducted food kitchens and distributing stations in all parts of Poland outside Warsaw.

In all the relief work being done in Europe, that of the Polish Grays has been unique because all the girls, though sent from America, were either born in Poland or are of Polish parentage. When the need for social service in their country became acute, many girls of Polish descent answered the call of the Young Women's Christian Association for overseas service and enlisted in the preliminary training course that was given in several cities of the United States. From this group thirty girls were chosen and sent to Poland where, since 1918, they have been caring for the children of the country. The distribution of clothing has taken them into all parts of Poland.

They are now spending their entire time in arranging for the feeding of children this winter. Groups of them travel to strategic centers in outlying districts where they set up distributing stations, receive supplies, prepare meals, arrange for impartial distribution and train helpers to continue the work when they are sent on to the next town.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

An inter-denominational call to prayer will be observed at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, February 18, at 3 o'clock. All the women of the city are requested to attend.

The Falloychee Club girls met Monday evening to make sewing cards for Mrs. Over's kindergarten at the Baptist church.

The "Lihawola's" met Monday evening for a regular business meeting and decided to sell a cake to the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria every Friday.

The second meeting of the Young Women's Council will be held Tuesday evening, February 15 at the Y. W. C. A. girls club room. This will be a very important meeting as some definite plans must be laid for the Y. W. C. A. institute.

The board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. met Tuesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. rooms and voted to hold a Y. W. C. A. Institute. It is hoped to have three field secretaries present and possibly Miss Schooley of the National Board.

Backward turned time in his flight last night, for fifty members of the Business Girls' club, at a joyous Christmas tree jollification at the Y. W. C. A. arranged by the hospitality committee, with Mesdames Hoefler, Setters and E. Sutherland as hostesses. Some of the girls were dressed impressively as rosy cheeked boys, caps set rakishly, wearing patched overalls and other boyish gear. Others appeared as "kid girls" of 10 or 12, with topknot and ribbon bow, gingham dress, half hose, bibs and tuckers, and a naivete and cunning only equaled in real school. Miss Ruth Johnson served charmingly in the role of school teacher. The girls said she was "perfectly wonderful!" The old-fashioned spelling bee, in which contending teams wrestled with unfamiliar words, evoked gales of merriment. Soft punch and fruit cake were served. There was a gorgeous Christmas tree and every girl received a stocking full of candy and other gifts designed to delight a real "kid girl." The fun was fast and furious and all went home vowing it was the happiest occasion of the kind on record. The hall had Christmas decorations. It was a distinct triumph for the hospitality committee and the devoted secretary, Miss Grace Williams.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Will Warren of Portland, will give an inspirational talk on Alaska at the 4 o'clock vesper service Sunday afternoon. There will be special music and a social hour following. All young women are urged to be present.

Every girl club member is requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock. This will be a time to practice for the demonstrations of girls clubs to be given before the public during Institute Week, March 8-9-10.

The Y. W. C. A. of Astoria will hold an Institute March 8-9-10. This will be a time when educational and inspirational help can be given us as we expect three field secretaries and one national secretary to be present. Please keep these dates in mind. We hope to have all the women of the town interested in the work of the association attend all or some of the special meetings to be given then. The members are especially invited to attend. We want the members of the Young Women's Council to emphasize the Institute before their separate organizations. Begin now and talk about it. If you want any information please call Miss Williams and she will explain.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

Miss Juanita White of Portland, who is Dr. J. J. Pittenger's assistant in X-Ray work, is staying at the "Y."

The publicity committee of the Y. W. C. A. met at luncheon at the "Y" Thursday noon to discuss means of advertising the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria. Very soon a permanent sign will be placed on the front of the building announcing the hours of serving and the days when the cafeteria is open.

In place of the Sunday afternoon Vesper services hikes are being taken to points of interest about the city and parks. Last Sunday 14 girls, chaperoned by Miss Grace Williams, Miss Georgiana Garner, and two national board secretaries, Misses Sarvay and Carter, enjoyed a walk up Coxcomb Hill. Next Sunday another interesting hike is planned for 3 o'clock.

Miss Grace Williams, general secretary, spoke before the 6-A grades of the Central school Thursday afternoon on her trip around the world.

The high school Bible class, led by Miss Watkins, meets each week at the Y. W. C. A. and is being well attended.

The Y. W. C. A. employment bureau placed a girl for domestic service this week in the home of Henry McGowan at McGowan, Wash.

The April meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will be held on Tuesday evening, headquarters building, at 7:30.

The young women's council met Tuesday evening at the "Y". The council made plans for a membership rally to be held Friday evening April 27.

The Galiloha Girls' Club of Alverbrook, with Catherine Pinneo leader, met Thursday evening in their own club-room at the Marinovich home to make aprons and smocks. They will have initiation next week, and have planned to swim on Wednesday, April 13, at 4 o'clock.

The Y. W. C. A. lost a friend and honorary board member by the death of Mrs. S. Elmore. She was always kind and helpful. Her visits at the "Y" will be greatly missed.

The Kiwanis Club and the Y. W. C. A. are delighted with the flowers presented to them Thursday by Gus Erickson, florist.

Mrs. J. E. Eakin and Mrs. W. F. McGregor cheered the "Y" with beautiful flowers this week.

Institute To Be Held Here By Y. W. C. A.

Speakers Coming for Three Day's Meeting Next Week National Official to Be Present.

An institute, open to all Astoria women, will be held at the Y. W. C. A. for three days next week, March 8, 9 and 10. Institute At Y. W. C. A. Big Success Here Interesting Talks Given by Visitors to Large Number of Astoria Women.

Interesting talks were given at the Y. W. C. A. institute held yesterday afternoon at the association building before a large crowd of Astoria women. Organization work, world finance and fellowship were numbered among the topics discussed.

Miss Ida Winston Farvey of Richmond, Virginia gave a very interesting talk on organization work emphasizing the fact that the Y. W. C. A. should bring before the people of the city the many things they are doing for the young women. Miss Winston's talk was all the more interesting as given in the manner of a daughter of the south.

Miss Mary L. Cady, director of general education for the national board in New York dwelt on the world fellowship plan which has brought out effective work in connection with the Y. W. C. A. activities.

Mrs. J. H. Shaner entertained with two delightful solos accompanied by Miss Claire Hamack. The devotions were in charge of Miss Gula Gamble of Seattle.

The program on Tuesday evening included a girls club rally and initiation service by Miss Georgiana Garner; Camps and Conferences, Miss Gamble; vocal solo, Mrs. A. A. Finch; address, Miss Mary L. Cady; Mrs. W. S. Kinney presided.

The program for this afternoon will include devotions, Miss Diehl; piano solo, Miss Claire Hamack; Girls Works, Miss Gamble; Education, Miss Cady, and 1921 Standards, Miss Diehl. Mrs. W. T. Eakin will preside. This evening at 8 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium a recreation demonstration by Miss Gamble, assisted by Miss Georgiana Garner, recreation and girls' club secretary and E. B. White, physical director of the Y. M. C. A.

MEANING OF Y. W. C. A. IS MESSAGE OF INSTITUTE

What it means to be a member of the Young Women's Christian Association was impressed upon a crowd of nearly 200 Astoria young women and others at the opening of the three-day institute being conducted here by the Y. W. C. A., at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last evening, by Miss Mary Cady, of New York, director of general education for the Y. W. C. A., who spoke in a most entertaining and intelligent manner on the work being conducted by the association throughout the United States.

Miss Cady Speaks.

Miss Cady who is a graduate of Radcliffe College and who has studied at the University of Berlin and other foreign centers of learning, made a most favorable impression on her auditors at the opening of the institute last evening and tonight at six o'clock a dinner will be given in the basement of the Y. W. C. A. home on Exchange street, for the members of the Young Women's Council, at which time those who did not have the opportunity yesterday may meet Miss Cady who is to remain here until the close of the institute tomorrow night.

Club Girls Initiate.

One of the features of the opening session of the institute last evening at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, was the appearance in uniform of 92 girls belonging to the 10 girls clubs of the local Young Women's Christian Association.

Under the leadership of Miss Georgiana Garner, recreation and girls' club secretary, they filed into the gymnasium where two initiatory services were held, one by the girls of the Y. W. C. A. reserves and the other by the Camp Fire Girls.

Miss Gula Gamble, of Seattle, girls secretary for the northwest district of the Y. W. C. A. gave a most interesting talk on girls club work, telling of their camps and conferences. Mrs. A. A. Finch of this city contributed two vocal solos to the program, singing in her usual delightful manner. She was followed by Miss Cady whose talk on the general activities of the Y. W. C. A. proved so pleasing to the audience. Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president of the local Y. W. C. A. board, presided at the opening session last evening.

Program This Afternoon.

This afternoon the program is being held at the headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. on Exchange street, Mrs. J. P. Tapscott presiding. The program included Devotions led by Miss Gula Gamble, vocal solos by Mrs. J. H. Shaner, a talk on World Fellowship by Miss Cady and an address on Y. W. C. A. finances by Miss Ida Winston Farvey, national campaign director for the Y. W. C. A., of New York.

Mrs. W. T. Eakin will preside at the session tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the following program will be presented: Devotions, Miss Lois Diehl; piano solo, Miss Claire Hamack; Girls' Work by Miss Gula Gamble; Education, by Miss Mary Cady; and 1921 Standards by Miss Diehl.

Closes Tomorrow Night.

The institute will be formally closed with the night session tomorrow at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium where recreational demonstrations under the leadership of Miss Gula Gamble, assisted by Eugene B. White, physical director of the Astoria Y. M. C. A. and Miss Georgiana Garner, recreation and girls' club secretary of the Y. W. C. A. will be held. All friends of the association, both men and women are invited.

"The Y. W. C. A. of today is not just a place where a girl may get a handout, or a bed for the night," said Miss Cady, "but the organization goes much further than that. It helps her to always be surrounded with the best people, with congenial and understanding folks, in whom she may confide and with whom she may express herself, and the organization pays particular attention to welcoming the girls who in large numbers are coming here from foreign countries to make their home in America. They are welcomed immediately upon their arrival in New York, San Francisco, Chicago and other cities by our Friendly Relations committees who assist them in every way to get themselves adjusted to the new life in America."

FEMININE SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS KIWANIS

Miss Pauline Magruder, hostess of the Service Club at Fort Stevens and Miss Mary Cady, national secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who comes here from New York, will be the speakers at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon today.

Miss Magruder has selected for her topic "Cooperation between the Soldier and the Community." Miss Cady will speak on "Education." The attendance prize will be presented by Charles T. Diamond, local architect.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

Several Filipino young men, upon invitation, furnished some very excellent music at the Y. W. C. A. during the dinner hour Friday.

At the Star theater this evening the Seabeck Y. W. C. A. conference film is being shown. Seabeck, Wash., is one of the several conference grounds of the National Y. W. C. A. work. Here the girls and young women, delegates from towns in the meet for ten days to study and play together. The local association hopes to send several representatives this year. Miss Georgiana Garner, girls' work secretary, appears in the picture.

Any girl or young woman desiring to go on the Sunday hike should be at the "Y" at 2 o'clock. Miss Garner will lead the party to the wireless station across Youngs river. About 16 girls enjoyed the tramp last Sunday.

The first afternoon tea to be given by the team captain in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. finance campaign was held Friday at the "Y," when Mrs. W. E. Grace entertained her team. Spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the tables, and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Grace, assisted by two of the Camp Fire girls, Betty Higgins and Clover Burlingame. The primary object of these teas is to discuss campaign methods and to get definite instructions which each member is supposed to carry out in her soliciting. Today Mrs. Frank Woodfield entertained her team, and Mrs. John Tait has announced that she has invited her team to meet Monday at 2:30 at the "Y."

Blue Bird

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

Miss Ida Winston Sarvey and Miss Sara R. Carter, members of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, are here to plan for the local finance campaign to be held the first week in May.

In the girls' club department are two new leaders: Miss Genevieve Howell of the "Falloysche," and Miss Catherine Pinneo of the "Caliohas." The "Blue Birds" of Taylor school have given an electric lamp to the club room at headquarters.

The Wolova Club of high school girls went for a hike and Weiner-roast Friday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Georgiana Garner and Miss Ida Sarvey.

Tuesday evening Miss Slade and Miss Lugnet, as directors of the young women's council, will call the members together at the "Y" for their April meeting, instead of on April 18.

Miss Winifred Glossop, Miss Olvey's successor in the Taylor school, has recently come to have Miss Walker's room at the "Y." Miss leaves this week-end to reside at the Wherity home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Strange have donated the use of their kitchen range to the "Y" for a year at least. The range will be installed in the basement so as to better care for club luncheons.

The membership committee just recently organized, with Mrs. E. G. Gearhart as chairman, came to gether for their first meeting on Monday evening, March 28th, at the Y. W. C. A.

Thursday of this week the Astoria Y. W. C. A. was notified by telephone by the head of the Travelers' Aid department of the Portland Y. W. C. A., to meet Miss Olga Kalroth, 19 years old, who was en route from Finland to her uncle's home at Clatsop Plains. The head of the travelers' aid department met the young lady, interviewed the uncle at the Astoria station and, after a satisfactory explanation, Olga was allowed to go on with her uncle to Warrenton. The Y. W. C. A. will continue to hold an interest in Miss Kalroth.

Y. W. C. A. TO CONTINUE CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS

Final Drive For Money Will be Made on Monday.

No figures were available yesterday evening concerning the progress of

ELECT OFFICERS

For the purpose of electing officers, the Business Girls' and Professional Women's club, which was organized July 17, met last evening at a dinner given in the club room of the Y. W. C. A. Short talks on the future activities of the club were made by Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., E. Grace Williams, acting chairman for the meeting, Mrs. Muriel Russ and the newly elected officers, who are: President, Mrs. Alta Lee Saul; vice-president, Miss Estella Shoeph; secretary, Miss Aino Malinen; treasurer, Miss Signe Engstran.

A publicity committee and a committee to draw up the constitution and by laws to be presented to the club for approval at the next meeting, August 2, were appointed by the president. Those present last evening were: Eileen Walker, Edith Forrest, Saima Wuceri, Esther Luoto, Hilda Luoto, Muriel Russ, Eulalia Rezin, Josephine Torppa, Alta Lee Saul, Signe Engstran, Florence Johnson, Emma Shepard, Estella Shoeph, Mildred Butler, Agnes Miller, Aino Malinen and E. Grace Williams.

the Y. W. C. A. drive due to the fact that the report which was to have been made by the teams then was postponed until Monday, the last day of the drive. Those in charge of the drive expressed themselves as being confident that a good showing would be made.

A prominent business man said yesterday that the people of Astoria can not permit the campaign of the Y. W. C. A. to fail as the association has been taking care of the young women of the city, and has been a big factor in the business life of the community.

The people of Astoria have responded to the call, but there are hundreds who have not yet contributed as the figures show that the $3,430.50 has been contributed by about 500 local residents.

The workers are confident that by a final swing next week that the fund will go over $5,000 and many believe that the necessary $7,000 which is needed to continue the work, will be secured.

Y. W. C. A. APPEAL TOPIC OF SPEAKER TO ROTARY

Speaking before the Rotary Club at its noonday luncheon, Miss Ida Sarvey, a Y. W. C. A. social service worker, appealed for the support of the individual Rotarians in the forthcoming financial campaign of that organization.

She reviewed some of the work of the local Y. W. C. A., emphasized the need of its continued existence and reminded her hearers that not since October, 1919, had the local organization asked for funds. Her remarks were seconded by Roger Pinneo.

Today's meeting of the Rotary Club was the last of the fiscal year. At the next meeting President R. E. Carruthers will yield the gavel to President-elect John Tait. The secretary today gave a brief summary of the past year. His report showed that the membership had been increased since May, 1920, from 30 to 48, that the average attendance had been raised from 70 per cent to more than 90 per cent at each meeting and that quite a number of the individual members had almost perfect records. Four evening meetings have been held during the year and four delegations sent to Rotary meetings over the northwest.

A rising vote of appreciation was given to President Carruthers following a short tribute to his work by Past President R. W. Skallerud. It was announced at the meeting today that the joint Rotary meeting of the Astoria, Portland, Salem and Vancouver clubs at Seaside has been set for May 14.

HOUSE COMMITTEE OF Y. W. C. A. HAS MEETING

Mrs. J. C. Ten Brook Entertains for Members at Home.

Mrs. J. S. TenBrook, chairman of the house committee of the Y. W. C. A., entertained the members of her committee at home in Astor Court last evening in preparation for the campaign which will be launched by the association on May 2.

This was the first regular meeting of the committee which has in charge the care of the building on Exchange street. At the meeting last evening ways and means were devised to carry on the work of the next year.

Members of the committee are, Mrs. TenBrook, Mrs. H. R. Hocfler, Mrs. J. A. Buchanan, Mrs. O. B. Setters, Mrs. Lillian Eitler, Mrs. E. Sutherland, Miss Georgiana Garner and Miss Williams.

ATTORNEY GRAY AND MISS SARVAY TO TALK Kiwanians to Hear Civic Topic and Y. W. C. A. Program.

As a prelude to Cleanup Week Attorney E. E. Gray will give an address at the Kiwanis club luncheon at noon on Thursday, selecting for his topic "The City Beautiful." Mr. Gray will have an outline of what Kiwanians can do in assisting the chamber of commerce committee in the program for next week.

Miss Sarvey, national campaign director of the Y. W. C. A., will speak on the activities of the association and will show the members of the club why they should stand back of the work of the local association. Miss Sarvey is assisting with the campaign which begins next week.

The glad hand committee for the luncheon on Thursday will be Walter Eakin, Virgil D. Earl, Dixie Moore, Julian Coblenz and T. Alex Ostrom. The attendance prize will be presented to Charles W. Robison. Two new members have been elected to the club they are: August C. Fielitz, cigar manufacturer, and Leo J. Malarkey, automobile insurance.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. swimming classes are feeling the need of the Y. M. C. A., which has been closed for the past few days. Today is the regular class day for the 25 or 30 swimmers who have been using the tank and great regret is expressed over the fact that the Y. M. C. A. was forced to close its doors.

Scores of youngsters every day flock to the Y. M. C. A. in the hope that it will be open for them. Many of the boys who have been using the facilities at the Y. M. C. A. are now playing in the streets while the older boys are gathering at the various pool halls for amusement. An organization of the youngsters formed after the association was closed stated that the older folks were not playing fair with the boys by closing the institution.

READINESS FOR EFFORT IS SHOWN AT "Y" LUNCH

Enthusiasm Displayed at Rally
for Coming Drive.

If the enthusiasm displayed by more than 100 Astoria men and women attending the noonday luncheon at the home of the Young Women's Christian Association today is any criterion, the appeal which that organization expects to make to the citizens of this community next week for $7000 with which to continue to develop the highest type of Christian womanhood in this city during the coming year, will go over the top with a bang.

Mrs. William S. Kinney, Clatsop county's first woman legislator and president of the board of the Y. W. C. A., was in charge at the luncheon, introducing Mrs. J. P. Tapscott, who is director of the appeal for funds, and other speakers.

Senator A. W. Norblad paid a glowing tribute to the Y. W. C. A. as the one organization that is acting as a big mother to the girls of America, offering them protection and assistance and developing the religious, social and educational sides of their lives. He said that if the life of a single girl was saved through the work of the Y. W. C. A., the $7000 sought for next year's work would be more than well spent. The invocation was given by Rev. F. C. Taylor, rector of Grace church.

Other speakers today included Miss Ida Sarvay, national campaign director of the Y. W. C. A.; J. A. Buchanan, secretary of the Kiwanis Club; John Tait of the Rotary Club; Miss E. Grace Williams, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. here, and R. F. Stone, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. board, and Mrs. Virgil Earl.

Catchy songs prepared especially for the luncheon, in which all the men and women present joined, enlivened the luncheon today, which was held for the purpose of outlining the final plans for the campaign next week.

The excellent luncheon served at noon today was prepared by a committee including Mrs. C. T. Diamond, chairman; Mrs. G. Wingate, Mrs. Tom Wootton, Mrs. O. I. Peterson, Mrs. John A. Buchanan and Mrs. F. C. Johnson.

200 VOLUNTEERS START "Y. W." $7,000 CANVASS

Bright and early this morning, more than 200 volunteer workers, including Astoria's prominent matrons and misses interested in seeing the Young Women's Christian Association continued in this city, started out in their work of raising the sum of $7000, with which to continue the work.

The financial appeal work will continue throughout this week and up to and including Monday of next week.

The workers report that they are greatly encouraged by the preliminary response given their efforts and hope to have the full amount in hand by the close of the campaign.

The chairman of the drive is Mrs. John P. Tapscott, while Miss Ida Sarvay, national campaign director of the Y. W. C. A. is here from New York to assist in the work of raising the local fund. Eight teams, each in charge of a captain, are making the solicitations of funds.

Miss Sarvay to Speak

Miss Ida Sarvay, national campaign director of the Young Women's Christian Association, will speak to the members of the Kiwanis Club during the weekly luncheon of that organization tomorrow noon. She will tell of the work of the Y. W. in the community. Edward E. Gray, local attorney and former mayor, will also speak during the luncheon on the "The City Beautiful."

Two Captains Entertained

Mrs. Walter T. Eakin and Mrs. E. Nelson Neulen entertained pointly at a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of the latter. Their guests were the members of their teams for the Young Women's Christian Association campaign. Spring blossoms were effectively placed about the rooms and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Chas. T. Diamond. Those present were Mrs. William A. Tyler, Mrs. John H. Shaner, Mrs. W. R. Swart, Mrs. Richard Carruthers, Mrs. William Sherman, Mrs. John DeWitt Gilbert, Miss Dorris Hoefler, Miss Philena Bartlett, Mrs. E. M. Cherry, Mrs. A. S. Skyles, Mrs. F. H. DeVore, Mrs. J. F. Barton, Mrs. M. H. Smith, Mrs. F. H. Vincil, Mrs. Edgar Gearhart, Mrs. Bahanna and Mrs. J. C. Roman.

JOINT HOSTESSES THIS AFTER- NOON.

Two captains in the campaign for the Young Women's Christian Association to entertain their teams today were Mrs. Walter T. Eakin and Mrs. Nelson Neulen, who were hostesses for a delightful afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Neulen on Kensington avenue. Lovely bowls of spring flowers were placed about the rooms and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Charles T. Diamond. Members of the teams entertained were: Mrs. William A. Tyler, Mrs. John H. Shaner, Mrs. W. R. Swart, Mrs. J. S. Dellinger, Mrs. J. R. McKinney, Mrs. S. L. Gordon, Mrs. Richard Carruthers, Mrs. William Sherman, Mrs. John DeWitt Gilbert, Miss Dorris Hoefler, Miss Philena Bartlett and Mrs. E. M. Cherry, Mrs. A. S. Skyles, Mrs. F. H. De Vore, Mrs. J. F. Barton, Mrs. M. H. Smith, Mrs. F. H. Vincil, Mrs. Edgar Gearhart, Mrs. Bahanna and Mrs. J. C. Roman.

CAMPAIGN OF Y. W. C. A. TO BE DISCUSSED TODAY

Members of Mrs. Neulen and Mrs. Eakin's Teams to Meet

Plans for the work in the Y. W. C. A. campaign will be outlined at a tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Nelson Neulen when the members of her team and the team under the leadership of Mrs. W. T. Eakin will discuss methods of carrying out their work. There will be about 25 members of the association present at the tea.

THREE Y. W. C. A. TEAMS RAISE FUND OF $289

Work Will Be Carried Out in All Districts Today.

Only three of the eight teams at work in the Y. W. C. A. campaign have made a return according to information received from the headquarters last evening, but $289 has already been subscribed.

The rainy weather handicapped the work yesterday morning, and as a result a number of the teams were unable to cover their districts. Mrs. J. P. Tapscott, chairman of the campaign, stated yesterday that she is confident the people of the city will respond to the call for teamwork, as they realize great work done by the association here.

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE TOTAL
IS BOOSTED TO $1,215

Mrs. Alta Saul's Team Takes
tions Gotten Yesterday.

The second day of the Young Women's Christian Association financial appeal which is in progress here this week with the goal set at $7000, resulted in nearly $1000 being turned in at the close of the day by the various teams, bringing the grand total of the subscriptions so far to $1215.75.

$930.75 Total Yesterday
Of the $930.75 turned in by the teams yesterday team No. 1, of which Mrs. W. E. Grace is captain, turned in $232; team No. 2, Mrs. E. Nelson Neulin captain, $83.50; team No. 3, Mrs. Frank Woodfield, captain, $144; team No. 4, Mrs. John Tait, captain, $87.50; team No. 5, Mrs. W. T. Eakin, captain, $80; team No. 6, Mrs. John P. Tapscott, captain, $32; team No. 7, Mrs. Alta Lee Saul, captain, business girls, $271.75; team No. 8, Miss Betsy Wootton, teachers, captain, no report. The total subscriptions on Monday amounted to $285; Tuesday, $930.75; total to date, $1215.75.

Business Girls Praised
Though an exceptionally good showing was made yesterday by all teams, the team headed by Mrs. Saul and composed entirely of girls employed by local business houses received high praise from the directors of the campaign last night for having turned in a total amount of $271.75 for the day's work.

CAMPAIGN FOR Y. W.
SHOWS MUCH INTEREST
Various Captains to Discuss Plan of Procedure Next Week.

Preceding the W. W. C. A. campaign for more members Mrs. W. E. Grace entertained in the lunch room yesterday with a tea for the captains of the teams. Beautiful spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the table. Mrs. Grace was assisted by two members of the Campfire Girls, Betty Higgins and Clover Burlingame.

After a short social time, the women in attendance settled down to the primary object of the tea, the discussion of campaign methods to be followed and instruction to be carried out.

Mrs. Woodfield announced at the meeting that she would entertain her team at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and Mrs. John Tate also stated that she will invite her team to tea Monday at 2.30 to discuss the ways and means of obtaining the best results in the campaign.

It was announced last evening that there are yet many matters to be discussed before soliciting for members.

During the past year the Y. W. C. A. has increased wonderfully, both in its members and in its activities. Much credit must be given to the directors, and executives of the association, for it has only been by hard work that the local branch has been able to expand.

Y. W. CONFERENCE
FILM AT STAR

Seabeck, Wash., Meeting Is Shown; Local Secretary in Picture.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. and their friends will be interested in the picture which appeared at the Star theater yesterday showing the association conference which was held at Seabeck, Washington, last year. The picture will be exhibited for the last time this afternoon and evening.

The film gives Astorians interested in Y. W. C. A. work an opportunity to judge of the class of work carried out at these conferences as this city will send delegates this summer. Miss Georgiana Garner, recreational secretary of the association, is seen in the conference film at the Star.

PLANS FOR Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN
First among the events preceding the Y. W. C. A. campaign for more members which will feature the week May 2 to 9, was the luncheon given Wednesday at the Y. W. lunch room for the members of the publicity committee. Various arrangements for the procedure of the campaign were discussed and decided upon. Miss Sara R. Carter of New York, who is in charge of the technical part of the campaign, was present at the luncheon. Other affairs given this week were teas, for which different campaign captains were hostesses. Mrs. W. E. Grace entertaining Friday at the Young Women's Christian association. Fragrant spring flowers centered the tea table and assisting in serving were Miss Betty Higgins and Miss Clover Burlingame. Mrs. Frank Woodfield entertained her team this afternoon and Mrs. John Tate will be hostess Monday afternoon.

Y. W. C. A. Sets
Plans To Open
$10,000 Drive

"Second Hand" Store Will Be Conducted to Help Reduce Amount of Subscriptions of Individuals.

Tentative plans are now being made by the local Y. W. C. A. for a drive to secure $10,000, the amount needed to help carry on the work of this noble organization in Astoria during the coming year.

To lessen the amount of subscriptions expected from individuals the finance committee of the association under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. P. Tapscott will open a second hand store to be conducted along the same lines that the superfluity shop was operated.

Mr. Tait, manager of the Troy laundry, has donated a building on Tenth street in the rear of the laundry. This is to be used for the sale of articles of clothing and other articles the public will be asked to contribute. The store will be opened this morning to receive donations.

Persons having discarded clothing or other articles and wishing to give them to the Y. W. C. A. are asked to send them to the store or phone the Y office and someone will be sent for them.

The campaign committee is composed of Mrs. Oscar Wirkkala, Miss Eva Holmes, Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Mrs. E. Neulsen, Mrs. J. E. Barton and Mrs. Arthur Anderson.

to 9.

At a luncheon held at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday at noon a campaign was launched to raise a fund of $7000 to be used for the support of the association in Astoria. The publicity committee announced that the campaign will be extended from May 2 to 9.

Miss Sara B. Carter, executive secretary of the national board of the Y. W. C. A. was present at the meeting, outlining the plans for the big campaign of which every dollar contributed will be spent in Astoria. The campaign will be under the direction of Miss Ida Winston Sarvey, director, and Miss Carter.

Miss Carter explained that the association was primarily organized as a war time emergency, but through active work for the girls of the city was filled a place in the business and social life of the city. She gave an outline of the many activities centered around the association.

There will be 100 workers in all in the campaign which will be carried out during the first week in May. With 10 captains to be appointed. The details will be presented at a big dinner to be held on Saturday evening, April 30 at the association building.

The campaign selected is "For Our Girls and For Our City" with Mrs. J. P. Tapscott as chairman. Mrs. Virgil Earl has been selected as captain of captains with Miss Empo as auditor. Week.

Preceding the W. W. C. A. campaign for more members Mrs. W. E. Grace entertained in the lunch room yesterday with a tea for the captains of the teams. Beautiful spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the table. Mrs. Grace was assisted by two members of the Campfire Girls, Betty Higgins and Clover Burlingame.

After a short social time, the women in attendance settled down to the primary object of the tea, the discussion of campaign methods to be followed and instruction to be carried out.

Mrs. Woodfield announced at the meeting that she would entertain her team at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and Mrs. John Tate also stated that she will invite her team to tea Monday at 2.30 to discuss the ways and means of obtaining the best results in the campaign.

It was announced last evening that there are yet many matters to be discussed before soliciting for members.

During the past year the Y. W. C. A. has increased wonderfully, both in its members and in its activities. Much credit must be given to the directors, and executives of the association, for it has only been by hard work that the local branch has been able to expand.

Y. W. CONFERENCE
FILM AT STAR

Seabeck, Wash., Meeting Is
Picture.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. and their friends will be interested in the picture which appeared at the Star theater yesterday showing the association conference which was held at Seabeck, Washington, last year. The picture will be exhibited for the last time this afternoon and evening.

The film gives Astorians interested in Y. W. C. A. work an opportunity to judge of the class of work carried out at these conferences as this city will send delegates this summer. Miss Georgiana Garner, recreational secretary of the association, is seen in the conference film at the Star.

PLANS FOR Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN
First among the events preceding the Y. W. C. A. campaign for more members which will feature the week May 2 to 9, was the luncheon given Wednesday at the Y. W. lunch room for the members of the publicity committee. Various arrangements for the procedure of the campaign were discussed and decided upon. Miss Sara R. Carter of New York, who is in charge of the technical part of the campaign, was present at the luncheon. Other affairs given this week were teas, for which different campaign captains were hostesses. Mrs. W. E. Grace entertained Friday at the Young Women's Christian association. Fragrant spring flowers centered the tea table and assisting in serving were Miss Betty Higgins and Miss Clover Burlingame. Mrs. Frank Woodfield entertained her team this afternoon and Mrs. John Tate will be hostess Monday afternoon.

Y. W. C. A. Sets
Plans To Open
$10,000 Drive

"Second Hand" Store Will Be Conducted to Help Reduce Amount of Subscriptions of Individuals.

Tentative plans are now being made by the local Y. W. C. A. for a drive to secure $10,000, the amount needed to help carry on the work of this noble organization in Astoria during the coming year.

To lessen the amount of subscriptions expected from individuals the finance committee of the association under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. P. Tapscott will open a second hand store it be conducted along the same lines that the superfluity shop was operated.

Mr. Tait, manager of the Troy laundry, has donated a building on Tenth street in the rear of the laundry. This is to be used for the sale of articles of clothing and other articles the public will be asked to contribute. The store will be opened this morning to receive donations.

Persons having discarded clothing or other articles and wishing to give them to the Y. W. C. A. are asked to send them to the store or phone the Y office and someone will be sent for them.

The campaign committee is composed of Mrs. Oscar Wirkkala, Miss Eva Holmes, Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Mrs. E. L. Neulsen, Mrs. J. F. Barton and Mrs. Arthur Anderson.

Business Girl
Realizes Need
Of Association

Young Women of City Emphatically Contribute Generously to Y. W.

That the young ladies who directly receive benefits from association work recognize that support should be given the Y. W. C. A. was evidenced yesterday when the business girls of Astoria contributed $271.75 toward the support of the campaign. This amount was collected by Mrs. Saul's team, and exceeded that of any other group in the city during the solicitation yesterday.

Good weather brought out smiles as well as money as the collections of yesterday amounted to more than three times the amount of the day before. The team captains are confident that the quota of $7000 will be raised before the week is over.

The Collections
The collections by the various teams are as follows:

- Team 1. Mrs. W. S. Grace, $232.
- Team 2. Mrs. E. Nelson Neulin, $128.
- Team 3. Mrs. Frank Woodfield, $94.
- Team 4. Mrs. John Tait, $87.50.
- Team 5. Mrs. J. A. Eakin, $80.
- Team 6. Mrs. J. P. Tapscott, $32.
- Team 7. Mrs. Alta Saul $271.75.
- Team 8. Miss Betsy Wootton, no report.

Total, $925.25.
Monday, $285.
Total $1210.25.

Y. W. C. A. SONG SHOWS
INTEREST IN DRIVE

Women Who Are Close to Work Realize Association Activity.

That the women of the Y. W. C. A. realize the amount of good to be accomplished through association work is evidenced by the number taking an active part in the campaign this week. The purpose was also set forth in the association song which was composed for the occasion and given as the big luncheon of the association on Saturday. It follows.

Tune—"Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Every girl in old Astoria needs a place in which to grow
So her soul and mind and body each may have an equal show
So it's up to our "Y. W." just to give the girl that chance
And we're working for the money to be able to advance.

Chorus
Glory, Glory Hallelujah, Glory, Glory
Hallelujah
Glory, Glory Hallelujah, our "Y. W." is marching on.

We mean to be successful in the "Y" finance campaign
We will never be discouraged, but just try and try again.
There is money here a-plenty for the work we want to do
So we must tell Astorians what they really ought to do.

We're out for seven thousand, and we're sure to win our goal.
Our teams who're working for it just believe it heart and soul,
And we will tell the townsmen what the Astoria "Y" can do—
But we must get the money that will make our dream come true.

ENTERTAINED TEAMS.

A charming hostess of Wednesday evening was Mrs. Alta Saul, who entertained the members of her team in the forthcoming Y. W. C. A. campaign in the rooms of that organization on Exchange street. Following are the members of Mrs. Saul's team: Mrs. William Corrigan, Miss Ellen Toikka, Miss Ingrid Lugnet, Miss Ouida Van de Carr, Miss Shapt, Miss Selma Palo, Miss Myrtle Koe, Miss Georgia Bawey and Miss Ellen Carlson. Another hostess of this week was Mrs. J. R. Rankin, who entertained yesterday afternoon for the ladies of the Hammond Lumber Company, who are taking part in the campaign under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. Tapscott. Those present were: Mrs. H. W. Kissling, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. T. V. Morgan, Mrs. A. K. Atwood and Miss Mabel Nicholson.

Y. W. C. A. LUNCHEON.

Probably one of the largest affairs of the week was the delightful luncheon given this noon at the Young Women's Christian Association building to formally launch the campaign of that organization to take place next week, May 2 to 9. Large bowls of exquisite spring flowers and attractive posters were placed about the room and centered the table, where covers were placed for all members of the board, the trustees, the captains and their teams in the coming campaign and a number of invited guests. Speakers for the occasion were Mrs. William S. Kinney, Senator A. W. Norblad and the Rev. Frederick C. Taylor. Y. W. C. A. songs were led by Miss Eva Van Berg, with Mrs. Frank Woodfield at the piano. The committee in charge of the luncheon was composed of Mrs. Charles T. Diamond and Mrs. G. W. Wingate, assisted by Miss Florence Sherman, Miss Claire Hamack, Miss Avis Buchanan, Miss Sally Parks, Miss Mildred Crout and Miss Eva Von Berg.

TREBLE CLEF CONCERT.

Elaborate arrangements are being made by Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed concerning the concert to be given the latter part of May under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association. On this occasion three young singers, new to Astoria, will make their debuts, Miss Thelma Borkman, contralto; Miss Helga Benson of Cathlamet, soprano; and Mrs. Floyd C. Foster. Other singers prominent in Astoria musical circles to take part are Mrs. John H. Shaner, Mrs. W. R. Swart and Mrs. Sigurd Knudsen. The Treble Clef Club will give three groups of songs and this will be their first appearance in Astoria this season.

$5500 Secured By Workers In Y.W. Campaign

Despite the fact that the fishermen's strike was on and similar drives were carried on during the week, the Y. W. C. A. campaign for funds was concluded last evening with subscriptions amounting to $5500.

The campaign yesterday brought $697 and of this amount Mrs. Tapscott's team secured $105.50, which was the high mark for the day. Mrs. W. E. Grace's team carried off the honors for the campaign securing subscriptions amounting to $739. Mrs. Saul's team was second with $690. This team made an excellent record, securing this amount from the business girls of the city.

Subscriptions by Teams

The subscriptions received yesterday for the various teams are as follows: Mrs. Grace, $90; Mrs. E. Nelson Neulen, $103.50; Mrs. Frank Woodfield, $73.50; Mrs. John Tait, $100; Mrs. W. T. Eakin, $37.50; Mrs. J. P. Tapscott, $105.50; Mrs. Alta Lee Saul, $100; Mrs. Wooton, $87.50.

Miss E. Grace Williams stated last evening that considering everything, she was very much pleased with the conduct of the campaign and remarked that great credit was due to the women who assisted in the solicitation. E. J. Carr, manufacturing jeweler, has presented an Oregon agate laveliere to Mrs. Grace's team.

CLUB MEETS

The Business Girl's Club of the Y. W. C. A. met at the home of Mrs. G. B. West, 468 Commercial street last night. Mrs. West was favored with a miscellaneous shower from her friends. The following were present: Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Saul, Miss Wuori, Miss Milanen, Miss Empo, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Ingrid Lugnet, Miss Agnes Miller and Miss Grace Williams.

Classes Prosper.

The Spanish and Bible classes of the Y. W. C. A. were both well attended last Monday evening. Since six persons have enrolled for the English and sewing classes, active work in each will begin this coming Thursday, November 3, at 7:15 and 8:15 respectively. The millinery class will start Wednesday evenings and the civics class on Tuesday evenings as soon as six more sign up.

Attorney Gray Says Too Much Boosting Hurts

Astoria Should Take an Inventory; No Monument to Mark "The End of the Trail."

"It is possible that there has been too much 'boosting' Astoria without the proper realization of the things we lack," said Attorney E. E. Gray in an interesting address before the members of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday at noon.

"It's a crime for the people of Astoria living here at THE END OF THE TRAIL of the greatest and most adventurous journey ever made by man not to have one monument or one stone to mark the spot where Lewis and Clark rested at the completion of a journey which for daring and courage was never equalled."

Scores Sad Neglect.

Attorney Gray hewed close to the line in his talk, throwing the light on the things that Astoria had failed in, and asked that the Kiwanis club remember to work for a City Beautiful and to perpetuate the deeds of the men who made Oregon great. He asserted that there was not one picture, painting or photograph of John Jacob Astor in this city, and remarked that it was a disgrace that nothing had been done to commemorate the memory of the founder of the city, who with Cecil Rhodes made up the two greatest Empire Builders in history.

The speaker called attention to the fact that Sacajawea for daring and purpose played a far more important role than did Pocahontas, but her name was seldom mentioned in the schools of the northwest. He said that no stone or monument marks the place where the Indian girl made her home after she had piloted the adventurous party down the Columbia in 1805.

Call It Swallalochast.

Turning to thoughts of the present day the speaker frowned on the designation of Saddle Mountain by that name. The Indians had called this scenic spot Swallalochast, and the speaker made a plea for the general use of this name in connection with the mountain.

"We are prone to 'boost' possibly a little too much," said the local attorney. "We ought to look things in the face. Here we have old shacks for public buildings, barbarian architecture, a livery stable for an opera house and two fire traps for the moving picture shows. One of these moving picture houses will fall down any day but I hope not when the people are in the building. We have a postoffice building that reminds one of a jail and other monstrosities of architecture scattered around the city."

"We all want to increase our population and our wealth, but money will not always purchase a beautiful city. We must have it in our hearts. Only in that way can we build a community of beauty, refinement and culture."

Miss Ida Winston Sarvay of Richmond, Va., who is here in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. campaign, told of the work that is being done for the women of the city. Girls who are without homes may find here a place to meet socially and to enjoy the many things in store for the girl who is far from her parents.

Support Great Work.

Following Miss Sarvay's talk the following resolution was passed unanimously by the members of the club: RESOLVED, by the Kiwanis Club of Astoria, Oregon, assembled this 28th day of April, 1921,

That we are in full and hearty accord with the principles of the Young Women's Christian Association and the great work it is doing in the land and pledge our moral support to the local organization in all of its undertakings.

That we feel the justice and necessity of the campaign for funds to carry on the great work of the Y. W. C. A., and individually pledge to it our most earnest assistance and support.

J. Fred Larson, managing director of the Astoria Overseas Corporation, told of the cooperative work in connection with the plan to secure the Great Northern and Northern Pacific from the U. S. Shipping Board. The Kiwanis club unanimously endorsed the petition asking the S. P. & S. to secure the two steamers. The petition was also signed by all members of the club. A. T. Brown captured the attendance prize presented by Charles W. Robison.

100 Workers To Meet For Y. W. Session

Plans for Big Campaign Which Begins Monday Will Be Outlined at Lunch Saturday.

With more than 90 members of the Y. W. C. A. already listed for the big campaign which will be launched on Monday to raise $7,000 for association work, plans are practically completed for the work of covering the city.

On Saturday at noon 100 volunteer workers will gather for lunch at the association building at which time the details for the work will be outlined. At the Kiwanis luncheon yesterday Miss Ida Winston Sarvay gave an enlightening talk on the work of the Y. W. C. A., pointing out the good that such an organization can accomplish in the community.

The campaign will be the second since the organization in this city in 1919 at which time $7,000 was raised to carry on the work. The committee is confident that the association has demonstrated its place in the community and is confident that the people of Astoria will answer the appeal. The officers and workers for the campaign are as follows:

Board of directors of the Y. W. C. A.: Mrs. William S. Kinney, president; Mrs. Virgil Earl, vice-president; Dr. Rhoda Hicks, treasurer; Miss Ingrid Lugnet, secretary; Mrs. William F. Y.W.C.A. Notes

June 1921

Saturday, May 21, was the birthday of Miss Grace Dodge, the great friend of the Y. W. C. A. We have asked the different churches of the city to speak of Miss Dodge and her wonderful work.

Grace Dodge was instrumental in starting Teachers' College in connection with Columbia University, New York. She planned and built the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. at 600 Lexington avenue, New York.

Fortune to Young Women

Miss Dodge not only gave her fortune for the benefit of young women, but she worked daily as though she were an employed secretary, saying her wages had been paid to her in advance.

The time will come when the world will place Grace Dodge along with the immortals, Frances E. Willard, Harriet Beecher Stowe and Susan B. Anthony. While she lived, New York City rarely started a great public enterprise without asking Miss Dodge to give her judgment of the work.

Astoria Devoted to Ideals

The Astoria Y. W. C. A. wishes to carry on the ideals of Grace Dodge, so that more girls may be led to give their time, money and thought to world improvement service.

Girls Selling Tickets

The girls' clubs are busy selling tickets for the Rose Courson Reed benefit concert to be given in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. Friday evening, May 27, at the Astoria theater. If you buy a ticket the entire 50 cents will go to the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Reed gives the gross receipts to our work. This will help to raise the balance of the $1,500 needed in our budget, asked for May 2-9.

Warning to Music-Lovers

Astorian music-lovers will have to go early to get a seat, as the concert seems to be very popular. Astoria's leading women are to be the soloists and chorus leaders.

The "Blue Bird" club, with Miss Greta Dickey as adviser; the "Falloochee" club, with Miss Genevieve Howell as adviser; the "Wilova" club, under the direction of Miss Georgiana Garner, were out on enjoyable hikes this last week.

The "Lihawola" and Camp Fire Girls held two candy sales last week, both to get money for the Y. W. C. A. budget and to send girls to the Silt Coos Lake girls' conference in July. The Griggs club girls are busy dressing a doll for the little girl at the county hospital.

Observe Mothers' Day

About 35 mothers and daughters met at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon, May 8, to enjoy the Mothers' Day program planned and given by the girls' clubs under direction of Miss Garner, secretary.

The Hiasclostilikum club had an interesting time at their "backward party" held in the basement at the Y. W. C. A. Monday evening. The Misses Sullivan, advisers, and Miss Garner, secretary, attended.

Gymnasium Revenue Producer

Miss Garner reports that in the last six months receipts from her one-day gymnasium and swimming classes at the Y. M. C. A. have netted both the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. $25 a month. This fact shows that the Y. W. C. A. recreation program is a decided success financially. We only hope Miss Garner's successor may sustain as keen an interest in this department.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria department announces ample room and equipment to take care of the Ad Club luncheon. They will dine at the "Y"

FOR MRS. WEST

Complimenting Mrs. George West (Miss Mildred Butler) a recent bride, the members of the new Business and Professional Womens club entertained Thursday evening with a miscellaneous shower at the West home on Commercial street. Those for the first time Friday, May 27.

Y. M. C. A. Directors Report

The May meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors was held last Tuesday. Fifteen of the 19 members attended. The finance committee reported $5,500 as the total received from our campaign. Astorians consider this fair, considering so many workingmen were on strike and the Salvation Army also was soliciting funds.

A special committee will plan ways and means of raising the necessary balance of $1,500 to carry on the year's work. The committee: Mesdames W. E. Grace, O. Wirkkala, J. P. Tapscott, Lulu Saul, Mathison, and Misses Ingrid Lugnet and Ida Empo.

Council Meets Tuesday

The regular meeting of the young women's council of the Y. W. C. A., under the leadership of Miss Blanche Slade and Miss Ingrid Lugnet will be held Tuesday evening, May 24, at the "Y" to plan sending delegates to the Seabeck community conference Aug. 17-27.

Miss Williams, general secretary, entertained the members of her Sunday school class with their guests, and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Turner, leaders in the West End Methodist Sunday school, at a 6 o'clock dinner in the basement of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday, May 11. The girls organized and decided to call themselves "Loyal Daughters."

New Girls' Secretary.

Miss Edith Wilson of Lewis and Clark has been secured to take charge of the girls work and recreation departments of the Y. W. C. A. This position was formerly held by Mrs. Georgiana Garner Boyd. Miss Wilson is ready and anxious to further every phase of the work. As soon as the Y. M. C. A. is opened, regular gym and swimming classes will be started. Now every effort will be made to push the girls' work department and any clubs formerly organized can be re-organized soon.

Note of thanks from Rotary Club - for meals served.

"Y. W." CLUB WORK URGED ON STUDENTS

By Minnie Erickson.

Miss Wilson of the Y. W. C. A. spoke to the girls of the Astoria High school on Monday morning. She urged all girls, who belong or have belonged to any clubs, to be present at a meeting at the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday afternoon. She asked each girl who comes to bring with her two other girls who might be interested in club work. Miss Wilson also announced that any girls who wished to organize a new club, might do so by getting together at least six girls and she would help them elect a leader.

As soon as the Y. W. C. A. is re-opened, Miss Wilson will conduct gymnasium and swimming classes. She offered to give free swimming lessons to any girl who would assist her in giving the gymnasium work.

Of unusual interest this week is the meeting Friday evening at half past seven at the Y. W. C. A. of the members are urged to be present. Mrs. William S. Kinney, president will preside and election of the board of directors will be held after which brief reports will be given by the following: Mrs. E. M. Cherry, Mrs. F. C. Green, Dr. Rhoda Hicks, the treasurer; Mrs. McCallum on the cafeteria; Mrs. T. Neste, Mrs. Edgar Gearhart, Mrs. J. P. Tapscott, Mrs. George Walters, Mrs. Virgil Earl and Miss Blanch Slade, head of the young women's counsel. Reports will also be read by Miss Williams and Miss Georgiana Garner, secretaries of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Lois Diehl, who is in charge of the town associations in the Northwest will also speak on the work being accomplished. After the program, light refreshments will be served. This is the first annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association to be held here and for that reason promises being of decided interest to the many that are expected to be present. From the short reports to be given a resume of the entire work that has been accomplished the past year will be given.

MRS. REED TO GIVE CONCERT.

Astoria music lovers are looking forward with great pleasure to the musical evening to be given the latter part of May when Mrs. Rose Courson Reed will present the Treble Clef club and her advanced students in concert. Mrs. Reed's concerts are always eventful affairs and eagerly anticipated by the public. An unusual selection of delightful numbers have been chosen for this spring's appearance of the Treble Clef club and soloists from among Astoria's favorite singers have been selected to participate. The concert this year will be given for the benefit of the local Young Women's Christian association.

Mrs. Kinney Named

Mrs. William S. Kinney, president of the Young Women's Christian Association here and representative in the state legislature from Clatsop county, will be the official representative of the local association at the seventh bi-ennial convention of the Y. W. C. A. to be held April 20-27 in Hot Springs, Arkansas. According to Miss E. Grace Williams, general secretary of the local association, great interest is being taken in the forthcoming convention by local members because of the international trend of the program. Leading speakers from all foreign countries and all parts of the United States will attend.

ASTORIA ROTARY CLUB

ASTORIA, OREGON

May 25, 1921

To The Ladies of the Y W C A :-

At the noonday luncheon of the Astoria Rotary Club today, a motion was made and carried by unanimous vote that the club express its appreciation and thanks to the Y W C A for the splendid meals which it has been serving the club and for the very excellent service, courtesy and consideration manifested by the management and by the corps of volunteer assistants.

The club is more and more satisfied with its meeting place and visiting members have frequently commented upon the fine meals and the seclusion which the Y W basement affords.

We hope to be with you a long time and trust that the Y W will derive some profit from the service it is giving us.

Very sincerely,

ASTORIA ROTARY CLUB,

M. R. Chessman
Secretary

FOREST PROTECTION IS ROTARY MEETING THEME

Prevention of Fire and Preservation of Timber Emphasized at Luncheon.

The Astoria Rotary Club took formal recognition of Forest Protection Week at its noonday luncheon today, the principal feature of its program being the reading of a series of short paragraphs and slogans emphasizing the need and measures necessary for the protection of our standing timber.

It was pointed out by various members that not only do we receive our supply of timber and fuel wood from our forests but upon their preservation depends our water supply, our fish and game and our vacation grounds. The greatest losses of timber are caused by fires started by lightning and human agencies. The lightning is beyond our control but the observance of simple rules of caution and care will prevent more than half of the fires, it was pointed out, and, as one member said, "there is more honor in preventing a fire than in putting one out."

At the meeting today one new member, Ellis J. M'Cianaban, local manager for the Standard Oil Co., was received into the club.

A vote of appreciation and thanks to the Y. W. C. A. for the excellent meals and service was recorded unanimously.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Girl Reserves are busy making their honor books. Some time during the month of May a Mother-Daughter banquet will be given at the Y. W. C. A. at which time these girls will report on their honors won and a prize will be given to the club winning the largest number.

Because of the great number of sick in Astoria at the present time, the secretaries at the Y. W. C. A. are busy looking after employment. So many need help and but few experienced girls are listed. The Y. W. C. A. could be of greater service to the community if all girls wishing work would list their names soon.

The club room of the Y. W. C. A. has been calmed and the room was quite a different appearance. There are about 250 girls who meet here each month for their club meetings besides the Rotary. Kiwanis and Ad clubs, who are served in this room regularly each week.

At 6 o'clock last evening the business girls met in the club room of the Y. W. C. A. for a hot supper, a sport business meeting and an open forum. The topics were:

- 1.—Why join the Business Girls' Club? Led by Gladys Irvine (president committee).
 - 2.—The Purpose of the Club. Miss Ruth Johnson, (vice president).
 - 3.—Does Astoria Need Such an organization? Why? Muriel Cluss.
- The girls have expressed a desire to do things now since the movie at the Astoria theater last week was such a success.

KIWANIS HELP SOUGHT IN CITY'S BOY SURVEY

Rotarian at Weekly Luncheon Held This Noon.

As a guest of the Kiwanis Club during its weekly luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. today noon, D. F. H. Vinell, representing the Rotary Club, broached the matter of a survey of Astoria's boys which that organization has decided to undertake, asking for the cooperation of the Kiwanians, which was promptly forthcoming. A survey of girls of the city will be made at the same time, it was announced.

Short talks were made during the luncheon today on topics of general interest by O. C. Narvestad, Fred Bates, Carl A. Nyquist, Dr. Geo. Berger, J. A. Buchanan and Edward E. Gray. Miss Williams, secretary of the Astoria Young Women's Christian Association, made an interesting talk in which she told of the work of that organization in this community. James Nash favored the luncheon guests with several much-appreciated violin solos.

The attendance prize, a six-months subscription to the Evening Budget, offered by Lee Drake, was won by Joe Gribler, local music dealer.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

The next meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club has been postponed one week because of the county fair. So the meeting will be held at the basement of the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening, September 27.

Miss Grace Williams announces that the field immigration secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Olive Johnson, will visit Astoria sometime soon to study the foreign situation here, so that the national office will have expert knowledge on the numbers, nationalities and agencies working for the foreign-born.

At the last meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A., the following ladies were chosen as members of the board to fill the vacancies made by the death of Mrs. S. Elmore and the resignation of Mrs. Charles Rinell and Mrs. Edgar Gearhart. They were Mrs. R. H. Hoefler, Mrs. G. Wingate, Ms. C. A. Murphe.

The Y. W. C. A. will have a corner booth at the county fair where they will serve light lunches and they have planned to care for a public rest room and a free parcel check room.

The regular vesper services will start Sunday, October 2, at 4.

The educational classes will all start the first week in October. Mrs. A. C. Strange will teach sewing, Miss Lillian Littler, business English; Rev. F. C. Taylor of the Episcopal church will conduct a class in Bible study.

NEWS OF THE Y. W. C. A.

June 1921

A business girls' rally was held at Y. W. C. A. last evening. About 30 were present. The girls discussed ways and means for attending the community conference to be held at Seabeck, Wash., August 17 to 27. Forty one dollars will cover the entire expenses of this vacation trip and the Astoria "Y" is anxious to send more than the three who are now planning to attend.

About 530 people were served meals at the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria this week. The two cooks, Mrs. C. E. Lonzway and Mrs. E. Kuiper seem full of the Y. W. C. A. spirit.

Several of the girls who live at the "Y", including the house mother, Mrs. Sutherland, spent the week-end out of the city.

Miss Bewley, clerk at the Bee Hive who makes her home at the "Y" is spending her two weeks vacation at Seaside.

Miss Grace Williams spent two days at the beautiful home of Mrs. W. S. Kinney on the Lewis and Clark road.

Mr. Bellows has made two new tables for the club room downstairs. This gives more table room to serve the men's clubs.

The "Y" took care of seven transient guests Saturday. Many of the regular girls were away on vacations.

The Galloha club went for a hike and picnic one day this last week. Catherine Pinneo accompanied them. Tailoychee club purchased two new rockers for the girls' club room on the third floor. The Griggs club hiked to Coxcomb Hill Friday.

The Y. W. C. A. realized more than $300. from the Treble Clef concert given last Friday at the Astoria theatre. The association is thanking Mrs. E. M. Cherry for her untiring efforts in attend to the publicity and to the sale of the seats. Mrs. Reed is also receiving special thanks for making the concert possible.

Miss Georgiana Garner's work as secretary of the girls' work and recreation departments of the Y. W. C. A. came to an end last night. Miss Garner has served long and faithfully.

Saturday, May 21, was the birthday of Miss Grace Dodge, the great friend of the Y. W. C. A. We have asked the different churches of the city to speak of Miss Dodge and her wonderful work.

Grace Dodge was instrumental in starting Teachers' College in connection with Columbia University, New York. She planned and built the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. at 600 Lexington avenue, New York.

Fortune to Young Women

Miss Dodge not only gave her fortune for the benefit of young women, but she worked daily as though she were an employed secretary, saying her wages had been paid to her in advance.

The time will come when the world will place Grace Dodge along with the immortals. Frances E. Willard, Harriet Beecher Stowe and Susan B. Anthony. While she lived, New York City rarely started a great public enterprise without asking Miss Dodge to give her judgment of the work.

Astoria Devoted to Ideals

The Astoria Y. W. C. A. wishes to carry on the ideals of Grace Dodge, so that more girls may be led to give their time, money and thought to world improvement service.

Girls Selling Tickets

The girls' clubs are busy selling tickets for the Rose Courson Reed benefit concert to be given in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. Friday evening, May 27, at the Astoria theater. If you buy a ticket the entire 50 cents will go to the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Reed gives the gross receipts to our work. This will help to raise the balance of the $1,500 needed in our budget, asked for May 2-9.

Warning to Music-Lovers

Astorian music-lovers will have to go early to get a seat, as the concert seems to be very popular. Astoria's leading women are to be the soloists and chorus leaders.

The "Blue Bird" club, with Miss Greta Dickey as adviser; the "Tailoychee" club, with Miss Genevieve Howell as adviser; the "Wilova" club, under the direction of Miss Georgiana Garner, were out on enjoyable hikes this last week.

The "Lihawola" and Camp Fire Girls held two candy sales last week, both to get money for the Y. W. C. A. budget and to send girls to the Silt Coos Lake girls' conference in July. The Griggs club girls are busy dressing a doll for the little girl at the county hospital.

Observe Mothers' Day

About 35 mothers and daughters met at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon, May 8, to enjoy the Mothers' Day program planned and given by the girls' clubs under direction of Miss Garner, secretary.

The Hiasclostillikum club had an interesting time at their "backward party" held in the basement at the Y. W. C. A. Monday evening. The Misses Sullivan, advisers, and Miss Garner, secretary, attended.

Gymnasium Revenue Producer

Miss Garner reports that in the last six months receipts from her one-day gymnasium and swimming classes at the Y. M. C. A. have netted both the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. $25 a month. This fact shows that the Y. W. C. A. recreation program is a decided success financially. We only hope Miss Garner's successor may sustain as keen an interest in this department.

The Y. W. C. A. cafeteria department announces ample room and equipment to take care of the Ad Club luncheon. They will dine at the "Y"

W. C. A. for the first time Friday, May 27. The May meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors was held last Tuesday. Fifteen of the 19 members attended. The finance committee reported $5,500 as the total received from our campaign. Astorians consider this fair, considering so many workmen were on strike and the Salvation Army also was soliciting funds.

Y. M. C. A. Directors Report

The May meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors was held last Tuesday. Fifteen of the 19 members attended. The finance committee reported $5,500 as the total received from our campaign. Astorians consider this fair, considering so many workmen were on strike and the Salvation Army also was soliciting funds.

A special committee will plan ways and means of raising the necessary balance of $1,500 to carry on the year's work. The committee: Mesdames W. E. Grace, O. Wirkkala, J. P. Tapscott, Lulu Saul, Mathison, and Misses Ingrid Lugnet and Ida Empo.

Council Meets Tuesday

The regular meeting of the young women's council of the Y. W. C. A., under the leadership of Miss Blanche Slade and Miss Ingrid Lugnet will be held Tuesday evening, May 24, at the "Y" to plan sending delegates to the Seabeck community conference Aug. 17-27.

Miss Williams, general secretary, entertained the members of her Sunday school class with their guests, and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Turner, leaders in the West End Methodist Sunday school, at a 6 o'clock dinner in the basement of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday, May 11. The girls organized and decided to call themselves "Loyal Daughters."

NEWS ITEMS OF Y. W. C. A.

Miss Williams, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has gone for a short vacation to Comrey, Alberta, Canada, accompanied by her cousin Miss Bertha Houser, who visited us for a few days. Miss Houser, a missionary, has just returned from the Philippines and spoke on that subject to the Baptist Sunday school.

The swimming classes of the Y. W. C. A. will continue to meet on Wednesday at 4 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock.

The playgrounds will open Friday, July 1, under the direction of Miss Slade. Those supervising the playgrounds will be Miss Genevieve Howell, Miss Beatrice Fish, and Miss Gertrude Larson.

All boys and girls interested in the McClure playground are asked to bring their shovels and rakes and report to Miss Slade at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Y. W. C. A. GYM SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED; CLASSES WILL MEET WEDNESDAYS

Dec 1921

Miss Edythe Wilson, recreation secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has announced the gymnasium schedule for the classes. These will be held on Wednesdays in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The classes and the hours at which they will meet are: ladies, 9:30 a. m., gym; 10 a. m. swimming; Juniors (under 12 and not younger than 10) 3 p. m. gym; 3:30 p. m. swimming. Intermediates (12 to 15 years) 4 p. m. gym; 4:30 p. m. swimming; Seniors, (15 years and older) 4 p. m. swimming; Business girls, 7:30 p. m. swimming.

The annual membership fees are $5 for swimming only or gym only and $8 for swimming and gym in all classes save the junior, where a $5 fee covers both branches. The classes will start Wednesday, Nov. 30, if fifteen are enrolled in each class.

Kiwanians Ask For Survey Of Girls In City

Will Assist Rotarians In Boys' Census But Would Go One Step Further—Miss Williams Speaks On Y. W. Work.

That there is just as urgent a need for a survey of the girls of Astoria as there is for the boys, was brought out at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club yesterday at the Y. W. C. A., when that organization unanimously voted to support the Rotary club in its program of making a thorough survey of conditions pertaining to all boys, ages 6 to 18.

Dr. F. H. Vincell, chairman of the committee for the Rotary club, was present to explain the plan of obtaining information regarding conditions in this city. An effort will be made to find just what each boy in every household does; what school he is attending, and where he goes for his recreation. Many other questions will be asked. The club voted to assist the Rotarians in every way after Dr. Berger, E. E. Gray and O. C. Narvestad had suggested that the survey include the girls. President Smith named the following committee to take up the matter with the Rotary club: A. C. Strange, E. E. Gray and Dr. George Berger.

Mrs. E. Grace Williams, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., gave an interesting talk on the conference held recently at Seabeck, Wash. She pointed out that every opportunity was given for advertising Astoria, and that next year a large number of delegates would carry the good word of the city throughout the northwest.

Captain J. A. Buchanan, Carl Nyquist and Fred S. Bates talked on the conference held in Portland this week, which was attended by the district governor.

L. D. Drake asked that the Kiwanis club assist in every way to make the County Fair a success.

Professor Nash, violinist of the Way Down East company, who has appeared in many leading productions all over America, played two selections, which were much appreciated. Mr. Nash has decided to make his home in Astoria.

The attendance prize donated by L. D. Drake was won by Joseph Gribler.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORK OF Y. W. EXPANDING

Finding Good Jobs; Busy On Plans for Benefiting All Women and Girls.

Social service, and lots of it, in the spirit of Christian fellowship, made November the banner month of the year for the Young Women's Christian association, as shown in reports at the meeting of the board of directors Tuesday evening. Present, 14 members; absent, 6. Presiding, Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president. Miss Ingrid, secretary, took the minutes.

Written reports were given by the three employed secretaries: Miss Williams, general; Mrs. Sutherland, house; Miss Wilson, girls' work and recreation, and by Mrs. Ten Brook, chairman of hospitality committee; Mrs. Tapscott, finance; Mrs. Murphey, membership; Mrs. Woodfield, girls' work; cafeteria, Mrs. W. D. McCallum.

Mrs. W. T. Eakin reported orally for the educational work, and Mrs. F. C. Greene for publicity. Dr. Hicks presented the treasurer's report and Mrs. Walters the social service, which includes employment, room registry and traveler's aid.

November was the banner month for the cafeteria. Twenty-one hundred and eight persons were served in the tea room, besides meals served to the three men's clubs and the opening campaign luncheon of the Young Men's Christian association.

The house secretary reported eleven regular roomers and fifteen transients.

Mrs. Ten Brook reported that plans for the Business and Professional Women's club were well laid to entertain the Business Tuesday evening, Dec. 20, at the Y. W. C. A. About 100 girls have been invited and the members of the hospitality committee are to be the hostesses.

The directors agreed this was one of the best meetings of the year. It was business strictly from 7:45 to 9:20 and the service best reported seemed to have been the work among the young girls. There are eight organized clubs and each one is studying parliamentary law this month. Miss Gula Gamble of Seattle, field secretary for girls' work, arrived in Astoria last night for a two days' conference and the local directors expect to make this phase of the work strong, indeed.

Every effort is being made to find suitable jobs for women and girls out of work. Every effort is being made to find suitable jobs for women and girls out of work.

GIRL RESERVE'S PARTY

A delightful affair of last evening was the valentine party held at the Y. W. C. A. for members of the Girls' Reserve corps. The club room was decorated for the occasion with great boughs of pussy willow and quantities of red hearts. Games and stunts were enjoyed during the evening and the postoffice where each girl called for valentines was a delightful feature. Miss E. Grace Williams, girls' work secretary awarded honors to about fifty of the girls. Mrs. Glen E. Shoemaker was in charge of the affair and assisting were Miss Genevieve Howell, Miss Marion Sloop, Miss Philena Bartlett and Miss Edythe Wilson.

To Study Y. W. Work

Miss May Anderson, of Hutchinson, Minn., arrived last evening in Astoria, where she will give several months' volunteer service at the Y. W. C. A. studying association methods, with the idea of later becoming a Y. W. secretary.

Y. W. Directors to Meet

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will be held Tuesday evening in the association building. In the absence of Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president, Mrs. W. T. Eakin, vice-president, will preside.

Vesper Services

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church will have charge of the Vesper services at the Y. W. C. A. tomorrow afternoon under the leadership of Miss Mildred Mesmer. The topic of the evening will be "What Jesus offers to those who follow Him." All young women of the city are invited to the meeting at 4 o'clock. It will be followed by a social hour.

ENTERTAINMENT SUCCESS

The motion picture show and entertainment given last night in the Astoria theatre under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club was highly successful and will greatly aid the club in assisting in the support of Miss Harriet Taylor, Y. W. C. A. expert who is studying conditions among women and girls throughout the world. Northwest clubs, such as the Astoria organization have undertaken Miss Taylor's support for the present year. She is expected here in May. The musical numbers rendered during the program last night by Mrs. J. H. Shaner, Mrs. W. R. Swart and the Misses Lebeck and Bilyeu were well received.

GUESTS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. S. Kinney and Miss E. Grace Williams were luncheon guests Saturday, February 11, at the Portland Y. W. C. A. of the board of directors of the Portland Young Women's Christian Association. Also present at the luncheon and speakers

Y. W. C. A. OPEN HOUSE

The Young Women's Christian Association will hold open house tomorrow night to all members, supporters and friends of the association. A short program will be given in the Y. W. building, with brief annual reports of the institution activities.

Invited to Open House.

The Young Women's Christian Association which is sponsoring an "open house" tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, today noon extended invitations to all members of the Kiwanis Club to attend. The invitation was extended by Miss E. Grace Williams, general executive secretary of the Y. W. A. large number of the members of the club have signified their intention of attention accompanied by their wives and daughters.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Campaign for Budget to Be Held March 6.

Miss Esther Daymen, Pacific coast secretary for girls' work from San Francisco, has just completed a very successful three-day conference with leaders of Astoria Y. W. C. A. Girls' clubs.

The association is the recipient of a handsome punch bowl, the gift of Mr. Hoefler.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors, held on the second Tuesday in January, the finance committee recommended that the campaign to raise funds for the Y. W. C. A. budget for 1922 be held the first week in March. The recommendation was adopted by the board and the plans are being matured for launching a campaign on March 6.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold an open house on Friday evening. Reports for the year will be read. Members and friends of the association are invited.

ANNUAL REPORTS SHOW Y. W. C. A. IS CARRYING ON ITS EFFECTIVE WORK IN ASTORIA WITHOUT EXCEEDING ITS INCOME AND IN SWEEPING WAY

Friday evening at the Young Women's Christian Association the Open House was held with about 125 guests present. The rooms were decorated in red hearts and pussy-willows and bowls of red carnations were placed about the rooms. The decorations were under the direction of Mrs. W. R. Swart and the Girl's Reserve Corps.

The Taylor school orchestra rendered three selections and Mrs. Enoch Mathison sang two numbers.

Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president of the association, presided and Mrs. W. D. McCallum led the devotionals. Miss Ingrid Lugnet read the report of the first annual meeting held at the Y. W. C. A. in January, 1921.

Eight Girls Clubs

Miss Edith Wilson, secretary for girls' work, reported for that department, saying that there were eight clubs organized with a total membership of 88, and that the formation of a high school girls club was in process under the direction of six patronesses and three advisors.

Mrs. Kinney spoke of the way Y. W. C. A. purposes are being worked out in the local organization. The work of the year as a whole was reviewed by Miss Grace Williams, general secretary.

Balance is $1992

Dr. Rhoda Hicks, treasurer, reported that the association was living within its budget and that the total expenditures for the year were $1691.90, while the total receipts were $2091.10, leaving a bank balance on hand of $1992.10 January 1. J. D. Snell, of the Sanborn Cutting Co., had audited the books and found them satisfactory and accurately kept. The budget for the year 1922 was reviewed and campaign dates were set for March 6 to 10.

Mrs. W. D. McCallum, chairman of the cafeteria committee reported that the cafeteria had served 21,932 meals during 1921 in contrast to 4,349 served in 1920. The total cafeteria receipts for 1921 were $12,511.98, while expenditures were $12,381.53. A total of $412.30 was expended for equipment and supplies which includes a refrigerator, dishes and cupboard for the club room, an additional steam table and other equipment.

Mrs. Frank Woodfield, chairman of the girls' work committee, declared it would aid the work if some of the local business organizations would adopt the Girl Reserves, as the Rotary Club does the Boy Scouts and the Kiwanis Club the Campfire Girls.

Members are 350

Mrs. C. A. Mufney, chairman of the membership committee, reported some 350 members in the Senior Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. E. Sutherland, house secretary gave the total room receipts for 1921 as $1115.75, but the expenses for the house were $1451.24. This includes rent, laundry and supplies. The total number of transient roomers was 199; regular roomers, 38.

Mrs. W. T. Eakin, chairman of the educational committee, said that six classes had been offered this year in Spanish, English, French Bible, sewing and millinery as well as the Vesper Services held every second Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. Green, chairman of the publicity committee, expressed the associations gratitude to the city newspapers, the membership and friends of the association who had so kindly helped in making the activities of the Y. W. C. A. known to the people of Astoria and the surrounding country.

Electric Sign Needed

Each committee reported the great need of an electric sign such as has been recently given to the Y. M. C. A. by Miss Nellie Flavel.

Mrs. G. W. Walters reported that in the year 1921 the Y. W. C. A. had 56 requests for rooms outside of those at headquarters and 432 requests for employment, and 129 women and girls had found work through the Y. W. C. A. employment bureau.

Miss Edyth Wilson, recreation secretary, gave interesting facts and figures for the gymnasium and swimming classes. This was considered good, in that the Y. W. C. A. had the use of the Y. M. C. A. gym and pool for only one day a week. The total receipts for this department were $276.35, an average of $23 per month, half of which goes to the Y. M. C. A. for rent. Since December 1, Miss Wilson has enrolled 31 women and girls in this department and the numbers steadily increasing.

Mrs. F. C. Green, Dr. Rhoda Hicks, Mrs. W. D. McCallum and Miss Evelyn Holmes, four of the retiring board members were re-elected, and Mrs. De Witt Gilbert, Mrs. Lloyd Foster and Miss Ruth Johnson were the new directors elected by the membership for a three year term.

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS REPORT OF TRUSTEES MEETING IN TACOMA

The keynote for Kiwanis clubs of the Pacific Northwest district, as outlined by President Neal at the district trustees' meeting held recently in Tacoma, is for closer attention to the principles, purposes, aims and obligations of Kiwanis and laws to growth and expansion in either members or clubs, according to A. C. Strange, district trustee of the Astoria club, who reported on the meeting to the club at its luncheon in the Hotel Astoria today.

President Neal declared that clubs within themselves should devote increased attention to keeping abreast with the best things in the Kiwanis movement, to inculcating in each member the fine principles of the Kiwanis code and in carrying out in the activities of the individual members and of the club the cardinal objects of Kiwanis.

At the Tacoma meeting George Snell, former vice president of the international organization and present international trustee, outlined in a stirring address which was brought back to Astorians today by Mr. Strange, the sextuple doctrine of Kiwanis, embodied in six words—cooperate, provide, develop, promote, encourage, give.

He would have Kiwanians cooperate—to mould public opinion in right lines and to bring idealism into American life; provide—fellowship and better communities; promote—better standards of business and life; encourage—daily living of the Golden Rule; develop—good citizenship; give—not only money, but oneself and a better appreciation of the human and spiritual values as opposed to the material values.

Miss Marjorie Knapp, teacher in the Adair school and leader of the Girl Reserve triangle of that institution, told the clubmen of the remarkable things that the Girl Reserve movement has done in the school, how it has helped growing girls of the school to grow in spirit, mind and body, how it has given them new enterprises, new plans, new ambitions and new hopes.

Miss Knapp explained to the Kiwanians the cry of the "teen-age" boys and girls for organizations, and how if good organizations are not provided bad ones may be formed. She told of what the Girl Reserves, the junior branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, is doing to meet this need in Astoria.

An exhibit of four of the members of the Adair school Minnehaha Triangle of Girl Reserves was presented by Miss Knapp. The four bright, wholesome girls gave several Girl Reserve songs and the Girl Reserve code. They were roundly applauded.

A. C. Miller, dairyman, attended today's meeting, his first as the newest Kiwanian in the Astoria club.

H. B. Johnson, Ted Higgins and Harry Robinson couldn't keep music from bubbling from their lips and sang several numbers during the program.

Business and Professional Women's Club

A good representation of the Business and Professional Women's club gathered last evening at the Hotel Astoria for a business meeting and to hear a program. The latter was given immediately after the opening of the meeting which was called to order by the president, Miss Agnes Carlson.

The first number was a paper by Miss Myrtle Trogan, "The Value of Jazz and Popular Music." In the ten minutes allotted for the paper, Miss Trogan brought out some excellent reasons why jazz has virtues. She predicted that it will have a far-reaching influence on music, making it more cheerful and rhythmic. She stated that it had played a large part in popularizing wind instruments, that rhythm, the adjunct of melody, is found in jazz; and after detailing a dozen or more excellent reasons for its popular use, she paraphrased the "girl who had a little curl" by asserting that "when it is good it is very good, and when it is bad it is horrid."

Miss Elsie Johnson's paper, "The Value of Classical Music," presented another viewpoint. The speaker declared that classical music is the most potent of civilizing influences, that it comes next to Divinity in creating religious emotions; that it stimulates the finer emotions, has a moral and educational value and leads to beautiful ideals. It stirs our higher natures and broadens our sympathies, she said.

The chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Belle Beckley, announced that at the next meeting in February, there would be three papers or addresses, the subjects being "Washington," "Lincoln" and "Edison."

The meeting last night was the last to be held at the Hotel Astoria. Hereafter the club will hold its meetings at the new quarters of the Y. W. C. A. at Twelfth and Franklin.

INTERESTING PROGRAM HEARD BY ROTARIANS

The Y. W. C. A. and the Standard Oil Co., provided the program for the Rotary Club yesterday, the former organization through the Tri-Y Girls Reserve of the high school and the latter through a musical organization recruited from the ranks of the local employees of the company.

Miss Ellen Johnson of the high school faculty, advisor of the Tri-Y club, in a short but very comprehensive address presented to the Rotarians the ideals for which the Young Women's Christian Association is striving. The Girls Reserve, she said, takes hold of the girl of the teen age which is the critical age from the standpoint of character formation, and seeks to provide her with wholesome recreation, mental stimulation and spiritual guidance.

"You men," she said, "readily appreciate the good work being done by the Boy Scouts and Y. M. C. A. among the boys of the city. There is no less of a need for an organization working among the girls who are to become future citizens and mothers of future citizens."

Miss June Goodale, president of the Tri-Y Club, also addressed the Rotarians upon the three-sided program of the Girls Reserve. She was supported by a trio of members who sang several songs and recited the obligations which a member of the organization takes.

The appearance of the Standard Oil musicians resulted from the fact that Manager Bruce Holmes was in charge of the program. An instrumental trio, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Van and Mr. West, gave several jazz selections and they were followed by several songs from a male quartet, all of which were received with enthusiasm by the Rotarians.

President Hope announced the appointment of a committee to assume charge of preparations for a full representation at the district conference in Portland, March 22-24. The committee is composed of M. R. Chessman, chairman, John Tait and Roger Pinneo.

BUILDING WILL BE SOLD FOR Y. W. C. A.

Following announcement that the Pacific Power & Light Co. had donated its office building at Tenth and Exchange streets to the Y. W. C. A. it was stated yesterday that the owners of the building had put the matter of its disposal up to George Walters, owner of the site on which the structure stands.

Mr. Walters said last evening that he would sell the building to the highest bidder, all funds to go to the Y. W. C. A. proposals may be submitted at any time.

TRI-Y RECOGNITION

Fifteen girls of the Tri-Y club of the High School Girl Reserves will be received into membership this evening. The services will be held in the community house in the city park at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting social affair is being planned for the close of the service. The girls are asked to wear the white uniform to make the usual candlelight service more effective.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

The inter club council of the Astoria Girl Reserves will be held at the Y. W. C. A. rooms this evening. It will be a pot luck supper and reports with study on club singing will be held afterwards. Miss Esther Larson, Miss Estella Muir and Miss Marjorie Knapp, teachers and advisors, will be present to help the girls.

GIRL RESERVE PARTY

Fifteen members of the Girl Reserves at Taylor School were entertained Monday evening at the home of Anna Malinen, a member of the Triangle who lives at 298 Alameda. Miss Williams, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., assisted by Miss Sterling of the Sterling beauty shop were present to assist the girls in the games and singing of various Girl Reserve songs. Light refreshments were served by Esther Malinen, a member of the Tri-Y Club of High School Girl Reserves. The girls started for home at 9:30 having spent two delightful hours together.

CLASS IN BASKETRY

A class in basketry under the direction of Mrs. Kuen, of the Bee Hive art department, will begin its work in the Y. W. C. A. rooms next Thursday. Class hours will be from 7:30 until 9:00 o'clock. Some fifteen girls have already registered for the course and any others desirous of joining should give their names to Miss Williams, Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. The course will consist of twelve lessons during which it is planned to complete four baskets. The entire cost of materials for this work will be nominal. The amount to be advanced now is to secure materials for the first basket. This will correct an erroneous impression that the sum requested is to be paid to the instructor. It is for materials only. Mrs. Kuen's services are given gratis.

Y. W. C. A. Needle Work Class

Mrs. Kern, teacher of the Needle Work class which has been meeting Thursday evenings at the Y. W. C. A., will meet this week to discuss the cost of basketry lessons. Anyone interested is urged to attend. Class starts at 7:30 and lasts until 9 o'clock.

Y. W. C. A. Gymnasium Class

The Lobsters have been the winners so far this year defeating the Shrimps in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium classes by a high score. It is expected that there will be a public volleyball game soon with Naselle High school and all players are asked to come out Wednesday evening at 7:30 for practice. Gearhart Larson is the instructor.

ASTORIA GIRL RESERVE MEMBERSHIP IS 125

With Mrs. A. Schaller as chairman, the Girl Reserve Committee held its regular monthly business meeting at the Young Women's Christian Association, Monday afternoon at 4:30. The members present were: Mrs. Schaller, the Misses Marjorie Knapp, Ellen Johnson, Winifred Hopson, Ann Mills, Esther Larson and E. Grace Williams. Reports of the five different Girl Reserve organizations were given. A report from the Council of Adult Guidance held in Portland in December was given by Miss Williams who spent three days there in consultation with delegates from Salem, Vancouver and Portland. Miss Gertrude Gogin, National G. R. Sec'y also was present.

The total membership of Girl Reserves in Astoria to date numbers

125 active workers. Each of the five groups is doing good active work. With the Girl Reserve new club room in the Y. W. C. A. at the corner of 12th and Franklin there will be a new interest in the work.

NEW BUSINESS BELOW

BUSINESS CLUB MEET AT Y. W. YESTERDAY

At the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. three papers were presented which depicted the lives of some of America's great men. The papers given were: "Life of Lincoln" by Elinor Johnson; "Life of George Washington" by Mrs. Patterson, who is connected with public health work in Portland; and "Edison, the Inventor," by Ruth Johnson.

Other features of the program were the reading of a letter from the national president of the organization, Miss Delia Prichard, and the receiving of a club song.

The next meeting will be held February 17. At this time a representative of the Pacific coast children's demonstration bureau will speak on "Health."

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

The Business and Professional Women's club met yesterday evening at the Y. W. C. A. The meeting was in the nature of a general reunion. Each member responded to roll call with a memory gem from the life of Lincoln. Miss Eleanor Johnson gave an interesting paper on the "Life of Lincoln." Mrs. Paterson read a paper on the "Life of Washington", and Miss Ruth Johnson a paper on the "Life of Edison." With Miss Grace Williams as song leader the club practiced several of their new songs. Following the program a business meeting was held during which much important business was transacted. Later refreshments were served. The club received a very inspiring New Year's letter from their national president, giving the foundations on which success will be built for the coming year. At the next meeting of the organization to be held February 17, Mrs. Thompson, Pacific Coast Director of the Child Demonstration Bureau, will give an address on health. Initiation will also be held at this meeting.

Joint Meeting

The Clatsop County Health association and the Business and Professional Women's club will hold a joint meeting on Tuesday evening, February 17, at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.

Two out-of-town speakers of note will talk on subjects of interest to the general public which is invited to attend. Both are from Portland, one being Miss Eleanor Thompson, Pacific Coast director of the Child Welfare demonstration, and the other Dr. Estella Ford Warner, director of the state bureau of Child Hygiene.

Give to Y. W. C. A.

The Pacific Power and Light company has donated the frame building which served as its headquarters in the post fire period to the Astoria Y. W. C. A. for such disposition as it may wish to make of it. Proceeds from the sale or wrecking of the structure will be the full property of the association. The building stands on the property owned by G. W. Walters at the southeast corner of Tenth and Exchange streets. Mr. Walters is assisting the association in the disposition of the structure.

ENTERTAINED GIRL RESERVES

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Brabaw was the scene of a merry party Friday evening when their daughter Miss Henrietta Brabaw entertained the Girls' Reserve club. The evening was spent with games and music. Those present were June Goodale, Mildred Rinnell, Helmi Hellerstedt, Laura Brobst, Aino Peller-vo, Ellen Moisto, Ragmar Cauppi, Dorothy Violette Arlene Johansen, Wynema Reed Elma Kinnell, Lucille Blanchard, Anita Wilson, Inez Sar- burg, Miss Grace Williams, Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss Ann Mills, advisor.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

The Falloyche Triangle of the Girl Reserves met Tuesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. at four o'clock. Mrs. C. R. Hanks is the advisor of the club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Florence Spicer, 319 Irving avenue, Saturday afternoon between the hours of two and five. The afternoon will be spent in sewing, singing and visiting. The organization took in seven new members at the meeting Tuesday. They are Pauline Ahrens, Marion Beezley, Bernice McIrwin, Laina Haarala, Ruth Carlson, Barbara Belcher and Deloris Dickerson. The following two girls were recognized, Marion Beezley and Bernice McIrwin.

Reserve Membership.

At the meeting of the Girl's Reserve held this week in the Y. W. C. A. reports showed the organization had a local membership of 125 with all five groups working effectively. Those present at the meeting were the Misses Marjorie Knapp, Ellen Johnson, Winifred Hopson, Ann Mills, Esther Larson and E. Grace Williams.

Cooked Food Sale.

The house committee of the Y. W. C. A. announces the holding of a cooked food sale tomorrow, Friday, February 13, at the Bee Hive department store beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning, and continuing until closing time of the store, or until all the food has been sold.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

The Hyos Klos Tillikums, a branch of the Girl Reserves, held an installation and recognition meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the library of Taylor school. The following six girls were recognized, Frances Classen, Edna Classen, Lydia Hilton, Florence Hilton, Fannie Salo and Edna Waara. After the recognition an interesting program was given. Fannie Salo gave a short talk, "The Purpose of the Girl Reserves". A song was given by Hilma Seeborg, Dorothy Wilson, Fannie Salo, and Edna Waara. The last number on the program was a vocal solo by Edna Waara, playing her own accompaniment. The installation of officers followed. Each one received flowers as a gift from the other members. Refreshments were then served.

SURPRISE PARTY

The Minnehaha Girl Reserves of Adair school entertained with a surprise party Wednesday evening in honor of Hilda Sponberg, the retiring president, who graduates this term. The party was given at the home of Marilyn Luthe. Games were enjoyed, followed by stunts by each girl. Miss Bye, the advisor, who will succeed Miss Knapp and Miss Grace Williams were present. The members present were Marilyn Luthe, Signe

Mitchell, Borghild Orwick, Helen Larson, Anna Antilla, Helmi Mitchell, Evelyn Berg, Koula Patos, Viola Mattson, Fanny Arvola, Elna Suokko, Lila Hagerup, Edith Peterson and Mabel Sponberg.

TRI-Y GIRLS MEET

The Tri-Y Girls of the Astoria High School held a meeting January 14, at which Miss Virginia Jones resigned from the position as president of the organization. Miss June Goodale was elected to succeed her. Miss E. Grace Williams, the club advisor, spoke on the proposed new club room.

Hyos Klos Tillikums

A recognition and installation meeting of the Hyos Klos Tillikums, a branch of the Girl Reserves, took place at 3:30 yesterday in the library of the Taylor school. Six girls were recognized, being Frances Classen, Edna Classen, Lydia Hilton, Florence Hilton, Fannie Salo and Edna Waara.

An interesting program followed. Fannie Salo made a short address explaining the purpose of the Girl Reserves. Edna Waara gave a solo, playing her own accompaniment. The installation of the new officers followed. Each one received a gift of flowers. Refreshments were then served. About 22 members were present.

The Girl Reserves is a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A.

Girl Reserves

Miss Marjorie Knapp, advisor of the Girl Reserves, at the Adair school, who had charge of the program of the recent vaudeville entertainment at Adair school, Friday last, reports that the net proceeds resulting amount to above $40. This will be applied to the girls' budget, about $25 of which will be used in the furnishings of their room at the new Y. W. C. A. There are 25 girls in the triangle.

Class in Basketry

Beginning this week on Thursday evening and continuing for 12 weeks on the same day of the week, the Y. M. C. A. will sponsor a course in basketry. Mrs. Kuen has donated her services as instructor. There is no fee for the lessons, but each student will pay for her own materials. Fifteen have already signed up for the course and others are interested.

Y. W. C. A. Reception

Harriet L. Bromley, national Y. W. C. A. secretary for the Pacific Coast region, will be the special speaker at the reception in the new home of the Y. W. C. A., Friday evening, February 20, at 8 o'clock. The new address is corner of Twelfth street and Franklin avenue, next the old Y. W. C. A. building, but facing on Twelfth instead of on Franklin.

Seven new board members will be elected on Friday and the names will be announced at the evening meeting, when the annual report in printed form will be given out. Members of the Young Women's Christian Association invite the public to be present.

Flower Sale

The Girl Reserves of Alderbrook who sold violets and daffodils on the streets from 1 to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon have as the result of their labors the sum of $17 to apply toward the furnishing of their club room at the Y. W. C. A. The flowers were donated by Mrs. W. F. McGregor, president of the Y. W. C. A.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS

Friday evening, Feb. 27, at the Y. W. C. A. the Friendship Club of the Astoria High school met for a business and social meeting. They plan to meet twice a month regularly hereafter. Games and short stories were the diversion of the evening after which they popped corn. The following girls were present with Misses Dora Badollet and Grace Williams as hostesses: Dorothy Green, Mildred Hartill, Gladys Hartill, Leonore Anderson, Bada Felt, Doris Felt, Elma Christensen, Helen Erickson, Ellen Billingslea, Eleanor Swanson, Esther Anderson.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS "OPEN HOUSE" IN NEW HOME, ANNUAL REPORT READ

Giving an opportunity for Astorians to see something of the splendid work being accomplished by the Young Women's Christian Association an open house was held last night at the new home of the organization corner of Twelfth and Franklin. An interesting program was presented including a talk by Harriet L. Bromley, of the national financial division who spoke convincingly of the work done by the Y. W. C. A. and the opportunities offered by its several features of service; a song by the Taylor school girls glee club of 40 voices, directed by Miss Henrietta Hansen, a solo by Mrs. Rasmussen; introductory remarks by Mrs. W. F. McGregor, president of the Astoria Y. W. C. A. and a comprehensive report by Miss Williams, Y. W. C. A. secretary.

Miss Williams revealed that in the past year 250 girls have taken advantage of the room registry, 151 are enrolled in the various classes including basketry, charm, swimming and gymnasium; 19 attended the summer camp; 130 are members of the five Girl Reserve organizations and 190 members of the Y. W. C. A. The financial statement was particularly interesting and showed the remarkable self supporting basis upon which the local chapter is working.

In full it is as follows:

Miss Betsy Wootton, treasurer presented the budget for 1925, which calls for $4300 and was accepted by the membership present. Decorations for the occasion were furnished by the Erickson Floral and seed company. Triangle Girl Reserves acted as ushers while the Tri-Y club of the high school served punch and wafers.
The new home is comfortably furnished but there is need for a number of additional articles and a list of them has been placed in the hall where prospective donors may read them. Miss Williams announces that visitors will be cordially welcomed and the public is urged to pay a visit of inspection to the new quarters.

Y. W. C. A. Open House

The extensive preparations which have been in progress for some time for the opening of the quarters of the Young Women's Christian Association culminated in the open house meeting held on Friday night in celebration of the event.

It was a gala affair. The rooms of the new home were beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and jonquils, the courtesy of the Erickson Floral and Seed company. Guests to the number of 130 were shown about the house by the Triangle girls, to see the arrangements which will add to the comfort and accommodations of the new home.

The program opened with singing by 40 girls who compose the Girls' Glee club of the Taylor school, under the direction of Miss Henrietta Larsen. The club gave three numbers.

Mrs. R. Sinfield opened the meeting with prayer.

In a short talk Mrs. McGregor, the president, welcomed the guests and told briefly the difficulties overcome in reaching the present stage of progression in the Y. M. C. A. work.

Miss E. Grace Williams, in charge of the Y. M. C. A., submitted her report which later was given out in printed form. It embraced the activities of the organization as to room registry for girls; employment; the class work in various fields of endeavor, such as swimming, gymnastics, basketry; the Girl Reserves and other auxiliary activities; and the finances received and disbursed. Her report showed that $7173.84 had been received and $6042.48 disbursed, leaving a balance of $1131.36 on hand at the first of the year.

The budget for the present year presented by Miss Wootton, the treasurer, calls for $4300. It was adopted. Mrs. Harold Rasmussen, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Kennedy, gave two vocal numbers.

Miss Harriet Bromley, national secretary of finance for the Y. W. C. A., was the principal speaker of the evening. Her address lasting almost an hour, detailed the history of the association, the present situation and the struggles of the local chapter. She gave interesting comments on the work and spoke warmly of the local achievements. She was a most interesting and impressive speaker and by her talk aroused new enthusiasm for the excellent work done by such organizations.

The announcement of the new board of directors was made late in the evening, when the ballots were opened. The result of the election was: New members, Miss Cecelia Beyler and Mrs. C. W. Spicer; re-elected, Mrs. R. Sinfield, Mrs. F. C. Green, Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. H. Burke and Miss Ruth Johnson.

The Girl Reserves closed the meeting with the song, "Follow the Glean."

Punch and wafers, prepared and served during the evening by Mildred Rinnel, Annie Osterlund, Mahmi Helmerstedt and Aino Pellervo, formed the contribution of the Tri-Y girls toward the festivities of the evening.

The directors and Miss Williams have cause for congratulations on the auspicious opening of the home with its wider opportunities for service and the increased interest of the public.

Change of Residence

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Nash have removed from the Spexarth apartment and now occupy the Sixth street.

INTERESTING PROGRAM HEARD BY ROTARIANS

The Y. W. C. A. and the Standard Oil Co., provided the program for the Rotary Club yesterday, the former organization through the Tri-Y Girls Reserve of the high school and the latter through a musical organization recruited from the ranks of the local employees of the company.

Miss Ellen Johnson of the high school faculty, advisor of the Try-Y club, in a short but very comprehensive address presented to the Rotarians the ideals for which the Young Women's Christian Association is striving. The Girls Reserve, she said, takes hold of the girl of the teen age which is the critical age from the standpoint of character formation, and seeks to provide her with wholesome recreation, mental stimulation and spiritual guidance.

"You men," she said, "readily appreciate the good work being done by the Boy Scouts and Y. M. C. A. among the boys of the city. There is no less of a need for an organization working among the girls who are to become future citizens and mothers of future citizens."

Miss June Goodale, president of the Tri-Y Club, also addressed the Rotarians upon the three-sided program of the Girls Reserve. She was supported by a trio of members who sang several songs and recited the obligations which a member of the organization takes.

The appearance of the Standard Oil musicians resulted from the fact that Manager Bruce Holmes was in charge of the program. An instrumental trio, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Van and Mr. West, gave several jazz selections and they were followed by several songs from a male quartet, all of which were received with enthusiasm by the Rotarians.

President Hope announced the appointment of a committee to assume charge of preparations for a full representation at the district conference in Portland, March 22-24. The committee is composed of M. R. Chessman, chairman, John Tait and Roger Linneo.

Recognition Exercises

Seven girls were made members of the Minnehaha Triangle, Girl Reserves, at the Danish church, Twenty-seventh and Duane streets, yesterday afternoon. The initiation is called the recognition service, and this took place between 4 and 5 o'clock in the presence of 40 persons, including the Rev. Mr. Helgesen, pastor of the church. Twenty-eight Girl Reserves, all in white uniforms, were present to receive the new members. Miss Bey of the Adair school is the adviser.

The principal addresses of the afternoon were those of Miss E. Grace Williams from the Y. W. C. A. and of the president of the Triangle, Marilyn Luthie. Both were inspiring and added greatly to the program.

After the service the girls served tea and wafers.

Will Sell Flowers

Twenty girls of the Alderbrook Merry Triangle, Girl Reserves, will sell flowers on the streets today for the purpose of raising money toward the furnishings for the Girl Reserves' club room at the Y. W. C. A. The flowers are narcissi and fragrant violets, the donation of Mrs. W. F. McGregor, president of the Y. W. C. A. The girls have permission from the chamber of commerce to sell flowers on the street.

Methodist Silver Tea

The Women's society of the First Methodist church gave a successful silver tea at the church parlors on Tuesday afternoon. A profusion of potted plants and cut flowers were used in decorating the parlors. A large number were present.

An interesting program was the feature of the afternoon. Mrs. Theodore Sexton gave a piano selection. A vocal duet by Mrs. J. C. Sparks and Mrs. F. C. Green followed. Miss E. Grace Williams spoke interestingly on the Y. W. C. A. work in the community. Mrs. Belle Beckley and Miss Ione McNair each sang a number, and the program was concluded by a talk by a visitor in the city, Mrs. F. H. Barger of Eugene.

Dined at the Y. W. C. A.

The Baptist Sunday school class of Miss Grace Williams, consisting of about 10 members, dined at the Y. W. C. A. Friday evening, afterward holding a business meeting.

PHI CHI CLUB HAS MEETING AT Y. W.

New Officers Are Elected For Next Term Of Six Weeks

A meeting of the Phi Chi Club was held Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Peacock. Martha Matta, chairman of the pin committee, gave a report on the work of that committee. New officers, to serve for a term of six weeks, were unanimously elected as follows: President, Tynne Ilberg; vice-president, Olga Uotila; secretary-treasurer, Lena Tidslevold. It was voted that the office of club reporter be permanent. The meeting was then turned over to the chairman of the program committee, Esther Branner. The program consisted of:

1. An interesting talk explaining the Normal Instructor and Primary Plans by Gladys Carlson.

2. Discussion of problem for the evening—School room decorations for each school month—by clubs members. Many clever ideas were exchanged and appropriate decorations for each month were worked out.

Later in the evening refreshments were served by the program committee consisting of Esther Branner, chairman; Gladys Carlson and Irma Allen.

Girl Reserves Are Hostesses

The Tri-Y Girl Reserves of the high school entertained the H-Y boys of the Y. M. C. A. at a party held at the Young Women's Christian association on Monday evening.

Games and dancing were the diversions of the evening. The girls served wafers and punch. At 10:30 the party was concluded.

Mrs. J. A. Hellerstedt, Miss Anna Mills, Mrs. Martin K. Schaller, Miss Maxson, Miss Ellen Johnson and Miss E. Grace Williams were the patronesses. The guests and hostesses follow:

Elizabeth Brobst, Elma Kennell, Laura Donturi, Dagmar Cuppi, Anita Wilson, Ellen Moiseo, Halmi Hellerstedt, Ruth Hansen, Maytie Stilwell, Norma Woodman, Bessie Peacock, Artie Appleton, Lucile Bennet, Letha Curtis, June Goodall, Virginia Jones, Lonta McMananna, Edith Loifstedt, Anita Ordway, Anio Pellerlund, Dalmi Puusti, Alice Miles, Georgia Elliott, Standley Thorlum, W. Lutne, Harley Slusher Jr., Edwin Appleton, Wilbur Hissner, Harold Hoff, Louis Raymond, Rudolph Ranto, Charlie Williams, Silas Anderson, Lyle Stilwell, Alex McMananna, B. Short, Julius Berg, Runak Rasmussen, Harold Wing and Glenn Hissner.

ATTEND Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE

Mrs. W. F. McGregor, Mrs. DeWitt Appleton and Mrs. G. W. Spicer motored to Vancouver Tuesday with W.

McGregor to attend the Y. W. C. A. conference which was held in that city. The returned to Astoria Wednesday evening, and reported a very interesting and profitable trip. Astoria had the best representation of all the cities which sent delegates to the conference. Mrs. H. Burke, Mrs. R. Sinfield and Miss Grace Williams also attended the conference. They left for Vancouver Monday and returned Wednesday.

Sale for Y. W.

The Chamber of Commerce has given permission to the Girl Reserves of the Alderbrook school to sell violets and daffodils today. Mrs. W. F. McGregor has donated the flowers. The proceeds from their sale is to be used for the benefit of the Girl Reserve department of the Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Delegates

Mrs. R. Sinfield, Mrs. H. Burke and Mrs. J. C. Ten Brook are delegates with Miss Grace Williams to the Young Women's Christian institute at Vancouver, Wn., on March 2, 3 and 4.

Four national secretaries will be present at the institute to discuss questions of finance and education.

Miss Celia Karsun has offered her services to care for the Y. W. C. A. afternoons. Mrs. J. P. Bell, assistant secretary, will take care of the employment bureau mornings.

Y. W. C. A. DIRECTORS ELECTED AT MEETING

Mrs. R. Sinfield, Miss Cecelia Beyler, Mrs. F. C. Green, Mrs. G. W. Spicer, Mrs. C. B. Allen, Miss Ruth Johnson, Mrs. H. Burke were elected as Y. W. C. A. directors at the election held Friday evening.

Miss Beyler and Mrs. Spicer are the two new members. The other five were re-elected. All will serve a three year term from date.

Y. W. C. A. Cooked Food Sale.

The Young Women's Christian association will conduct a cooked food sale all day at the Bee Hive department store on Saturday, March 21. Home-made clam chowder, home-baked cakes, pies and cookies and a variety of salads are some of the tempting offerings.

Change in Joint Program

The joint meeting of the Clatsop County Health association and the Business and Professional Women's club which was to have been last evening, featuring two speakers coming from Portland for the occasion, was abandoned when it was learned by a telegram late yesterday that neither could be present. One had a death in the family; the other, through a confusion of dates, went to Seattle.

On Friday evening, however, Miss Eleanor Thompson, one of the speakers, will give the address at the reception given by the Y. W. C. A. in their new quarters.

Pot Luck Supper.
 The Inter-club council, Girl Reserves, met at the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday night, February 26. A pot-luck supper preceded a general discussion of plans to furnish the Girl Reserves' club room at the Y. W. C. A. Miss June Goodale, president of the Tri-Y girls, presented an excellent plan which was unanimously adopted. Eleven of the council were present.

Y. W. Meeting Postponed.
 Mrs. R. Sinfield wishes to announce that the regular meeting of the membership committee of the Young Women's Christian association which was to have taken place next Monday, March 2, has been postponed.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS Y. W. C. A. BANQUET

An overflow crowd was attracted to the mother and daughter banquet, held under the direction of the Girl Reserve committee of the Y. W. C. A. at the Methodist Episcopal church last night.

Covers were laid for two hundred, and fully fifty were turned away. The meeting was wonderfully successful in every way and the program was a splendid one.

A unique feature was introduced in the radio announcer specialty of Miss June Goodale. Miss Goodale was the announcer for station Y. W. C. A. and outdid other radio announcers by presenting not only the voice, but the features of the talent to her audience.

The violin solos of Miss Betty Siddall and the interpretive dancing of Miss Arvis Christofferson and Miss Mabel Andrews were particularly well received.

Instructive discussions on the girl in the home and at school, at work, in the church and the debt of the community to its girl citizens held the attention of the audience through the evening.

Following was the speaking program: "The Girl Citizen at Home," Mrs. C. W. Laughlin and Marjory Chester.

"The Girl Citizen at School," Miss Cecelia Bylor and Edna Waara.

"The Girl Citizen at Work," Mrs. Pearl Dore and Miss Pearl Johnson.

"What Does the Community Owe Its Girl Citizens?" Mrs. W. S. Kinney, state senator.

To Stage Baby Clinic

The regular monthly baby clinic will be staged next Monday at the Y. W. C. A. building under the direction of Dr. Clara Waffle, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Florence Paterson, county health nurse.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting

There will be a meeting of the membership committee of the Y. W. C. A. at the Y. W. C. A. building, on Monday, April 6, at 7 p. m.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET TONIGHT WILL HAVE UNIQUE PROGRAM

Tonight is the Mother and Daughter banquet. The purpose of this meeting is to bring the mother and daughter closer together both in their community life and in their understanding of each other. The plans are under the direction of the Girl Reserve committee of the Y. W. C. A. A novel program is promised. Since the radio has become such a popular form of diversion the girls planned an adaptation decidedly different. Reservations may be made at the Y. W. C. A.

The program is as follows.

1. Grace—to be sung—all standing.
2. Group singing throughout the dinner.
3. Violin solos Miss Betty Siddall.
(a) Repent Ye.
(b) The World is Waiting for the Sunrise.
4. "Tribute to Our Mothers", June Goodale.
5. "The Girl Citizen at Home," Mrs. C. W. Laughlin
Marjory Chester
6. "The Girl Citizen at School", Miss Cecelia Beyer, Edna Waara
7. Interpretive Dancing

- Arvis Christofferson
Mabel Andrews
(Under direction of Helena Parras)
8. "The Girl Citizen at Work" Mrs. Pearl Gore
Miss Pearl Johnson
 9. "The Girl Citizen at Church" Mrs. F. C. Taylor
Marlin Luthe
 10. "What does the Community Owe Its Girl Citizens?" Senator Kinney
 11. Closing Song.

SPRING MEETING

The Y.W.C.A. will hold their regular spring membership meeting at the new headquarters, 12th and

TO MEET TUESDAY

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet Tuesday night at the Astoria hotel. Following dinner at 6:15 o'clock, a musical program and speeches will be given. The entire program has not been arranged but among the speakers will be A. C. Strange.

Girls to Leave.

The girls who were chosen to represent the local organization of the Girl Reserves, those chosen from the Tri-Y club of the high school, in the mid-winter meeting of the Girl Reserves at Vancouver, Wn., will leave this morning from the Ross-Woodman furniture store at 10:30. The delegates will make the trip in cars. The girls will be accompanied by their two advisors, Miss Schaller and Miss Williams.

HIGH STUDENTS WILL STAGE CARNIVAL SOON

The Hi-Y and Tri-Y club of Astoria high school will stage a carnival in the high school gymnasium on April 3. The members of these two clubs thought at first that they would give a play, but after it was talked over it was decided to give a Hi-Jinks or carnival. The junior class of last year staged a carnival which was a great success, both socially and financially. The people who are in charge of this affair plan to eclipse anything had in this line in the past.

House Party

About twenty members of the Tri-Y club, Girl Reserves of the High school, with their faculty advisers, left yesterday afternoon to spend the week-end at the cottage of Mrs. W. S. Kinney at Gearhart Beach.

The girls' advisers, accompanying them and remaining during the outing, are Miss Mills, Miss Johnson, Miss Muir, Miss Jackson, Miss Williams and Mrs. Ashworth.

The girls of the party are June Goodale, president; Helmi Hellerstedt, Laura Lonberg, Laina Puusti, Mildred Rinnell, Anne Osterland, Aina Pelleruo, Maytie Stilwell, Bessie Peacock, Ruth Johnson, Dorothy Vivrett, Henrietta Brabaw, Laura Brobst, Elma Kennell, Eileen Fitz Gerald, Artie Appleton, Helen Pellervo, Frances Corneliuss, Arlene Johanson, Rose Felice and Norma Woodman.

The parents of some of the girls donated their time and cars to convey the party to its destination. The return will be in the same manner.

Election of Officers

At a meeting of the Community Welfare Shop organization held at the Astoria hotel yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. G. W. Roberts, president; Mrs. Austin Osburn, vice-president; Mrs. T. O. Withers, secretary; and Mrs. Sarah Erwin, treasurer.

The meeting proved extremely interesting with its reports which showed records of real accomplishment, and the short talks. The society has been re-organized along more efficient lines which will result in a wider field of accomplishment. Fresh enthusiasm has been awakened by hearing what has already been accomplished.

In a short talk Miss Marian Bowen, manager of the local Red Cross, explained the relief work done through the Red Cross by the Community Welfare society. Miss Grace Williams told of the work able to be done in the Y. W. C. A. through the help of the Community Welfare society and thanked the members for their liberal contributions. Mrs. Florence Paterson gave a short talk on the County Health association. Mrs. F. H. Haradon, a former president of this organization, detailed the work done in Pasadena at her present home, and made excellent suggestions about the work for the coming year.

The financial report was of special interest. Since September, 1922, the following disbursements have been made: Salvation Army, $40; Y. M. C. A. for two memberships for boys, $30; Y. W. C. A., $235; County Health association, $160; Relief work, $1,345; Humane Society, $10. Total, $1,870. Balance on hand March 1, 1925, $718.50. This is a splendid showing, considering the fact that the organization was not in operation for some months after the Astoria fire, and that the source of revenue is from the Community Welfare Shop where donations are sold for trifling sums.

Minnehaha Triangle Activities

The Minnehaha Triangle, Girl Reserves, gave a candy sale at the Adair school during the noon hour yesterday. The amount netted was over eight dollars.

A recognition service was held at the Methodist church, Twenty-seventh and Duane streets, recently when Mary McKalley and Jennie Kauppi were recognized, or taken into full membership. A short program was given after which refreshments were Baby Clinic Today.

A baby clinic was held today at the Y.W.C.A. building, under the direction of Dr. Clara Waffle. Mrs. Florence Paterson, Clatsop county health nurse, reports that mothers of this county are taking a great interest in the baby clinics.

Delegates Back.

The girls who were sent as delegates from the Tri-Y club of Astoria high school to the mid-winter conference of Girl Reserves at Vancouver, Wn., returned early last evening, after having spent a very enjoyable time during the week-end at the meeting. Several girls were unable to go at the last minute. They were Anne Osterland, Alice Miles and Ellen Mosio. The girls who did go reported a very nice time and were very praiseworthy about the hospitality of the Vancouver people. The delegates reported that about 250 girls were present at the conference, representing most of the larger schools in Oregon and Washington. The trip was made possible by some of the local business men taking the girls to Vancouver in their cars. These gentlemen donated their time and machines to the use of the delegates.

Girls to Vancouver.

The delegates from the local Tri-Y left this morning to attend the mid-winter conference of Girl Reserves in Vancouver, Wn. The girls who were chosen from the high school organization had to have a certain average in their grades before they were allowed to go. All the delegates were chosen from the whole body.

Those who are making the trip are: June Goodale, president; Anne Osterland, Alice Miles, Anita Ordway, Anita Wilson, Hanna Seaborg, Dagmar Kaupé, Maytie Stilwell, Ruth Hansen, Ellen Mosio, Hilda Utolia, Aino Pellervo and Mildred Rinnell. The girls were accompanied on their trip by their advisors, Miss Schaller and Miss Williams.

The week-end will be spent in Vancouver in attending conference and meetings and the girls plan to return to Astoria some time Sunday.

Y. W. TO START ON FINANCIAL DRIVE EARLY NEXT MONTH

The next few weeks will show considerable activity in the Y. W. C. A.

The week of May 11-15 has been announced as the time period in which the three thousand dollar budget will be raised upon which to operate the organization for the ensuing seven months. On next Tuesday evening, April 28, at the Y. W. C. A. the spring membership rally is to be held. All friends of the organization are invited to come to the headquarters that evening to inspect and to learn about the organization.

The educational committee of the Young Women's Christian association, of which Mrs. H. Burke is chairman, has recommended the following young ladies as playground supervisors at the city schools: Adair, Miss Elizabeth Taylor; McClure, Miss Maurine Buchanan; Taylor, Miss Margaret McCullough.

TIVITIES

Recognition Service

A recognition service of the Tri-Y club of the Girl Reserves was held at the Y. W. C. A. at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Eleven girls were recognized, which means that they were taken into full membership, having passed all the required tests.

The candle-light service, called "the circle of light," was used. The president of the club, June Goodale, had charge of the service. Prof. A. C. Strange gave a very interesting talk at the close on the subject, "The Girl and Her Responsibilities," which was received with marked attention. The program concluded with the full report of the ten girl delegates who recently attended the State Reserve conference at Vancouver, Wn., after which punch and wafers were served.

The eleven new names added to the list of Girl Reserves are Rose Felice, Frances Beezley, Eileen Fitz Gerald, Ruth Johnson, Leora Tienso, Ruth Hansen, Lorita McManamna, Olive Cadoman, Laura Brobst, Helen Pellerovo and Alice Thompson, which make a total of 46 High school girls who are members of the Girl Reserves.

SIX

SOCIAL ACT

Inter-Club Council

Ten members of the Girl Reserve club, two from each of the five clubs, met in council at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday evening, April 20. Besides the members there were present Miss E. Grace Williams, Esther Larson and Estella Muir. This was the regular meeting held each month from 5 p. m. until 7:30 p. m.

A remarkable dinner, both from the point of cost and its variety of viands, was served in the G. R. club rooms at the Y. W. C. A. by Elizabeth Patterson and Esther Loifstedt, members of the Pailoychee Triangle of the Central school. The two planned, bought and served the meal at 25 cents a plate and then had a surplus of 25 cents to the credit of the club. The menu read: Salmon loaf with white sauce, Parker House rolls, creamed peas, baked potatoes, ice-cream, cookies and chocolates. Quite an achievement for grade schools girls.

Some interesting reports of April activities by the Girl Reserves were related at the council meeting.

Will Visit Astoria

In the early history of the local Y. W. C. A. the general secretary was Miss Lyle Elizabeth Ford who still has many friends in Astoria. She left here to take a position as English teacher in the high school of Tacoma, Wn. Miss Grace Williams was her successor.

On Thursday, April 9, Miss Ford will arrive in Astoria to visit over the week-end and will be the special guest of the Y. W. C. A. On Thursday evening a reception has been planned to honor Miss Ford at which all her friends will have an opportunity to renew their acquaintance. Only a general invitation will be issued.

B. and P. W. Meet.

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet at 6:15 o'clock tonight at Hotel Astoria for dinner. Speakers for the occasion will be John Tait of the Troy laundry and A. C. Strange, superintendent of city schools. A musical program also will be rendered. Miss Vada Morfitt will sing. A large attendance is requested and expected. After dinner, the meeting will be continued at the Y. W. C. A.

RECOGNITION SERVICE

The Minnehaha Triangle of Girl Reserves of Adair school, recently held a recognition service at the Methodist church. Those recognized were Mary Mac Kalley and Jennie Kauppi. After a short program was given light refreshments were served by the service committee. Yesterday the Minnehaha Triangle held a candy sale during the lunch period at the Adair school. The amount made was over eight dollars. apr 17, 1925

Babies Examined.

Twenty babies were examined at the second of the regular monthly baby clinics at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday under the auspices of the Clatsop County Health Association.

Dr. Clara Waffle conducted the examinations and advised the mothers as to food and the training of their children. Mrs. Florence Paterson, county nurse; Mrs. J. W. Sparks, president of the Clatsop County Health association, and the two nurses from St. Mary's hospital assisted at the clinic.

PRE-EASTER PARTY

The Business and Professional Women's club will give a party Tuesday evening, April 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. One hundred invitations have been issued for the affair which will be in the nature of a pre-Easter party. A surprise program will be given. An interesting feature will be the password which will be a red paper bag. Miss Beyler, who has been elected president of the organization for the third time, will preside for the first time in the new year.

Y. W. C. A. Finance Campaign

A Y. W. C. A. campaign for the purpose of raising $3000 for running expenses only for the next seven months, or until the first of the year, is to be launched on May 11 and will continue five days. It is hoped that the full amount will be pledged for this worthy cause.

The amount of good done through the Y. W. C. A. is almost incalculable. The training of the Girl Reserves in thrift, domestic arts and high ideals is one of the activities of the Y. W. C. A. which is brought about by the encouragement of the girls' plans and the furnishing of a place for their meetings. This alone is of great assistance to the parents of the girls.

The initial gift committee is already interviewing other workers to start out the campaign with a substantial pledge.

Reception for Former Astorian

Miss Lyle Elizabeth Ford of Tacoma, Wn., arrived in Astoria yesterday noon to remain during the Easter vacation and renew acquaintance with friends of former years. She is stopping at the Hotel Astoria until Sunday.

Last evening friends gathered to greet her at a no-host dinner at the hotel. Covers were placed for Miss Aino Malinen, Mrs. Enoch Mathison, Mrs. Otto Erickson, Miss Saima Wuori, Miss Eva Holmes, Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland, Miss E. Grace Williams and Miss Ford.

After the dinner an informal reception was held at the Young Women's Christian association, when many old friends called during the evening to greet Miss Ford.

Seven years ago Miss Ford was associated with Miss Inez Cook in organizing the war work center, Y. W. C. A., with headquarters in Young's building for two years until the city took over the work and moved the headquarters to the Meserve residence on Exchange street. This building was burned in the disastrous fire two years ago.

Miss Ford left Astoria in 1920 to take a position as teacher of English in the Tacoma high school, which she still holds.

BACK ON DUTY

Miss Marjorie Knapp, Girl Reserve secretary, is back on duty after an absence of one month because of a colder operation.

Y. W. C. A. SECRETARY HERE

Miss Mildred Esgar, Y. W. C. A. secretary for the town department of the national board is visiting the local association the first three days of this week. Miss Esgar travels over 13 western states, a large territory, and brings with her the experiences of other cities the size of Astoria. She has just come from three sectional conferences held in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. work in the northwest district.

A meeting is to be held at the Y. W. C. A. this evening when Miss Esgar will talk on the programs that can be promoted by the Young Women's Council and the Education Committee—under the direction of Mrs. J. E. McCoy and Mrs. G. C. Pauling respective chairmen. Each group will meet separately hereafter once a month. It is hoped that anyone interested in hearing Miss Esgar will feel welcome to attend the meeting which is called for 7:45 promptly.

Y.W.C.A. Elects Mrs. H. Burke As New President

Mrs. Harry Burke last night was elected president of the Y. W. C. A. at the organization meeting of the newly elected board of directors.

Other officers elected included Mrs. A. C. Miller, vice president; Miss Ruth Johnson, secretary and Miss Betsy Wootton, treasurer.

All but three members of the new board were present at the meeting. Following the election, an interesting business session was held.

Announcements were made regarding the State Girl Reserve conference, which is to be held in Astoria March 12 to 14, when 150 high school girl delegates are expected; and also regarding the Y. W. C. A. mid-year conference to be held Thursday and Friday of this week at Centralia, Washington.

Y.W.C.A. is Now Located In Own Home

After Many Vicissitudes Local Branch Firmly Established as Factor in Development of Young Womanhood of Community.

By MISS E. GRACE WILLIAMS

Secretary, Astoria Y. W. C. A.
It was in 1918 that the War Work Council of the National Young Women's Christian Association became interested in organizing a hostess house in Astoria.

Miss Lyle Ford and Miss Inez Cook were sent to make a survey of the community. A location on the second floor of the Young building was secured; clubs for the girls were organized and light lunches were served at noon to the business girls.

After the close of the war the program would have been discontinued had it not been for a group of Astoria's Christian women who, realizing the importance of the work, decided to incorporate. A successful finance campaign was put on and, the necessary funds being assured, the organization was perfected. Mrs. W. S. Kinney was the first president. She served three years in that position. A residence between Tenth and Eleventh on Exchange street, remodeled to suit the needs of the work, was leased.

Early Program Extensive

It provided: a home for girls; 16 beds could be rented; a public cafeteria with a seating for 49; the city's only rest room for women; a comfortable reading room with a fire place; a club room where the Rotary, Ad club and Kianis clubs were served their weekly luncheons and a Girl Reserve club room so that the younger girl could feel it was her home. As a whole it was a great asset to the city and the surrounding community.

Three years later, December 8, 1922, this home was lost in the great fire. The Girl Reserve secretary, the house mother, the cafeteria women, the janitor, all but the general secretary, Miss E. Grace Williams, were released from the employ of the Y. W. C. A.

Past Fire Quarters

Three days after the fire rooms were again secured in the first floor of a small residence at 534 Franklin avenue, in which the few pieces of furniture saved from the fire were placed. The curtailed program then offered to women and girls was as follows: A free employment bureau and room registry, gymnasium and swimming classes, Girl Reserve club work, a rest room and information bureau. Women volunteered their services to do the office and clerical work so the secretary could do the Girl Reserve work at the schools.

In January, 1923, Mrs. W. F. McGregor was elected president to succeed Mrs. W. S. Kinney.

Outside Aid Received

A letter of appeal, endorsed by the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., was sent to all of the associations in the United States and in response a sum of $2700 was received. These gifts are gratefully received, since no public drive for funds could be made after the merchants had had such financial losses in the fire.

Y. W. PRESIDENT

Mrs. Harry Burke, recently elected head of Y.W.C.A. board.

The money as used to pay up the outstanding cafeteria bills and the current expenses of maintenance. It means hard work and conservative management on the part of all the women interested to finance the work. There were cooked food sales, an outdoor carnival and a cafeteria at the County Fair, to secure the money for running expenses but Mrs. McGregor was equal to the task and the "Y. W." was not only kept open but in November, 1924, a part of the Kirschhoff property at Twelfth and Franklin avenue was purchased for the sum of $7300. Nearly Free Of Debt

This property includes two residences. One is rented to Mrs. G. Hansen while that on the corner is the Y. W. C. A. headquarters.

The headquarters has been put in good repair and well furnished by donations and baked food sales receipts. Three payments have been made on the property, using the $1500 in the bank at time of the fire, the $2500 insurance on furnishings, and the $1500 realized from other savings, so that the debt is reduced to $1000, beside the street assessments.

The house committee, of which Mrs. J. C. Ten Brook was chairman, worked hard to make the home attractive. A paid office assistant was secured in February, 1925. In June, 1925, the Y. W. C. A. conducted a successful finance campaign, when $3700 in pledges and cash was given for maintenance.

This was the first time in four years that such a request for funds was made. If we were to enumerate the gifts received meanwhile there would be a long list.

The rooms are attractive and it is hoped that good work can be accomplished by having them open every day and evening.

Staff Is Enlarged

The finance budget for 1926 is $4979.54. This covers the current expenses for general administration, furnishings repairs, insurance and Girl Reserves.

But $4,000 of the above sum is provided by the Community Chest. The balance comes from rentals, and the $180 given in 12 payments from the Community Welfare shop, besides a few other donations.

Miss Marjory Knapp, the present Girl Reserve secretary, was added to the staff January 1, 1926. The opportunity for expansion in program is at hand. The direction of all the work is vested in a body of 21 representative Christian women. They are home, business and professional women, all interested in working out the Association purpose which is as follows:

"To associate young women in personal loyalty to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord; to promote growth in Christian character and service through physical, social, mental and spiritual training; and to become a social force for the extension of the Kingdom of God."

Mrs. Burke President

The officers elected for 1926 are Mrs. Harry Burke, president; Mrs. A. C. Miller, vice president; Miss Ruth Johnson, secretary; Miss Betsy Wootton, treasurer. The other members of the board are: Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. De Witt Appleton, Miss Cecelia Boyler, Mrs. G. C. Palmberg, Mrs. G. C. Pauling, Mrs. A. Schaller, Mrs. R. Sinfield, Mrs. G. W. Spicer, Mrs. J. C. Ten Brook, Mrs. G. Wingate, Mrs. J. E. McCoy, Mrs. J. A. Buchanan, Mrs. Carl Knutsen, Mrs. T. J. Hardie, Mrs. E. C. Elliott.

There are a number of other women and girls who are willing to help in thinking out the best ways in which the purpose can be expressed. There are problems in every city and town which young women are glad to help solve. It requires Christian leadership, women with a vision and who believe that the girlhood of a town is one of its greatest assets.

The future woman in the home is a challenge to any thinking Christian man or woman of today. What she is to be is what we are to her today.

Present Program

The local Y. W. C. A. works along the following lines: Employment Department.

The Y. W. C. A. is here to serve the public from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. It maintains a free employment bureau for women and girls. The woman in the home needs domestic help of some kind. She calls the "Y" to send her a woman or a girl.

Miss Williams, general secretary, looks after this department of service and keeps a file of women and girls listed for work. They register for clerical work, nursing, day, hour or month domestic service, care of children, waitress work in restaurant, hotel or camp, chamber maid service, stenographic and bookkeeping work and other lines.

Employment Betters Many

During 1925, four out of every six requests were cared for and there were 1300 interviews in the office either in person or by telephone made in the Employment and Room Registry departments.

Through the Room Registry a girl can at once find a room in a private home. One room in the "Y" headquarters takes care of two permanent girls at a nominal price and two emergency beds in the club room provides for the transient girl. Then there are light housekeeping apartments listed which girls sometimes want when living away from home.

Girl Reserve Department

Girls Are Reached

This department reaches the girls between the ages of 12 and 18 years. One hundred and fifty of them are lined up in Astoria in eight different organized groups. Each group has one or more advisor and each has a definite program outlined around health, service, knowledge and spirit. They maintain their own club room in the "Y". Their slogan is: "I will face life squarely" and their motto: "I will try to find and give the best." Mrs. A. Schaller is chairman of the Girl Reserve committee, meeting each month to discuss the program of work.

Their chief emphasis at present is how best care for the 150 delegates of the High School Girl Reserves who will come to Astoria March 12 to 14 for their mid-year conference. It is a state conference and several fine discussions will be held on the theme "Adventurers."

Summer Camps Held

Another objective is Summer Camps and Conferences. Our Girl Reserves have come to expect that summer conferences bring new life and new ways of living out their purpose—"to find and give the best." To their hands have been intrusted many gifts of friendship and fellowship and service. In order to pass these gifts on to others they come from city, town and rural sections to study common problems and common interests. In 1924 and 1925 Astoria was represented at the national conference, held every July at Seabeck, Wash., on the Hood Canal, by three girls and one secretary and plans are now made to send several again this year.

Conferences Vital

For the past two years the "Y" has had a local camp at Gearhart. The first year, Mrs. W. S. Kinney gave the girls the use of her cottage and 19 girls attended. There was a daily program of study, work, and recreation. The camp was called "Wo-Pla-Jo" which means work, play and joy. The benefits received from living together seven days were shown in the spirit of the girls at the close.

Last summer the same group occupied the Portland Y. W. C. A. cottage at Gearhart and 30 Astoria girls attended. So the camp has become a permanent part of our "Y" program but the need now is to own our own camp and the committee is anxious to find a location. The camp is not only needed in the summer but the year around. The week-end conference is necessary in program making. The friends of the "Y" interested in the out of doors have an opportunity before them. The girls of the impressionable age are easily influenced and the inspiration received around the Y. W. C. A. fireplace and camp fire gives a girl a desire to forget self and to rejoice in the happiness of others. An inspiration for life can be received.

Delegates To Seabeck

The Elks lodge in Astoria has furnished transportation for several occasions and it is one of the finest ways to serve since very little could have been done without such generosity. They have taken the girls to Salem, Vancouver, Portland, Seabeck, and the beaches. What a privilege to have a share in moulding girl life! What an inspiration to hear 150 young girls singing—"Follow the Gleam" or around the evening camp fire to hear the words softly sung—"Now the Day is Over, Night is Drawing Nigh" when the flame of the fire and the stillness of the stars are a part of the happiness and peace that have been found. This line of poetry describes perfectly the spirit of Girl Reserves—"To Look up and Love and Laugh and Lift."

Education Work

The Education Department is to be reorganized with Mrs. G. C. Pauling as the head. There are three divisions to this service: general or vocational; religious and world fellowship; health and recreational. At present there are four classes in this department meeting once each week. Mrs. R. J. Pilkington gives her time to a class in the study and appreciation of art. They are studying the history of 10 Italian artists. The girls meet at her home—Friday evenings and the future of the work promises to be far-reaching.

Physical Education

The ladies' gymnasium class meets Wednesday evenings in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Gearhart Larson, instructor, has done fine work in the past three years for this class. The class is open to any young women wishing to join. There are two swimming classes, one in the afternoon on Wednesday for the girls of grade school age over 10 years. Miss Williams, leads this class. Miss Winnifred Hopson, a high school teacher and an experienced swimmer, instructs the evening class for girls and business women. The Y. M. C. A. gym and pool are only available on Wednesdays, so the Y. W. C. A. pays one half of all class fees received as a rental for the gym.

In the history of the Astoria Y. W. C. A. some interesting classes have been held in basketry, millinery, Spanish, English, French and the Bible. It is hoped that some new classes in vocational training can be organized to suit the needs of the Astoria girls.

Young Women's Council

Mrs. J. E. McCoy will lead the Young Women's Council, to be organized soon. The council, meeting once, each month at the Y. W. C. A., will consist of representatives from the different Young Women's organizations in town and the leading industries where young women are employed. It will not be an organized club but will meet for the purpose of promoting various objectives. They will first study the program of the Y. W. C. A. and then study the town with the idea of interesting all young women in community activities. If they agree that a group of young women want to study some definite line of work, as current events, responsibilities of citizenship, comparative religions, organized hiking or recreation—they will state their recommendations in writing to the board of directors who in turn will cooperate in carrying out the request.

This council will be to the young woman over 18 years of age what the Girl Reserve committee is to the Girl Reserve program. If it functions properly the Y. W. C. A. will be one more means of becoming "a social force for the extension of the Kingdom of God."

The Y. W. C. A. being an international movement shows that its program is not a new, untried one but has a history of about 80 years of experience. Astoria can be proud that it can maintain one here.

Y.W.C.A. Elects Mrs. H. Burke As New President

Feb 10 - 1926
Mrs. Harry Burke last night was elected president of the Y. W. C. A. at the organization meeting of the newly elected board of directors.

Other officers elected included Mrs. A. C. Miller, vice president; Miss Ruth Johnson, secretary and Miss Betsy Wootton, treasurer.

All but three members of the new board were present at the meeting. Following the election, an interesting business session was held.

Announcements were made regarding the State Girl Reserve conference, which is to be held in Astoria March 12 to 14, when 156 high school girl delegates are expected; and also regarding the Y. W. C. A. mid-year conference to be held Thursday and Friday of this week at Centralia, Washington.

RECOGNITION SERVICE

The Failoychee Triangle of Girl Reserves held their recognition service yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. Eighteen girls were present and seven were recognized, namely, Eleanor Norblad, Gretcher Streichert, Dorothy Olsen, Hilja North-Star, Ebba Wicks, Rosemary Ross, and Maude Kennell. Three mothers were present also besides Miss Williams, secretary, who had charge of the service. The mothers were Mrs. Norblad, Mrs. Streichert and Mrs. Sprague. Kathleen Fitzgerald, the president of the Triangle presided and the girls gave a very interesting program after the ceremony. The social committee, headed by Marion Beezley served the light refreshments at the close when G. R. songs were sung and a general good time was enjoyed.

MRS. HARRY BURKE TO HEAD Y. W. C. A.

Feb 10 - 1926

Mrs. Harry Burke was elected president of the Astoria Y. W. C. A. at the first meeting of the present fiscal year of the board of directors of that institution, held last evening in the Y. W. C. A. building.

Other officers named were: Mrs. A. C. Miller, vice president; Miss Ruth Johnson, corporation secretary, and Miss Betsy Wootton, treasurer.

The board members spent some time in a general discussion of the program for the present year, and some definite reports will be made at the next board meeting in March.

Girl Reserves' House Party

On Friday evening, January 8, the 150 members of the Girl Reserves of Astoria were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Walters at their new apartment house on the corner of Tenth and Exchange streets.

As the girls were invited to spend the night also, it was arranged through the Girl Reserve committee of the Y. W. C. A. with Mrs. A. Schaller as chairman, that Miss Marjorie Knapp, the new G. R. secretary, should provide a program of entertainment. As a result, 125 girls enjoyed one interesting event after another.

After entering, all shoes were removed and house slippers donned that the newly polished floors might not be marred. The girls were divided into as many groups as there were letters in the host's name and were asked to prepare a stunt illustrating some special characteristic of the host which began with that special letter of the various groups. A treasure hunt which took the guests in and out of the various rooms ended with a five-pound box of chocolates, the group finding it being rewarded with first service at breakfast the next morning. The stunts put on by the eight clubs and triangles showed excellent training or a vivid imagination. Ice cream and wafers served by the host and hostess were a prelude to the "pajama parade," with June Goodale, president of the S. Tri-Y's leading. At 12:30 the guests retired, but not to sleep after so much excitement, as some of the advisers could testify.

At 7:30 the guests were ready for breakfast in the laundry room where Mrs. Victor Luthe and Mrs. D. L. Moore fried pancakes on large gas plates specially prepared by Mrs. Walters for the occasion.

Chaperones who remained all night were Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Grace Williams and Miss Marjorie Knapp, secretaries, Miss Ellen Johnson, Miss Myrtle Bye, Miss Ione McNair and Miss Birdell Sloper, advisers.

Jan 10 - 1926
Mrs. Walters was received into the G. R. organization of Astoria by a special initiation ceremony arranged by Miss Knapp. Both Mr. and Mrs. Walters were presented with pins in recognition of their interest in the work.

The host and hostess presented each girl with a souvenir in the form of a printed folder bearing the emblem of the Girl Reserves above the announcement, "The Walters House Party," and containing the names of all Girl Reserves in the different organizations.

Y. W. C. A. officers in charge of the delightful party were Mrs. W. S. Kinney, president; Miss E. Grace Williams, general secretary; Miss Marjorie Knapp, secretary and the Girl Reserve committee. composed of Mrs. A. Schaller, chairman; Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Mrs. V. Luthe, Mrs. G. W. Spicer, Miss Esther Larson and Miss Alice Aldrich.

Two New Directors of Y. W. C. A. Named

Miss Alice Ambler, bookkeeper with the Lower Columbia Co-operative Dairy, and Mrs. Emma Palrose, head bookkeeper at the Bee Hive department store, were elected to the directorate of the Y. W. C. A. at a special meeting of the organization board of directors held Tuesday evening.

The election was held to fill vacancies on the board caused by the departure from the city of one member and expired term of another.

The meeting devoted considerable time to the discussion of the coming Girl Reserves conference, and to plans for beautifying the lawn about the Y. W. C. A. building.

NEED MORE ROOMS FOR ACCOMODATION OF GIRL RESERVES

Thirty more rooms are needed for the delegates due here Friday at the mid-year conference of the high school Girl Reserves in order to take care of the visitors, according to announcement made yesterday by Miss Grace Williams, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Efforts to find Astoria families willing to welcome the visitors to their homes have been only partially successful to date. One hundred twenty-five girls already have registered to attend the meeting, and a slight increase in this number is expected.

The Astoria women in charge of arrangements for the convention are making an earnest appeal to Astoria's spirit of hospitality.

Those who are willing to take one or two of the girls into their homes should communicate at once with the Y. W. C. A.

Another need for entertainment of the visitors is the matter of automobiles to carry the girls on a short trip to Seaside and return Saturday afternoon. A number of cars already have been arranged for through the local Chamber of Commerce, but more are needed. Those willing to help in this way are asked to telephone the Y. W. C. A. or Chamber of Commerce at once.

The conference program calls for the arrival of the girls here Friday afternoon, their registration and a song meeting at the Methodist church Friday evening.

Saturday there will be a full day's program, culminating with a big banquet and election of officers in the evening.

The program will be concluded Sunday afternoon with a conference sermon, delivered by the Rev. D. J. Ferguson at the First Presbyterian church.

GIRL RESERVES DELEGATES OF STATE CONVENE

Representatives of 10 Cities

DAY TO BE BUSY ONE

Program Includes Trip to Seaside and Banquet This Evening at Church

One hundred and twenty-two delegates to the Oregon state conference of the High School Girl Reserves, arrived in Astoria last evening for the opening session of the gathering. Delegations from Mosier, McMinnville, Portland, Clatskanie, Hillsboro, Forest Grove, Gresham, Salem, Eugene and Vancouver, Wn., had registered and several more delegations are expected today. The girls will enter upon a full program of activity today which will have as features, an automobile trip to Seaside this afternoon and the convention banquet this evening.

The delegates upon arrival here were registered at the Elks building and then taken to the Methodist church where dinner was served in the social hall by the ladies of the Astoria Y. W. C. A.

Welcomed By Mayor.

Following the meeting the visitors assembled with members of the local Reserve group and were welcomed by Mayor O. B. Setters of Astoria, who expressed the pleasure of the community at their presence and extended assurance of the utmost hospitality and co-operation.

Other short talks of greeting were delivered by Mrs. Harry Burke, president of the Y. W. C. A. and by Miss Grace Williams, Y. W. C. A. secretary.

A short talk on the conference program was then given by Miss Velma Cochran, of Portland, state executive secretary, who then introduced the various Astoria

Each delegation upon introduction staged a "stunt" all of which were greeted with hearty applause by those present.

Singing during the meeting and following the dinner was led by Miss Elizabeth Silver, of Newberg, who is attending Willamette University.

Following the meeting the girls were sent to the Astoria homes whose doors have been opened to them during their stay here.

Members of the committee in charge of the housing expressed their appreciation of the hospitality shown by the Astoria residents and the courtesies extended. In many instances those who are housing girls called for them in automobiles to take them to their homes.

Today's program will start at 9 a. m. at the Lewis and Clark school and will be continued until 3:45 p. m., interrupted by a luncheon to be served at the Methodist church. At the close of the session the girls will journey to Seaside in automobiles provided by Astoria citizens, arrangements having been made throughout the local chamber of commerce.

Banquet This Evening.

At 7 p. m. a banquet will be served at the Methodist church at which conference business will be discussed and the following musical program presented:

Baritone solo, Rev. R. H. Trojan, accompanied by Mrs. Trojan.

Alto solo, Mrs. E. DeWitt Appleton, accompanied by Miss Artie Appleton.

Elliott instrumental trio, Mrs. R. H. Trojan, cello; Miss Helen Elliott, violin, and Miss Celeste Elliott, piano.

On Sunday morning the girls will attend the Sunday school meetings of the church denominations to which they belong and at 11 a. m. will gather at the First Presbyterian church where the conference sermon will be delivered by Rev. D. J. Ferguson.

200 Girl Reserves in City For Big State Conference

The Girl Reserves of Oregon are in conference in Astoria today, fully 200 attending the meetings which are being held in the Lewis and Clark junior high school auditorium, with meals in the Methodist church.

Following a rousing meeting after supper at the church last night, the 125 visiting delegates were quartered in the homes of Astorians, to assemble at the school at 9 this morning for an inspirational conference.

After singing and devotionals this morning Miss Marion Wyman of Salem took charge of the ring standards presentation ceremony, followed by a program shown.

The main feature of the morning conference was the presentation of the four points of the Girl Reserve program: Health, Knowledge, Service and Spirit.

Miss Mina Jarode of Salem covered the Health topic with a stirring talk.

A playlet "Knowledge," written by Miss Mary Allen of Forest Grove, was presented by the delegates from that city.

Miss Lillian Ritter of Portland delivered an inspiring talk on Service.

A play "Spirit" was presented by the Girl Reserves of Vancouver, Wash.

Election Late Today

Following recreation conducted by Miss Marjorie Flavel the seven standing committees held their meetings. These committees covered: Service, budget membership, ring, social, presidents and program.

The committee reports will be submitted at the business session late this afternoon when Miss Beulah Porter, state president of the Girl Reserves, will preside. The business session will be concluded with the election of officers.

Other features of the afternoon session were the devotion, lead by Miss Margie Danley; discussion of the summer conferences at Seabeck, Wash, by Miss Velma Cochran, conference executive, and Miss Beulah Porter; discussion of the budget, with a debate between the Vancouver and Portland delegations; and a play "The Budget Ghost" by the Astoria delegation.

Trip to Beaches

Following the conclusion of the program this afternoon the delegates will be taken for a motor trip to the beaches in automobiles provided by the members of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce.

Luncheon was served to the girls at noon today in the Methodist church social rooms by the ladies of the Y. W. C. A.

This evening the conference banquet will be held in the Methodist church, with a special musical program and concluding exercises.

Girl Reserves Will Close Session Today

Mar 14-1926

Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, of Salem, was elected state president of the high school Girl Reserves, at the business session of the state conference of the organization, held at the Lewis and Clark school auditorium yesterday afternoon.

Miss Van Winkle's election was the culmination of a day crammed with activity on the part of the conference members. At the morning and afternoon sessions, discussions, playlets, stunts, and debates, centered around the theme of the conference "The Adventures-Life is the Greatest Adventure."

The morning session was devoted to presentation of the ring standards to the various groups by Miss Marion Wyman, of Salem; and discussions of "Health," "Knowledge," "Service" and "Spirit" as related to the conference theme. Each subject was taken up by delegations from various parts of the state.

Playlet is Presented.

The feature of the afternoon session was discussion of the importance of keeping a budget, which was emphasized by the presentation of a playlet the "Budget Ghost" by the Astoria girls with Miss Laura Donberg, Miss Helen Brabaw, and Miss Francis Beezley, taking the leading roles.

An address dealing with the Seabeck summer conferences was delivered by Miss Velma Cochran, of Portland, executive state secretary, who was supported by Miss Beulah Porter, president.

The election of officers and a delightful trip to Seaside in automobiles provided by Astoria citizens, through arrangements with the Chamber of Commerce, completed the afternoon.

Banquet Held at Church.

In the evening the girls gathered in uniforms for the convention banquet which was held in the social hall of the Methodist church.

In the center of the hall stood a little ship model on a table. About the ship was a triangle, made of three tables, where covers were laid for the new state president, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle; for the retiring state president, Miss Beulah Porter; for the toastmistress, Miss Helmi Hellerstedt, of Astoria; for the Girl Reserve executive, Miss Velma Cochran; for the Astoria president, Miss June Goodale; for the Astoria Girl Reserve secretary, Miss Williams, and for the principal district speakers and Miss Elizabeth Silver, from Willamette university, who led the singing. About the officers' table were the tables for the other delegates. Tiny candy-filled paper ships marked places for about 150 girls.

The following program was given during the banquet:

Rev. Trojan sang "Duna," and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

Mrs. F. D. Appleton sang "Down Here" and "Dadie's sweetheart," Miss Marvelle Edwards, of Salem, gave a toast to the "Ring," Miss Alice Mecla, of Portland, gave a toast to "Seabeck,"

Miss Beulah Porter, of Vancouver, gave a toast "To Past Adventures," Miss June Goodale, of Astoria, gave a toast "To Present Adventures," and Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, of Salem, gave a toast "To Coming Adventures." Miss Patricia Flavel then played lovely accordeon selections, accompanied by Miss Nellie Flavel, her first number being the much admired French composition, "Andantino in D flat," by Le Mare; Miss Knapp gave announcements in regard to the last meeting of the convention; the past president thanked all the Girl Reserves for their cooperation, and said that she had greatly enjoyed working with them; and the new president expressed her appreciation of the honor given to her. In closing, the girls stood by their chairs and sang their song, "Follow the Gleam," after which they gave the Fellowship Pledge.

Love! corsage bouquets of pink rosebuds, and sweet peas were presented to the past and present presidents. Miss Knapp announced that the girls were to meet at the Elks' Temple at 11 o'clock this morning, wearing their uniforms of white middies and skirts, blue ties and no hats, from where they will go en masse to the First Presbyterian church where their services will be held. As a processional, they will sing "The Hymn of the Lights," and as a recessional they will sing "Follow the Gleam." The services at the church will mark the close of the convention.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET ON SATURDAY

The Y. W. C. A. will hold its annual mother and daughter banquet Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, in the Methodist church.

The topic of the evening will be "The Friendly Road." An interesting program is being arranged. It will include a talk on the ideal woman, a pageant by the Try Y's and Girl Reserves, entitled "The Spirit of Motherhood" with Delmar Kauppi as soloist, and several appropriate musical numbers.

The Womans' club of the Methodist church will prepare the dinner and boys will serve it. Tickets are on sale at the Y. W. C. A. for $1.20. One ticket will let one mother and daughter attend the banquet. There have been just as many tickets printed as there will be seats, so there will be no admissions without a ticket, and too, no one will be turned away who has already bought her ticket.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Given

With a large and enthusiastic attendance, the Mother and Daughter banquet given at the Methodist church last night, and sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., proved a decided success. Featured by musical numbers, addresses and a short pageant, the program received an enthusiastic reception from the guests.

The complete program follows:

Theme—Friendly Road.

Toastmistress—Beryl Atwood.

Toasts—Our companions on the road, Mrs. Mark Pike.

Our Guiding Friends—Marjorie Gearhart.

Pageant—Spirit of Motherhood, accompanied by Beryl Atwood, cellist; Henrietta Brabaw, pianist, and Dagmar Kauppi, soloist; music, Mother McCree, M-O-T-H-E-R and There's Only One Pal After All.

Short talks.

Milestones—Mrs. F. C. Taylor.

Signposts—Bessie Peacock.

Strangers on the Road—Dr. Martha Lowe.

Address—The Destination Ideal Womanhood, Mrs. C. W. Robison.

B. and P. W. Meeting

Tuesday the Business and Professional Woman's club will meet at the regular time at the Y. W. C. A. The round table discussion topic will be "The History of Astoria," and "The Business Woman's Relation to the Ballot." The club members are requested to bring the reports and the returns of the tickets for the benefit concert to be given Thursday evening by the Treble Clef club. Miss Beyler, president of the club, has received a message from Miss Bailey, the state president, in which she inquired about the hotel accommodations here. A special train will be chartered to bring delegates from all over the state to the convention, which is to be held here.

Pageant to Be Given

The membership committee of the Y. W. C. A. hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening to make definite plans for the pageant which they will supervise and present Tuesday evening, May 11, at the Presbyterian church. Plans will also be discussed for the mother and daughter banquet to be given next Saturday.

Grace Williams to Leave Y.W.C.A. to Take Idaho Place

Announcement was made yesterday by Miss Grace Williams, for the last six years secretary of the Astoria Young Women's Christian association, that she had submitted her resignation at a meeting of the institution's board of directors Tuesday of this week. The resignation is effective May 15.

Miss Williams said she had accepted a similar position with the Y. W. C. A. at Lewiston, Idaho. While regretting to leave Astoria, she said the work there presented a new field and opportunities for varied activities.

No selection to fill the vacancy left by Miss Williams' proposed departure has been made as yet.

Monthly Clinic Today.

The monthly baby clinic in charge of the Clatsop County Health association is scheduled to be held today at the Y. W. C. A.

Astoria Art Class Presents Program

The Astoria art class, under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian association, and taught by Mrs. R. J. Pilkington, gave an interesting art program last evening at the home of Mrs. Pilkington. The members of the executive board of the Y. W. C. A. and two representatives of the city library, Miss Barker and Mrs. Tyler, were present.

The artists have been studied with the thought in mind that, were the club members to go to Europe at some time, they would be able better appreciate the works of the great masters and fully understand them. The subjects studied the last season cover the period beginning with the renaissance of the Florentine artists, during the latter part of the thirteen century, and ending with the time of Michael Angelo.

Next winter the club will resume its study. The year's study will be of the Venetian artists.

Following is the program given last evening: "Amabue," Mrs. R. A. Stone; "Giotto," Mrs. Stone; "Fra Angelico," Miss E. Grace Williams; "Maccio," Mrs. Stone; "Fra Filippo Lippi," Miss Lena Smith; "Botticelli," Miss Williams; "Filippino," Miss Williams; "Leonardo di Vinci," Miss Smith; "Raphael," Miss Sigrud Godenberg, and "Michael Angelo," Mrs. Lawrence.

The following reference books were borrowed from the city library: "The Art of Florence," by Powers; "Schools of Painting, European and American," by Innes; and "Short History of Italian Painting," by Brown and Rankin Masters in Art.

Y. W. C. A. Pageant.

An invitation to the public to attend the Y. W. C. A. pageant to be given at the Presbyterian church at 8 p. m. on Tuesday evening, May 11, has been extended by Y. W. officials. Thirty persons will take part in the pageant and the real purpose of the Y. W. C. A. will be graphically portrayed by this group, who will be beautifully costumed. Special lighting effects have been devised. Miss Floyd Foster is directing the display.

Y. W. C. A. PAGEANT IS BIG SUCCESS, MANY ARE PRESENT

The pageant given last evening by the Young Women's Christian association was a great success. About 200 people were present to listen to the story of the association given under the title of "In Spirit and In Truth", a pageant in which 25 young women in Astoria participated.

Miss Marjorie Knapp, Girl Reserve secretary of the Y. W. C. A. had the leading role, representing Christian Womanhood who through the spirits of Faith, Hope, Charity, Joy and Wisdom and their attendants revealed the underlying facts and program of the "Y", represented by the standard bearer, Miss Florence Brandenburg. The costumes were colorful and the special lighting under the direction of Robert E. Lee of the Pacific Power and Light company could not have been handled better. Mrs. W. R. Swart, soprano; Mrs. H. J. James, Piano, and Betty Siddall, violin furnished the effective music parts and the spirits of light who came in at the close gave the whole a suitable closing.

At the end announcement was made by Mrs. Harry Burke, president of the local association thanking all who helped to make the program such a success and invited all to attend the public reception at the "Y" immediately afterwards to bid farewell to Miss Grace Williams, general secretary who leaves soon to take the same position with the Lewiston, Idaho Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Lena Smith who helped in the office nine weeks last fall has been employed to carry on the employment and room registry also general office work until such time as another general secretary can be secured. Miss Smith starts her work Monday, May 17.

Y.W.C.A. Pageant Tonight to Tell Purpose of Body

Offering the pageant, "In Spirit and In Truth," the Y. W. C. A. will present their spring festival this evening at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The festival, sponsored by local Y. W. C. A., is free, and members of the organization and their friends are invited.

The pageant, the feature of the evening program, depicts the purpose and principles of the Y. W. C. A. Twenty-five people have parts in the pageant are taken by Mrs. Carl Iverson, Faith; Miss Esther Nelson, Hope; Miss Margaret Morgan, Charity; Mrs. Emil Palmrose, Joy; Miss Pearl Johnson, Wisdom; Miss Ruth Johnson, The Voice Within, and Miss Florence Brandenburg, Standard Bearer.

Mrs. W. R. Swart will be soloist for the pageant with Miss Betty Siddall, violinist, and Mrs. James, pianist, also contributing to the musical parts. Miss Grace Williams, secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., is in general charge of the program.

Pageant Depicts Y.W.C.A. Purpose

Depicting the purpose and ideals of the Y. W. C. A., the local branch of the organization last night presented the pageant, "In Spirit and in Truth" before a large audience at the First Presbyterian church.

The carefully worked out theme of the pageant expressed in symbolic nature the high ideals of the Young Women's Christian association. Twenty-five persons took part in the pageant. Mrs. W. R. Swart contributed several pleasing solos and Miss Betty Siddall, violinist, and Mrs. James pianist, added in the musical presentation.

Following the pageant a reception was held at the Y. W. C. A. for Miss Grace Williams, secretary of the local branch, who leaves for another post shortly.

MISS WILLIAMS LEAVES

5-18-26
Miss E. Grace Williams, Y. W. C. A. secretary for the past five years left yesterday afternoon for Portland and valley points where she will spend the next ten days with relatives before going on to Lewiston, Idaho, the first of June to assume her position as secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in that city. Miss Williams was accompanied to the train by a large number of Girl Reserves and hosts of other friends who joined in wishing her a happy trip and much success in her new field.

B. P. W. DINNER

The twenty girls who will be graduated from the commercial class of the high school in June were guests of honor last evening at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held at the Hotel Astoria at 6:15 o'clock. The program opened with songs led by Miss Bess Spicer, assisted by the Chirpers, then followed introductions around the table and a delightful vocal solo by Mrs. Burgunder with Mrs. H. James as accompanist. Miss Betty Siddall gave several charming violin numbers with Mrs. James again acting as accompanist. Two most interesting talks by Senator W. S. Kinney and Dr. Nellie S. Vernon were much enjoyed. The attendance prize was won by Miss Signe Olson. A nominating committee, composed of Miss Enberg, Miss Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Snyder, Miss Bess Spicer and Miss Vivian Jackson was named to nominate officers for the coming year. Miss Amella Haaland, sister of Dr. Martha Lowe who is spending the summer here was also a guest at the dinner.

Farewell Reception

Following the delightful pageant given Tuesday evening at the First Presbyterian church, a farewell reception was held in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. building complimenting Miss E. Grace Williams, who is leaving Saturday for Lewiston, Ida. The hostesses were the members of the official board. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

GIRLS' BAZAAR GREAT SUCCESS AT Y. W. C. A.

"Failoychees" Proceeds $15,
Blue Triangle $12; Total $75 for Social Service.

The bazaar of the eight girls' clubs in the basement of the Y. W. C. A. Saturday was a brilliant success, $75 in cash being the net proceeds from the sale of holiday tokens and useful articles made by the individual girls. This money goes into the budget of each club for social service work. The girls are 12 to 18 years old.

The "Failoychee" club, whose name, designed to be mysterious, represents three great virtues of girlhood and womanhood, with twenty members, led by Miss Genevieve Howell, achieved the greatest sale, the total being $15. The Blue Triangle was second, with almost $12, led by Miss Wilson, secretary of the girls' work of the Y. W. C. A.

The bazaar was thronged all day by eager-faced girls and matrons, and not a few fathers peeped in to enjoy the unusual scene of social usefulness and feminine happiness. Everything was reported sold by 4:30, thus achieving the girls' purpose, with two hours to spare for checking up and congratulations. They began at once planning continuation service to others for the holiday period. The girls were pleased by the common generosity of their patrons. Fifty cents was paid for hundreds of different articles, with the added personal commendation which the fair young workers said they prized above money.

"We know exactly, in each club, just how every penny of the money is to be used, for each club has a budget and a program of purposes," said one of the girls. Some of it will be devoted to Y. M. C. A. work; all of it for social service.

The girls' motto at present is: "Do whatever you promise to do at any time." Their practical efforts are being directed by the Y. W. C. A. toward these ideals: Responsibility (to be assumed, if necessary), courtesy, good health, spirituality.

The united clubs will have a gorgeous Christmas tree, burdened with gifts for needy children. The hospitality committee of the Business Girls' organization also is planning a Christmas tree for December 20. The Y. W. C. A.'s vesper services, to be unusually enjoyable this time, will be held Sunday, December 18.
